Sir Hamar believed that the government would succeed in ending the campaign of murder, and when the way would open and Ireland would be handed over to the Irish. Those in Ulster would have their parliament, and the rest of Ireland would have its parliament.

The government would do its utmost to back them financially, and would not consider them as prodigals, but as two favorite sons of the empire. Once these parliaments started, he believed the problem would rapidly be solved.

URKS INVADE ARMENIA.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NGTON, Oct. 13.—Turkish armies operating toward Olti Bar- have started a drive on Kars after crossing into Arme- ry in force, say advices reaching the State Department today.

They have occupied Sari Kamish, in Armenia, the first important rail- way point.

The first object of the movement was said to be possession of Kars, Batoum and Ardahan, which were allocated to Turkey under the Brest-Litovsk treaty. The second objective is to prepare for a possible junction with Bolshevik supplies and troops should the latter start an expedition from the north.

All Armenians of military age have been called to the colors. The government has taken over the railways.

The State Department announcement says:

"Soviet influence and Bolshevik sympathizers are apparently on the side of the Turk Nationalists, but are meeting with no success in their efforts to aid the movement against Armenia. It is reported that the soviet authorities in Azerbaijan undertook to send the Twenty-eighth and Second divisions of the Eleventh Russian Army against Armenia from the northeast to connect with the Turkish forces invading from the southwest, but were prevented by a threat of rebellion on the part of the Mussavat party, whose political influence is sufficient to make their threat of rebellion an effective deterrent to any military help from the soviet army to the Turkish forces.

"The Turkish advance is said to be proceeding very slowly and to have met united resistance all along the front."

WILSON STARTS HOUSE HUNTING

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—President Wilson, who expects to live in Washington after next March, according to his friends is still looking for a home in a quiet suburban section of the city.

It was said today that President and Mrs. Wilson had looked at a home in Edgemoor, a new suburb of Washington, and during the last few days had driven into other sections presumably house-hunting. As far as can be learned President Wilson is anxious to reside in Washington after the end of his term and to devote himself to writing a history of the war.

SLAIN BOY'S FATHER GLAD FOR TRUTH.

Case Against "The Crank," Blakely Coughlin Slayer, Being Prepared.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—Convinced the mystery of the kidnaping June 3 of Blakely Coughlin, the 12-months-old son of George H. Coughlin of Norristown, has been cleared up by the confession of August Pasquale, the authorities today began preparation of their case against the crank for presentation to the Montgomery County Court.

"I am very much relieved, now that the tension is broken," said Mr. Coughlin. "The suspense of living the rest of my life without the sure knowledge of the fate of my boy is settled. I am glad it is over."

Although Pasquale, according to Maj. Lynn G. Adams, head of the State police, confessed that he smothered the child while making his escape with it under his coat and threw the body in the Schuylkill River, legal authorities said he could not be tried on the charge of murder because of the absence of proof a "corpus delicti" or "body of the crime."

In addition to the kidnaping and slaying of the Coughlin boy, Pasquale also will be charged with the murder in Philadelphia June 1 of Mrs. Rose Asserman, who conducted a rooming-house here. He told Maj. Adams he went to the house for robbery and had killed Mrs. Asserman with a piece of slate. He also is said to have confessed killing a man in a saloon here about nine months ago.

FINANCES IN CUBA NOT IN BAD SHAPE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Financial conditions in Cuba are not considered serious by officials of the Department of Commerce, who declared today that the government's action in declaring a moratorium was necessary to protect responsible traders during the present slump in business.

Overspeculation, the drop in sugar prices and the general excitement incident to the coming election are ascribed by officials here as the causes of the financial flurry.

WELCOMED BY SOUTH.

Harding is Guest of Chattanooga.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHATTANOOGA (Tenn.) Oct. 13. Preaching one people, one pride, one purpose, one country and one flag, Senator Harding entered the southland today on the fighting chance of carrying Tennessee and Kentucky.

From the summit of Lookout Mountain this afternoon he looked upon the fair panorama of Democratic votes in Alabama, Mississippi and Georgia. They were obscured in the smoke haze of far-away burning forests. He turned to the nearer view of the valley of the Tennessee and upon it built his real hope of breaking the solid South.

Tonight, speaking before an audience of 8000 in the Billy Sunday tabernacle, he pressed his fight against President Wilson and his League, his autocratic administration, calmly ignoring Gov. Cox, titular head of the party. He received a fair and friendly hearing. He was the guest of the city and was shown every courtesy of the South. Whether this courtesy will be carried into the voting booths is a question, although Joe Kealing, who came into the State to scout, says there is fair chance of victory for the Republican ticket.

HITS HARD AND STRAIGHT.

Senator Harding hit hard and straight from the shoulder in attacking the Democratic administration. He indicted the President as having come dangerously near to overthrowing the Constitution. He denounced the covenant of the League of Nations as containing the heart of a military alliance, a thing that the United States cannot accept. He scored Article X, as a plan to mortgage to the powers of Europe the honor and manhood of America. This was strong language in Tennessee but Hardings was applauded.

He spent most of the day in touring the battlefields of Chickamauga Mission Ridge and Lookout Mountain and in his speech, after telling of the appeal to the South, that has come with the years, he reverted to the Civil War is justifying America's opposition to the Wilson league.

"North and South fought," he said, "because the States of the South thought they had the right to withdraw from the Union. The North thought they ought to be indissoluble. Then came the conflict over an ambiguity in the Constitution. There are a score of ambiguities in the President's covenant, and he would not tolerate their clarification by reservations.

"One related to withdrawal. The covenant said a nation might withdraw on two years' notice, provided it had fulfilled all its obligations. But it did not say who decided on the fulfillment. We want to decide in American conscience whether we have met our obligations like a free nation. We do not want to have to fight our way out. It is safer to make sure before going in."

OLD WAR HORSE THERE.

The chairman of the tabernacle meeting was C. L. Huston, chairman of the Republican campaign Ways and Means Committee of the State. Senator Harding was presented by Joe Brown, Republican candidate for Congress. Conspicuous among Republicans of the new generation was the old warrior of Ben Harrison's, Blaine's and McKinley's days, H. Clay Evans, formerly Consul-General to France and actual victor in a long ago fight for the Governorship though counted out.

Jesse Littleton, former national committeeman and Wood leader, was with the Harding party.

At the outset of his address Senator Harding alluded to his visit to the battlefields around the city and rejoiced in the new America that has come indissolubly from the conflict of half a century ago.

Senator Harding complimented traits and characteristics often referred to as "southern" and hoped the day would come when partisan differences could be buried under new understanding.

GOOD NORTH OR SOUTH.

"If Republican policies are good for the North," he said, "they deserve the earnest consideration of the South. The Republican party proclaims the same doctrine of agricultural good fortune in the South that it proclaims in the North. It preaches the same policy of finance. It preaches the same policy of helpful protection to all American production North or South.

Recognizing that the question of the protective value of a tariff is coming more and more to be a live issue in the South, Harding was at Bankruptcy Probable for Planters Claim of Men's Committee.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—In a resolution declaring that the cotton farmers of the South should not jeopardize the agricultural and commercial interests of the country by planting a large cotton crop next year, the agricultural conference being held here today went on record as recommending that a decreased acreage be planted next year unless conditions in the cotton market improved.

Several representatives of other agricultural interests opposed the resolution, declaring it would create a bad impression throughout the country.

TO ASK HEARING.

The conference decided tonight to request a hearing before the full membership of the Federal Reserve Board and its agents assembled for the regular fall policy conference, before that policy shall be formulated by the board insofar as it effects agricultural credits.

The reserve board is preparing to make a new statement of policy covering all phases of the credit situation, Gov. Harding told the convention here.

The statement, Gov. Harding said, probably would be made public Saturday after conclusion of the fall conference of Federal reserve agents and reserve bank governors here.

A committee from the board listened for three hours to accounts of conditions which the agricultural delegation said threatened the life of the nation through a reduction of food production. Difficulties of the farmers were laid almost wholly to inability to obtain financial assistance. It was asserted that banks of the reserve system were not supplying needed funds and that many local bankers said they were acting under instructions from the Federal Reserve Board.

NO CREDIT ISSUED.

Gov. Harding denied that the board had issued instructions which would result in curtailing farmers' credit. The board and officials of the reserve banks were in sympathy

PEACE HARDING'S TASK.

Senator Lodge in Providence Address Scores Wilson's League.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PROVIDENCE (R. I.) Oct. 13.—"The question which the people will settle during the coming election is whether they are prepared to reject the great doctrines of Monroe and the American principles of Washington and become a part of the European system," said Senator Lodge at a Republican meeting tonight.

He declared it would be the first and greatest task of Mr. Harding's administration to bring about measures and agreements which would promote the peace of the world without endangering the sovereignty of the United States, and which would meet with the approval of the conscience of the American people. Senator Lodge quoted Washington and continued:

"Washington carried out his principles in what was known as the neutrality policy when the great war broke out between England and France. That policy was to keep the United States out of the affairs of Europe and never to make any permanent alliances.

AMERICAN POLICIES.

"The necessary corollary was declared by Monroe in 1823 in the famous doctrine which bears his name, and that was that Europe should be kept out of the Western Hemisphere. But what is often overlooked is that Monroe at the same time restated the Washington policy that we should keep out of Europe. Those have become the American policies. This country has never departed from them from the days of Washington and Monroe to the present time.

"Even Mr. Wilson recognized the force of these doctrines, for when we entered the war he made no treaties of alliance. But when he made his League he abandoned the policies of Washington and Monroe under which we have so long lived and prospered as a nation. He asked the Senate to go with him in that abandonment and the Senate refused to do so.

Coal Shortage Not Likely if Care is Used.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—There will be no serious coal shortages in any part of the country this year provided ordinary care is exercised by consumers, it was predicted here today at the conference of the National Coal Association, which comprises two-thirds of the bituminous coal producers of the United States.

The operators, however, declared that in order to keep the markets supplied, a sufficient supply of railroad cars also would be required. At this time it was stated bituminous operators were getting only about 25 to 30 per cent of the open-top cars needed.

LOOT VAULTS, SECURE $25,000 NEAR OAKLAND; ESCAPE IN STOLEN CAR

OAKLAND, Oct. 13.—The sheriffs of a half-dozen Central California counties were engaged in a search tonight for four bandits who robbed the Alameda County Bank of Alvarado, twenty-five miles east of here, of approximately $25,000 in coin and currency today after shooting and probably mortally wounding August H. May, president of the institution. A stolen automobile was abandoned by the bandits at San Lorenzo.

May was brought to a hospital in this city, where it was announced he could not live. Three of the bandits, two unmasked, rushed into the almost deserted bank about noon, according to Mrs. C. M. Anderson, the bank's book-keeper, while a fourth stood guard near the automobile. May, attracted by the noise of their entrance, came to the door of his office and saw Mrs. Anderson and the assistant cashier, P. A. Lydecker, covered by a revolver in the hands of the bandits.

Immediately the other two shot him down. The robbers then cleared the counters and tills of money, shoved Mrs. Anderson and Lydecker into the vault and a moment later dragged May in also. They then slammed the door of the vault, but did not lock it, and a moment later were racing away in the direction of Oakland.

Ten minutes afterward an employes of a near-by sugar factory, who had come to the bank to make a deposit, heard shouts from the vault. He pulled the big door open and found Mrs. Anderson and Lydecker kneeling over May and endeavoring to dress his wounds.

The sheriffs of Alameda and Santa Clara counties immediately sent posses in pursuit. Later the shotgun squad of the Oakland police department departed for the hills back of Oakland.

Alvarado is a settlement of approximately 300 people in the foothill regions east of Oakland. The authorities said they believed it would be difficult for the bandits to evade capture in the open, rolling country.

BANDITS' DESCRIPTION.

A description of the bandits was obtained by Albert J. Lawrence of Hayward, whose car they seized at gun points, when their own broke down. Another car came along in a moment, and the driver and Lawrence gave chase to the bandits but lost them. Mrs. Anderson and Lydecker, also gave the authorities a description of the bandits.

The authorities announced at first that $50,000 had been taken from the bank, but changed this figure later to $25,000.

The green car they escaped in was abandoned a little ways outside of San Lorenzo when the robbers stopped Lawrence, at the point of a shotgun, took his machine from him and rode away in it with their loot. Lawrence drove the abandoned car back into Alvarado. It was identified as the property of A. Sullivan of San Francisco. It had been stolen from the roadside near San Lorenzo, before the robbers entered Alvarado.

LIQUOR BRIBERY TOLD.

Federal Agent Recites Story Before the Grand Jury at San Francisco.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—W. J. Jordan, deputy internal revenue agent, who swore to a complaint that Charles Daniels and Charles Callaghan offered him a bribe of $8100 to facilitate withdrawal of liquor from bonded warehouses, was called before the Federal grand jury today.

Other witnesses before the grand jury in its investigation of charges of improper use of permits to withdraw liquor, were Henry D. Smith and Jesse Flanders, deputy prohibition enforcement officers, who were present when the alleged attempt at bribery took place.

Mrs. Gladys Warburton, acting prohibition enforcement officer for California, after the death of Loren Handley, until relieved by John L. Considine, district prohibition supervisor, will not be called before the grand jury, it was stated by United States Attorney Frank M. Silva. A clause in the prohibition enforcement act makes free from prosecution any person summoned as a grand jury witness, he pointed out.

Mrs. Warburton, who left her post in the prohibition enforcement office, several days ago, reappeared today, but was transferred to the prohibition supervisor's office, on instructions from Washington.

EX-MARSHAL SURRENDERS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 13.—Former Dep. U. S. Marshal William C. Carse surrendered late yesterday afternoon to his successor, Dep. U. S. Marshal George Cooley, after a warrant had been issued for the arrest of Carse, charging him with selling liquor in violation of the Volstead Act. Carse is one of the owners of a club at Ocean Beach, and it is charged that he sold whisky to visitors at the club. At the same time Dist.-Atty H. S. Utley, representing the Federal government, has begun action under the enforcement provisions of the Volstead Act for the closing of the club and has petitioned the Superior Court for an order closing the building.

He did not violate the law by selling it, the court held, but since he admittedly sold it without securing a license, his petition was dismissed.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—The American Railway Express Company petitioned the State Railroad Commission today for permission to increase its intrastate rates 13½ per cent, instead of 12½ per cent, recently requested.

The company said that wage increases granted by the United States Railroad Labor Board would compel it to pay out $850,000 more for operating expenses this year.

MARINES IN HAITI ACCUSED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Disclosure that a summary investigation of alleged practically indiscriminate killing of Haitian natives by United States marines was ordered more than a year ago by Maj.-Gen. Barnett, then commandant of the Marine Corps, was made today in publication of a report by Gen. Barnett on operations in Haiti during American occupation.

Evidence at the trials of two marine privates for the killing of natives "shocked me beyond expression," Gen. Barnett said in a letter September 27 to Col. John H. Russell, commanding in Haiti, ordering an immediate investigation, with the approval of Secretary Daniels.

REPORT SUBMITTED.

It was carried out at once by Col. Russell, who submitted a report to the Navy Department on March 20, 1920, but, Gen. Barnett said, the report had not been turned over to Marine Corps headquarters up to last June when he was succeeded as commandant of the corps by Maj.-Gen. John A. Lejeune. Gen. Barnett's report contains no indication of the result of the investigation, as it covers operations in Haiti only up to the time he was relieved as commandant.

The two who face execution are John Henry Reese, negro convicted of wife murder, and Frank Campione, found guilty of killing a saloonkeeper.

BORAH QUOTES WILSON SPEECH.

Attacks President's Attitude on League of Nations.

Gov. Coolidge Plans Invasion of Solid South.

MANCHESTER (N. H.) Oct. 13. President Wilson, in a speech at the Peace Conference, already the subject of widely-published controversy between him and Senator Spencer of Missouri, declared "That if any covenants of this settlement are not observed the United States will send her armies and navies to see that they are observed," Senator Borah asserted here tonight.

"When you get down to the actual workings of the League," said Senator Borah, "it seems harsh and autocratic and altogether objectionable. When they tell us that the League will bring peace everybody wants peace and so favors the League. But when you turn from theory to fact and see it obligates us to send our boys across the sea, our Army and Navy, it creates an uproar of disapproval and hastens explanation and denials. Yet that is precisely what the League in its practical workings means.

TWO THINGS STATED.

"There are two things stated in the speech President Wilson put out as authoritative, which sustain every charge we have ever made against this gigantic autocracy based on force. The first statement reads as follows:

"'And back of that lies the fundamental and important fact that when the decisions are made the Allied and associated powers guarantee to maintain them.' How are you going to maintain them except by sending the Army and the Navy across the sea?

"We have, first, the solemn guarantee of the Allied and associated powers to maintain all decisions and all boundaries. As to how we are going to do this is answered by the President himself in another place in the same speech, in which he says: 'If any covenants of this settlement are not observed the United States will send her armies and navies to see that they are observed. . . . We must not close our eyes to the fact that in the last analysis the military and naval strength of the great powers will be the final guarantee of the peace of the world.'"

COOLIDGE GOING SOUTH.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Gov. Coolidge, Republican Vice-Presidential candidate, will start from Washington October 17 on a tour of Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia and Maryland, ending at Baltimore October 24, it was announced at Republican national headquarters here today.

Gov. Morrow of Kentucky, Gov. Lowden of Illinois and J. S. Hedges of New York will go with Gov. Coolidge.

Senator Borah of Idaho will speak at Gary, Ind., October 19 and Peru, Ind., October 20, and somePeru, Ind., October 20, and someit was announced.

CHRISTENSEN WOULD JAIL PROFITEERS.

FARMER-LABOR CANDIDATE ADMITS PARTY MAY NOT WIN THIS YEAR.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CLINTON (Iowa) Oct. 13.—"If I am elected President I am going to send to Leavenworth every scoundrel who made excess profits off you boys during the war," Parley P. Christensen, Farmer-Labor Presidential candidate, told an audience here today.

"They say I am stirring up strife between classes," he continued. "I am, but there are only two classes, skinned and skinners, and we are the skinned. If you think Cox is a bit better than Harding, you're crazy. They are 'twiddle dee, twiddle dum.' It does not make a bit of difference which is elected, the League of Nations will be adopted. It is nothing less than an understanding between nations to control money and business, and was put over at the behest of the international banking soviet. It means slavery for the people instead of freedom."

Christensen predicted that, while the Farmer-Labor party may not win this year, it will eventually, and that then the workers will control railways, banks and industry will claim a larger share of the profits themselves, besides reducing costs to the consumers.

The courts he declared out of touch with humanity and said they should be revised because they ignore Lincoln's declaration that when property and human rights conflict property rights must give way.

Both old parties are alike, he said, "only I think from long experience that the Republicans can steal more and faster than the Democrats, but cannot spend more or waste more."

FARMERS MEET IN CONFERENCE.

with the plight of the farmers, he said, and were encouraging loans to aid them, but the board was without authority to instruct member banks as to loans they could or could not make.

"In the first place," the Governor said, "I can see no practical value in your visit to the board. Our acts are defined by law. Your conference here with us has resulted only in your retelling what we already know. The board knows your trials and your difficulties and is in entire sympathy with you."

"Meanwhile the delegates considered whether they should press their request for a conference with President Wilson and his Cabinet. Some had thought it would be unnecessary to take their grievances before the Cabinet after the conference with the reserve board. It was said also that most Cabinet members were out of the city and that as the delegates expected to confer with Secretary Houston and Secretary Meredith tomorrow, a Cabinet conference might not be insisted upon.

GERMANS WANT COTTON.

Gov. Harding told the delegation that German interests had informed him they were in the market for 2,000,000 bales of American cotton. A German commercial agent who called on him, he said, had told him that German manufacturers were eager to buy, but the cotton producers must accept paper maturing in nine months in payment. The Governor suggested to the cotton interests represented that they make use of the German mark after the delegates had said there was no domestic market.

Spokesmen for the cotton men said also that confidence of banking interests in cotton appeared to have been shaken. They offered no explanation for it, but complained that it was defeating them in their efforts to borrow.

"I would suggest that the burning of gins and other destructive work which has been going on in certain sections of the South is not calculated to restore confidence," Gov. Harding said. "You cannot blame a banker for not wanting to make a loan on a commodity which might be destroyed, can you?"

Appeals were made to the board for the issuance of more currency. Speakers said the belief existed that it would relieve the financial stringency.

J. S. Wannamaker, president of the American Cotton Association, asked the board whether there was not some way in which this could be done. He said he was a banker and that he believed an increase in the Federal reserve note issue would remedy the situation.

Gov. Harding replied that the note issue now was nearly $1,000,000,000 more than a year ago, and that charges that deflation was responsible for the situation confronting producers were without foundation. The amount of note issue was governed by law, he said, and added that if the farmers would have the country on a paper basis they should ask Congress to change the laws.

"But the Federal Reserve Board will be no party to any such scheme," he continued. "It is economically wrong and you would all be sorry for proposing the change, once it had been made."

Senators Smith of South Carolina and Smith of Georgia voiced approval of the Governor's attitude.

The conference adopted other resolutions recommending that night riding and other forms of lawlessness in the cotton belt be condemned; that the War Finance Corporation be rehabilitated to finance exports; that the Federal Reserve Board be asked to define that orderly marketing was not contemplating the selling of farm products below cost; that statements of officials affecting prices be discontinued; that the formation of a cotton export corporation of not less than $100,000,000 be completed at once, or in lieu thereof the formation of pooling associations with the same end in view, and that no low-grade cotton be gathered this year, but left in the field for feed purposes.

LOSS ON EACH BUSHEL.

The special committee on wheat recommended that the Federal Reserve Board be asked to encourage its member banks to finance wheat growers. The report declared that wheat on the farms now selling for about $1.60 a bushel cost on an average $2.70 a bushel to raise. This means, said the report, a loss of approximately a dollar a bushel to the average wheat producer.

Provisions for the calling of a national agricultural congress to be made up of all the agricultural interests of the United States was made in other resolutions adopted by the conference.

"General bankruptcy and ruin are inevitable" unless some immediate remedy is found to relieve the present price situation as it affects the farmer, says a report submitted to the conference by a general committee appointed to study the situation. The report was adopted without a dissenting vote.

RESERVE SYSTEM NAMED.

The committee blames the Federal Reserve system for present conditions, charging that it has arbitrarily withheld from assisting the basic industry of this country to maintain a level of prices that at least meet the cost of production.

Declaring that the condition of the mind of the farm population is "ominous," the committee says: "This state of mind can only be changed by a frank and fair attitude on the part of those in authority, the test of which can be only their acts."

The committee says it is wrong as a matter of policy artificially to press down prices of commodities, and it is particularly wrong to begin with the raw commodities, for such a program inevitably forces upon the producers the heaviest burden of reconstruction and readjustment.

The report says the present situation was brought about by the following official acts:

CAUSE OF SITUATION.

"Restriction of credits.

"Discontinuance of the War Finance Corporation.

"The statements given out by the Secretary of the Treasury, the governor of the Federal Reserve Board and the Federal reserve banks have been construed to the effect that commodity prices, particularly the price of farm products, were too high, and that a prewar basis, or an approximation of a prewar basis of prices, must be reached within a short time. The consequent effect of these utterances upon member banks of the Federal reserve system and the banking industry of the country generally was to cause them to withhold accommodations because of the fear that the security taken would necessarily decline.

"The action of the Federal Reserve Board in counting the bonds held by member banks as part of the commercial credit of the banks holding these bonds, thereby enormously decreased the power of such banks to extend the needed credits to the agricultural interests in their respective communities.

AUTHORITY EXCEEDED.

"Your committee feels that the officials of the Treasury Department and the Federal reserve system have exceeded their authority when they publicly announced opinion as to prices of farm products which have resulted in disastrous price declines."

The committee further reports that it is of the opinion "that the functions of these institutions as expressed in the law are to discharge the duties imposed on them by the law and spirit of the law, regardless of what effect it may or may not have upon the markets of the country and price of commodities. We believe that the rate of discount should be determined first by the character of the paper offered for discount and, second, by the aggregate earnings of the Federal reserve system, and that the rate should not be used as a weapon to deflate prices or discourage proper loans and commercial transactions.

"We therefore insist that the Federal reserve officers and officers of the Treasury Department shall discontinue and desist from issuing statements of their opinion as to prices and their attitude toward the trend of commercial events."

DISCOUNT RATES.

The committee recommends that the rate of discount for the marketing of the agricultural products be made as low as justified by sound business and that the rate on a fixed or certain class of paper shall be uniform and that the rate be not changed during the period of crop marketing. If the Federal reserve officers will take such action at once, the report says, "with particular reference to a more liberal policy in extending credits for the encouragement of exports, we believe that the distress and unrest among farmers of the country will be greatly relieved."

"Prices of commodities that farmers receive will be determined by the law of supply and demand, if artificial and gainful advices and statements are withheld," the report continued. "The question for these officials (treasury and reserve board) to determine is what rate of interest and discount is justifiable under the law, and to leave the question of the marketing and prices to the natural laws of commerce."

FINDS MEXICO'S TRANQUIL LAND.

Consul-General Declares Era of Prosperity Returns.

Invites Ambitious Americans to Seek Fortune There.

No Anti-Foreign Feeling Now, Asserts R. P. De Negri.

Telling of a Mexico which is "absolutely tranquil," R. P. De Negri, Consul-General for that country in New York, has sent The Times a statement in which he asserts that a new day has dawned for his country. "Mexico is at peace," he says. "In no part of the republic does there exist one man outside of the law, nor does one hear a single shot. This means nothing less than to say that the government of Mexico is building up upon public opinion."

The Consul-General declares that the people of Mexico are, with every reason, perfectly satisfied with conditions as they exist there today. He says they founded their hopes upon the ideals for which they fought from 1910 to the present time and which "have now resulted in undisputed reality." He adds:

FORM GUARANTEE.

"These hopes formed a guarantee to the people of Mexico. The young men who are at the front of her destinies likewise formed one. They comprise the men who will rule over her destinies, viz, the President-elect, Senor C. Alvaro Obregon; the present President, Senor Adolfo de la Huerta, and their most ardent collaborators, Gen. P. Elias Calles and Senor Salvador Alvarado, who represent an ideal governing group. They are simple men and strong because they represent righteousness and justice; they forget the past in order to dedicate all their energies to make of Mexico, a country which has struggled for its rights and liberty, a powerful and respected nation."

The pulse of conditions today can, says Mr. De Negri, be readily appreciated by a careful study of statistics covering imports and exports to and from Mexico. They show an enormous increase in business during the past few months. "This increase is solely due to the fact that the peoples of both countries feel and are now enjoying absolute confidence in one another, which has resulted in an almost unprecedented stimulation in trade," declares the Consul-General.

CALL TO AMBITIOUS.

He invites all foreigners to go to Mexico in order to satisfy themselves of the truth of his statements, and says all honest men possessed of willingness, and who are law-abiding and have legitimate ambitions may go to Mexico and establish homes with the assurance of making fortunes. He says they can count on the fact that the future of their families is guaranteed. The Consul-General asserts that no antiforeign sentiment exists, and all who go to his country will be received with open arms. "We desire," he states, "only the best of harmony with the people of the United States of America, and with the peoples of the world in general, without distinction as to race, and for all we have a word and deed significant of a sincere brotherhood. We only ask for mutual respect, mutual reciprocity and mutual consideration."

Mr. De Negri states that he returns to this country bringing "a message of friendship and good understanding for the people of the United States, and especially for the people of California, whom I love. This perhaps is due to the fact that I resided fully four years in this State and when I left California it was with impressions so agreeable that I shall never forget them. Mexico and her people, through me, convey to the people of this country and of Latin America a fraternal salutation."

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE QUESTIONS CANDIDATES

HARDING SAYS HIS RECORD STANDS; NO REPLY RECEIVED FROM COX.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The Anti-Saloon League announced tonight that it had submitted identical questions to Senator Harding and Gov. Cox to develop their attitude regarding modification of the Volstead Prohibition Enforcement Act. The messages, embodying the question, were sent last Saturday from Nashville, by Henry Bach Carre, secretary of the league's special commission investigating the candidates' records on the liquor question and read:

"Will you, if elected, favor or oppose modification of the Volstead Act, to permit the manufacture or sale of beer or wine, or increase the alcoholic content, thus rendering the enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment more difficult? Immediate telegraphic reply requested."

Senator Harding's reply, dated last Monday, said:

"My recorded vote for the submission of the Eighteenth Amendment and law to enforce it answer your telegram. I stand by that record made in the public service."

While no reply had been received from Gov. Cox, the announcement said his secretary had answered that he would endeavor to present the inquiry to the Democratic candidate.

The league also made public a review of the public utterances of the two candidates, and their official acts relating to the liquor question. The committee said it had sent them to the candidates, requesting corrections or comment, but no reply was received from either.

ODD FELLOWS VISIT GOLD BOOM TOWNS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 13.—Business sessions were suspended today at the annual encampment of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of California, and the delegates went by automobile to Placerville and Coloma to visit the spot where gold was first discovered in California, and other points of historic interest.

On return to Sacramento competitive maneuvers by Patriarchs Militant drill squads featured the evening session. Teams from Fresno, San Francisco, Pomona, Berkeley, Stockton and Santa Rosa participated.

ORDERED FROM COUNTY.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BELFAST, Oct. 13.—While S. Weatherup, a national school inspector, was inspecting a school yesterday near Inishkeen, County Monaghan, armed men entered the school, forcibly removed him in a motor car across the border of County Monaghan, and ordered him not to return.

Weatherup's removal was due to his alleged hostility toward the teaching of Irish history in schools.

last, to submit a special report on conditions causing the investigation. This report was incorporated in the general operation report made public today. Gen. Barnett received the order while on leave of absence shortly after publication of statements by Senator Harding, Republican Presidential nominee, criticising the naval administration in Haiti.

In Secretary Daniels's absence from Washington tonight, the report of Col. Russell on his investigation was not available.

GEN. BARNETT'S LETTER.

In his letter to Col. Russell ordering the investigation, Gen. Barnett said:

"Judging by the knowledge gained only from the cases that have been brought before me, I think that the Marine Corps has been sadly lacking in right and justice and I look to you to see that this is corrected and corrected at once.

"I was shocked beyond expression to hear of such things and to know that it was at all possible that duty could be so badly performed by marines of any class.

"I want personal instructions sent to every officer and noncommissioned officer both with the marines and gendarmerie (Haitian constabulary) that conditions as shown by the evidence of the trial of the two privates above referred to must be corrected and that such action cannot be tolerated for a moment."

AMERICAN WOMAN IN CHINA PRACTICES LAW.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

AUSTIN (Tex.) Oct. 13.—Mrs. McCauley, wife of Lieutenant-Commander Cleveland McCauley of the United States Navy, now stationed in Chinese waters, has been admitted to practice law at Shanghai, China, according to a letter received from her by a friend here. She is the first woman to be admitted to the practice of law in the Far East, it is stated.

Mrs. McCauley received her law degree at the University of Texas and as Miss Helen Leary was graduated there a few years ago. Her home was in San Antonio. Following her college days she sought experience and adventure in the wide world. She began her career by going to Tampico, Mex., where she taught in an American school. From there she went to Honolulu, where she continued her career as a teacher.

It was there she was married to Lieutenant-Commander McCauley. Following her marriage, she accompanied her husband to Shanghai. How she went about it to break down the barrier of prejudice that is said to have existed among the legal authorities of the Far East against women entering the profession is not known, but she finally accomplished her purpose and is now a full-fledged practicing lawyer in the Chinese city.

GOMPERS ATTACKS PARTY CANDIDATES.

SCORES HARDING AND COOLIDGE BEFORE BOOKBINDERS' MEETING.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BALTIMORE, Oct. 13.—Addressing the convention of the International Brotherhood of Bookbinders today, Samuel Gompers denied reports that he could deliver the labor vote to the Democratic party, and said no person ever heard such an utterance coming from him. Mr. Gompers said that he owed allegiance to no political party, that he was a partisan to principles and labor.

"We are not Bolsheviki," continued Mr. Gompers, "nor have we our hands on the throat of our government. We purpose to exercise our rights solely as American citizens.

"I control only one vote—my own. I can only align myself against the man who has lined himself with reactionary interests and against the interests of the working people. I am going to urge all I can not to cast their vote for Harding and that police-baiter, Coolidge, but for Cox and Roosevelt."

LEAGUE COMMITTEE MAY HOLD AMERICAN.

ONE-TIME AMERICAN BARRED FROM COUNTRY

MAN OF GERMAN DESCENT, WHO LEFT IN 1903, CANNOT COME BACK NOW.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The application of Abraham Carl Enns for an American passport to return to the United States from Germany, where he is in a refugee camp, having been deported by British authorities from German East Africa, has been refused by the State Department on the ground that he has forfeited his American citizenship.

Enns, who was born at Fargo, N. D., in 1875, the son of a German father, left the United States in 1903 for German East Africa, where as a missionary he lived until 1908 and since that time in British East Africa, German East Africa and Germany.

Inquiry into official circles shows that he was requested by the head of his missionary society to settle his connection therewith. In 1919 he applied for German naturalization in German East Africa and on being refused wrote a letter to the authorities, which reveals his German sympathies and activities.

He was captured with an armed force of Germans in February, 1918, being himself armed at the time of the capture, and was interned by the British authorities.

Because of his long stay abroad and his German affiliations and sympathies the State Department has refused him the passport applied for and will refuse to vise any passport presented by him for return to the United States.

FOOTBALL NEGLECTED AS TWINS DISCRIMINATE

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Football is not the only important subject of discussion on the campus of the Northwestern University.

Mary and Margaret, the "military twins," who arrived at the beginning of the semester, are the interesting subjects. It became known that they were from Kentucky and that papa is a colonel. They became the "military twins" because they stepped the campus in perfect cadence and their eyes were always to the front. And that was all that anyone knew about them—only it did not hurt the eyes of the male sex to gaze upon them.

Greek-letter fraternity members vied with brothers to dent that shield of mystery and sorority sisters tried to break through, but whether it was direct conversation or a telephone call, the answer was invariably the same—thank you, no.

Today Mary and Margaret gave their first interview. They are of the Tenroyal (Ky.) Waddells. Last year they went to Michigan, but they found Ann Arbor somewhat provincial. They intended to joint the campus players, but decided just in time that papa and mamma would not approve of stage careers. So they are to bring out a book of poems on their life experiences shortly.

"But how can you write real poetry when you don't have to do with the boys?"

"Who told you that?" said she. "It is possible that we are criminals."

WON'T PROCLAIM DAY FOR LEAGUE

Gov. Coolidge Refuses Request of Committee.

West Virginia Executive also Declines to Act.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—A request by the League of Nations Day committee headed by President A. Lawrence Lowell of Harvard University, that the Governors of all States proclaim Sunday, October 24, as "League of Nations Day" to promote a better understanding of the covenant, was refused by Gov. Coolidge today.

To a suggestion that the people on that day be invited to read the covenant "in their homes and other places," and that the announcement be made also through the schools, the Governor replied that the people of the State would resent intrusion upon their worship on Sunday and that he would not undertake to make innocent children advocates of what they do not comprehend.

Gov. Coolidge's reply follows:

COOLIDGE'S REPLY.

"To the League of Nations Day committee:

"The Republican party stands for agreements among the nations to preserve the peace of the world and pledges its administration to such agreement. In its literature and in the press it is publishing the text of the Wilson League.

"I certainly hope it will be read and that the Senate reservations will be read with it. I cannot comply with your request. If by 'other places' you mean places of religious gathering, the people of Massachusetts would very much resent official intrusion upon their worship, nor shall I undertake to make innocent children advocates of what they do not comprehend.

"I am glad to join you in any proper way in securing an intelligent vote. I am compelled to refuse your proposal that I take action which would appear to give the Wilson League the official sanction of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and I use the office of Governor, which I hold for all the people, for the dissemination of a political propaganda by official proclamation resented by many of the people."

NOTHING OFFICIAL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHARLESTON (W. Va.) Oct. 13. League of Nations Day, October 24, will not be observed by official proclamation as requested by the League of Nations Day committee, Gov. Cornwell announced today.

"Such proclamation by me in this State," said the Governor, "would be construed by the opponents of the League as political. It would engender bad feeling and certainly would be inadvisable here."

Gov. Cornwell is a Democrat.

WOULD PRINT COPIES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LOGANSPORT (Ind.) Oct. 13.—Gov. Cox, while touring Indiana today, issued a statement urging friends of the League of Nations to gather a fund for printing the covenant. In part the statement said:

"I am making this appeal to the friends of peace in every community in America to establish at once a fund sufficient to print enough copies of the League covenant to take care of the demands for it. Everywhere we go people are asking for it. They want the facts and they resent the methods adopted to deny the facts."

He sent the following message to Manager Tris Speaker of Cleveland:

"Congratulations. Ohio is proud of you."

"CURB MARKET" FOR BOOZE.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Frank L. Boyd, supervising prohibition enforcement agent for New York State, has received orders from Federal headquarters in Washington to investigate the reports of the existence of a "curb market" in contraband liquor in the Bowery, it was learned today.

Within a short distance of police headquarters large transactions in liquor are said to have been made. The market is said to be open from late evening until the early morning hours.

LID NOT LIFTED, SAYS ENFORCEMENT HEAD.

Following a conference yesterday afternoon in the office of Internal Revenue Collector Carter, participated in by U. S. Atty. O'Connor, Prohibition Enforcement Agent Kriete and Mr. Carter's chief deputy, William White, the revenue chief issued the following statement that will be a hard blow to those who had themselves all keyed up to absorb the 200 yearly gallons of wine or cider that it had been officially said in San Francisco that one could make for home consumption:

"A great deal of misinformation has been foisted upon the local press in the last twenty-four hours in regard to changes of regulations in regard to prohibition enforcement. While the enforcement of prohibition is a matter entirely outside the jurisdiction of collectors of internal revenue, nevertheless, some of the reports that have been given to the press are sadly incorrect as to that part of the dispatch of public business relating to distilled liquors that does come under the jurisdiction of collectors of internal revenue. This office has received no instructions from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue 'lifting the lid,' or in any way modifying the present duties of collectors. The regulation permitting the domestic manufacture of fruit juices and ciders is a month or more old and was correctly reported in the local press at the time of its issue. The restrictions thrown around that concession, however, are so strict and minute as to render the concession anything but lifting the lid. Up to this hour, no instructions have been received by collectors of internal revenue to delay or forbid the regauge of distilled spirits in bonded warehouses for withdrawal upon withdrawal permits issued by the State Prohibition Director, nor those issued by the Commissioner of Prohibition in Washington. The safeguards already surrounding that transaction are deemed to be sufficient to meet any case of deliberate attempt of fraud on the revenues, and it is the protection of the revenues that is the special duty of collectors.

ACTION IS NATURAL.

"If the prohibition enforcement officers located here are investigating any withdrawals, such action is only a very natural one, as it is a part of their duties to so investigate and is not a circumstance that borders on the sensational in any respect. If frauds have been perpetrated, the past experience of the internal revenue service warrants the belief that such frauds will be discovered and the correct punishment meted out.

"It is unfortunate that misinformation of such sensational nature is conveyed to the press, as it excites inflammable imaginations into the belief that widespread corruption is open, arrogant and offensive. This internal revenue district is happily situated in regard to liquor traffic, for the reason that its business in that particular is small and unimportant as compared to other districts. However, it would not be strange if, owing to the revelations of fraud in some of the other districts, that have enormous business in distilled liquors that final investigation of all districts, large and small, would be undertaken by the prohibition forces in order to ascertain the facts relating to this business in each and every district."

HARDING SPEAKS IN SOLID SOUTH.

pains to say to Tennessee that a protective tariff for cotton and cottonseed was of as much concern to the Republican party as protection for the wheat and wool of the northland. He explained that the Republican party desires an industrial South as one of the essentials of an ideal nation.

Thereafter Harding paved the way for a very frank and thorough going denunciation of President Wilson's efforts to suppiant constitutional government with dictatorship and of the President's temporary success in that object.

ECHO OF PRESIDENT.

"Congress, while under Democratic control, was, with rare exceptions, a mere echo of the President," said Senator Harding. "He did not inform them from time to time respecting the state of the Union as the Constitution commands. He told them what to do."

Referring to the treaty he said:

"The President, to the astonishment of careful Americans instead of selecting a nonpartisan commission composed of the most capable the country afforded took as his sole task the negotiation of a treaty of peace. Not content with settling the issues of the war, he undertook to settle the affairs of the world for all time and to crystallize in perpetuity its existing boundaries and divisions of sovereignty.

"We have witnessed the persistent effort of the executive department to dominate the legislative department and the treaty advising Senate, all in violation of all that is explicit in the letter and implied spirit of the Constitution. During the past eight years we have come dangerously near to overturning this constitutional theory of separate and coequal agencies and putting in their place the theory of a master."

Then Senator Harding emphatically stated that he intended, when President, to reverse that tendency and that he would undertake to bring the government back to the Constitution.

"I shall not submit a treaty to the Senate with the arrogant demands that they shall take it or leave it," he said. "I shall ask their advice and consent. I shall not undertake to set aside and refuse to enforce an act of Congress as so recently has been done in the Senate in the case of the Merchant Marine Act. I shall enforce all the laws whether I personally like them or not and if I think that any law is vitally unwise or improper, I shall not resort to nullification, but submit the matter with my views to Congress and call that body together in a special session, if necessary, to that end.

"If, after all, there shall result a disagreement between us upon a matter which greatly affects the public welfare, I shall not hesitate to appeal to the people themselves, to whom both of us are finally accountable, to determine between us. I shall do this, whether Congress be Republican or Democratic.

INTENDS TO BE PRESIDENT.

"Let me add that, while I do not intend to be the Congress, I do intend to be President. I shall never attempt to invade the province or usurp the powers of any other department of the government, and I promise you just as emphatically that I shall not permit any other department, instrumentality, individual or group of individuals to usurp the powers that will be mine under the Constitution of the United States."

Senator and Mrs. Harding were guests at a luncheon given by the city at Signal Mountain Inn. Later a reception was held at the Patten Hotel. In the course of his drive through the streets the Senator was met with great courtesy. It was noticed that hundreds of men lifted their hats to him, although there was little cheering. The Senator spent the night on his train and will leave at 7 a.m. tomorrow for Louisville, with several speeches booked in Kentucky en route.

LUXEMBURG NOW HAS CHARGE D'AFFAIRES.

in this country is anxious to promote the world's peace, and it will be the first and greatest task of Senator Harding's administration to bring about measures and agreements which will really promote the peace of the world without endangering the safety, independence and sovereignty of the United States, and which will meet with the universal approval of the conscience of the American people.

"It is the shallowest of devices to attempt to create opposition to the Republican party, because it is opposed to this League, this ill-omened alliance brought back by Mr. Wilson from Paris. . . . It is not a League to promote peace. It is an alliance. It rests on force. It contemplates armies. It provides for war to be carried on by the members of the League, who are allies.

"Who are to represent the countries in the League when they meet in the Council and the Assembly, dispassionate jurists who will gather to settle disputes with an eye single to right and justice? Not at all. The men who sit around the table of the League will be diplomats and politicians, thinking first of the interests of their several countries and eager to use the alliance which is made by the League to obtain the prizes in land and wealth which they seek."

McADOO SEES LEAGUE AS BIGGEST ISSUE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CONNELLSVILLE (Pa.) Oct. 13. William G. McAdoo, campaigning for the Democratic party, entered the coke country of Western Pennsylvania today and made a number of addresses in which he urged ratification of the League of Nations covenant.

Mr. McAdoo described the document as "one of the greatest ever conceived by human minds" and declared that "if James M. Cox were against the League and Warren G. Harding were for it, I, as a Democrat, would support Harding, because I know that the future rests more on a settlement of this basic question than any other. I would break every party tie on earth and stand for the principle of this League."

LLOYD GEORGE STARTS FIGHT.

Irish Speech Begins a Bitter Political Battle.

Asquith Promises to Answer Premier's Utterances.

Charges Welshman Condones "Hellish Reprisals Policy."

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, Oct. 13.—Premier Lloyd George's Welsh speech on Ireland has started what promises to become one of the bitterest political battles since the war.

Ex-Premier Asquith has promised that tomorrow he will make answer to the Prime Minister's speech and the country expects him to do some plain talking in development of his charge that Lloyd George condones "the hellish policy of reprisals."

TO REACH CLIMAX.

The feud is expected to reach its climax when Parliament reassembles next week and the government brings out the Irish home rule measure, which the London Times describes as emaciated and discredited. The paper charges that the measure is supported by the government simply because Sir Edward Carson had the Prime Minister in his political pocket.

TURNING POINT.

Consistently loyal to the Prime Minister the Manchester Guardian today says that the Carnarvon speech marks the turning point in Lloyd George's career.

It is difficult to see how anything beneficial to Ireland can result from the fight between two leading British statesmen and the newspapers supporting them. Neither is there any prospect of the opposition developing enough strength to bring about a political crisis. Lloyd George has strengthened himself with Conservative support and still retains his firm hold on the coalition Liberals.

Morally the government is considerably weakened, but its political strength is still sufficient to control the situation.

CONTROLS MAJORITY.

The opposition, composed of Asquith, Liberals, the masses of labor and a few Unionists who disagree with Carson will become more solidified and may enjoy the support of a large measure of public opinion, but Lloyd George controls the majority vote in the House of Commons.

Some political observers predict the defeat of the government at the general elections this fall, but there is little to justify this forecast.

ATTITUDE FELT.

The government professes to feel keenly the unsympathetic attitude of America, France and even some of the colonies regarding its Irish policy, although it is difficult to appreciate why it should do so when half the newspapers of England and Scotland contain criticism bitter enough to leave them open to the charge of supporting the Sinn Fein.

SCOTCH BOOZE STORY TO BE INVESTIGATED,

ADVERTISEMENTS IN PAPERS SAY BUSINESS WITH AMERICA INCREASES.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

EDINBURGH (Scotland) Oct. 13. Advertisements appearing in Scottish newspapers, in which distillers claim that their business with America has greatly increased since prohibition went into effect, will be brought to the attention of the Department of Justice at Washington, William E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson, prohibition leader, addressing a meeting here last night, discussed these advertisements and asserted he would take this action regarding them.

He charged that, if the advertisements told the truth, the distillers were violating the laws of a friendly nation.

FAILURE OF FUSE SAVES NEWSPAPER.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NORTH BEND (Or.) Oct. 13.—Failure to burn of the fuse attached to a gallon syrup jar filled with dynamite probably prevented the destruction of the plant of the Sunday Morning Bee, a newspaper published by Frank B. Cameron. Cameron resides in the building. He found the bomb in the basement of the Bee office yesterday.

Examination of the bomb by the police showed that the fuse, which had been run through the top of the jar, had been squeezed together, and this is believed to have extinguished the fuse after it had been set afire. No clew to the identity of the bomb's maker has been found, the police said.

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) Oct. 13.—Alvin Blaine, age 10, escaped from the Kentucky Children's Home here and, obtaining a flatboat, started down the river to his old home at Wickliffe, Ky., where the Ohio and Mississippi rivers meet. He passed the United States coast guard undetected but his little craft caught in the swift current, was wrecked as it passed over the falls. Where he landed he could touch bottom, but the water was too rough for him to attempt to swim to shore so he stood there all night until rescued by a government boat tender.

The sessions tomorrow are for discussions of sanitary methods and cost systems in laundries. The convention will close Friday.

BOSSY'S MILK BETTER THAN "MULE" OR "JAKE"

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHARLESTON (W. Va.) Oct. 13. Prohibition officers are stumped by a new kind of intoxication. Everett May, arrested for being drunk, swore he had only four drinks of milk, but that the milk was more than 2.75 per cent. The old cow had been grazing in a pasture where the ground was covered with fallen apples. After it had stood a few hours, the cow's milk fermented. The court believed him.

BOMB CAUSED BLAZE IN OAKLAND, THEORY.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

OAKLAND, Oct. 13.—A fire, believed by the police to have been caused by an incendiary bomb of unusual power, last night partially destroyed the home of William Williamson at 1515 Grove street.

Witnesses declared that a muffled explosion preceded the blaze and that flames more than 100 feet in height were visible at the inception of the fire.

A RE-CREATING Instrument

—NOT a "talking machine"

The New Edison alone has won the right, legally and in scientific fact, to be called a RE-CREATING instrument.

Between this wonderful RE-CREATING instrument and a "talking machine" there is a difference so great that you could not yet have realized it or you would now own

The NEW EDISON

With the object of bringing this realization to as many people as possible, in the most convincing way, the Fitzgerald Music Company has carried on an intensive educational campaign, engaging for special Tone Tests or comparison recitals some of the foremost vocal artists of America. In each of these Tone Tests the New Edison has proved to the astonishment of all that there is not the slightest difference between the voice of a living artist and the New Edison's RE-CREATIONS.

Let us send the New Edison to your home for an evening or two, without obligation.

NOT PREPARED FOR IMMIGRANTS

Theory of Government Found to be Faulty.

Lack of Safeguards Against Undesirables.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The sudden immigration tide found the government authorities in a fine state of unpreparedness. Their theory, was that when ocean travel was renewed after the war, most European countries would lock the doors and make it impossible for their citizens to seek other lands, needing all their man-power for the re-creation of their industries, so emigration would be slow. In consequence when the theory was blown into smithereens this spring by the tremendous jump in immigration all was confusion—nobody was ready. There was some passing the buck and so a reorganization took place in the immigration bureau against which a cry of "incompetence" was raised. It helped a bit, but to the observer, the outstanding feature at present is the lack of adequate safeguards against the dumping of undesirable aliens upon America.

Take the vise system. Theoretically, American consuls abroad flag undesirables. The migrating alien goes to a consul to have his passport vised—fees $10—and theoretically this gives the consul a chance to give the applicant's record the once-over, to discover whether he is subject to exclusion.

WORKED DURING WAR.

It worked well as a safeguard during the war, travel then being reduced to small numbers. Now, in the rush, it works only in spots. The State Department, which is in charge of this end of the process, says the system is operating well, and gives the impression that an undesirable has about the camel and needle's eye chance of ever slipping by the consul. In some countries like Italy, the consular offices work in conjunction with the local police and other authorities. The intelligence system has been well-developed as a result of the war and there is real method in checking up. But in many other countries, the consuls have no facilities. Their offices are swamped with applicants. They have no way of looking them up and the process develops into a matter of taking the word of some interpreter, who makes out the application papers and answers the consul's questions.

ANARCHISTS ADMITTED.

Take anarchists. They are not admitted. "Are you an anarchist?" asks the inspector. "No," says the alien. But the inspector has no way of ascertaining whether he is telling the truth. The theory is that every anarchist is so proud of the fact of his anarchy that he always shouts "yes" to the question. As a safeguard its about equal to asking a yegg whether he's a criminal and letting him go if he says no.

Trotsky or Lenine or any other Bolshevik or anarchist who disguised himself with a hair cut and a shave and took a false name would have little trouble in getting by, according to a prominent immigration official a few days ago at Ellis Island.

One proposal is to station immigration inspectors at every consular office abroad to do work which at present is largely perfunctory. Another is to put inspectors on the ships to conduct inspections on the way over, instead of waiting until the aliens reach New York. Other proposals deal with the registration of all aliens upon arriving at destination, and reports at stated intervals while one plan already prepared by a house committee calls for thorough reorganization of the entire machinery and its transfer to the State Department, the two big words concerning immigration, being selection and assimilation.

An Agreeable Surprise.

"About three years ago, when I was suffering from a severe cold on my lungs and coughed most of the time night and day, I tried a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was surprised at the promptness with which it gave me relief," writes Mrs. James Brown, Clark Mills, N. Y. Many another has been surprised and pleased with the prompt relief afforded by this remedy.—[Advertisement.

PLEBISCITE IS PROPOSED.

Gen. Zeligouski Believes Poland Will Sustain Him; Wrangel Setback.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

WARSAW, Oct. 13.—Proposals that the frontier between Northern and Central Lithuania be defined by a plebiscite have been sent to the Lithuanian government at Kovno by Gen. Zeligouski, commander of the Polish-Lithuanian troops which late last week occupied Vilna.

Gen. Zeligouski's demand upon Poland for assistance and the recognition of the new state ended with an expression of confidence that Poland would sustain him. The message said:

"Although Poland is bound to foreign principles and cannot realize the political plans framed by Gen. Pilsudski, we cannot remain in a country under the illegal sovereignty of the Kovno government, co-operating with the Russian soviets. Therefore, our soldiers have taken possession of the country. We are sure Poland sustains our action."

The new national flag, of blue and white, has been hoisted on the Vilna guild hall, where Gen. Zeligouski and the governmental commission are making their headquarters.

REDS MAKE CAPTURES.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 12.—The reoccupation by the Bolsheviki of Mariupol and Berdiansk, on the Sea of Azov, is announced. (This represents a setback for the forces of Gen. Wrangel, the anti-Bolshevik commander, in South Russia, who recently was reported in possession of Mariupol and in virtual control of the entire Sea of Azov."

Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch, brother of the late Emperor Nicholas of Russia, was seen in Constantinople October 6, and two days later advices from Sebastopol reported his arrival in that city. In Russian circles here, however, it is denied that Grand Duke Michael is in the Crimea.

PARTICULARS WANTED.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, Oct. 13.—The League of Nations has sent a telegram to Col. Chardiguy at Kovno, who is in charge of the League of Nations commission there, asking him to report fully on the Vilna situation, and as to what treatment the members of the commission have been given, and assuring him of the support of the League.

The Poles unofficially have been informed that the League considered the Vilna situation extremely grave and a violation of former Premier Paderewski's statement at the Paris meeting of the League Council that the integrity of Lithuanian would be respected.

The case will be considered at the Brussels meeting of the Council October 20.

REDS CLAIM SUCCESS.

Successes for the Russian soviet forces all along the line from south of Minsk to the Crimea are reported in the Russian soviet official statement of Tuesday, received here today by wireless.

The annihilation of two companies of a Polish division in the Alexandrovsk district of the Crimean front is claimed in the statement.

REPORTED WELLS TALK.

H. G. Wells, the British novelist, who is visiting Russia, is reported in a Moscow dispatch to the Daily Herald, organ of labor, as saying in a speech before the Petrograd soviet October 7, that he, with others sharing his opinions, was working for the same ideal as the Communists. This ideal, he is declared to have asserted, was the creation of a universal realm of social equity, serving every citizen, according to his needs.

"My government," he is reported to have said, "has caused, and is still causing, destruction and misery in our country, but the welcome you have given me shows that, notwithstanding your immense hardships, you can understand our difficulties. Russia and Great Britain, despite mistakes on both sides, can still love and understand each other and will work together for the benefit of humanity and for the new world which is being born amidst darkness and calamities. The British people desire peace with Russia and will not cease agitating until that peace comes."

REPARATIONS MEETING.

A proposed conference on reparations at Geneva will not be held, according to statements in well-informed quarters here. This decision is attributed to the success which attended negotiations conducted by Premier De la Croix of Belgium while in this city, it being reported that he arranged with Premier Lloyd George and French diplomats for a meeting at Brussels of reparation commissioners soon.

Instead of acting as a formal reparation commission, the body will examine questions as experts and report the results of their deliberations to their respective governments, which then can make their own arrangements as to future action. The commissioners will hear explanations of German proposals from representatives of Berlin government who will be invited to attend.

JAPANESE AFTER REDS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

TOKIO, Oct. 13.—Japan will propose to the powers joint action to check the rise of Bolshevism on the Asiatic continent, especially in Northern China, the Kokumin Shimbun, mouthpiece of the Japanese military groups, declares in an article today.

It asserts Japan will increase to a division, or at least part of a divi-

BURGLAR ROUTED BY BOY SCOUT.

Lad Attacks Thief and Wins, Although Cut in Twelve Places.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

OMAHA, Oct. 13.—Lawrence Westover, 16 years old, Boy Scout, has paid part of his debt of gratitude to C. R. Jewell, whose family gave him a home with them last year after he had been found trudging along a country road leading to Omaha.

Returning from school yesterday the boy found a burglar sacking the family silverware. After arming himself with a knife he fought and finally put the intruder to rout, but not unutil he had been cut twelve times. None of his wounds, however, is serious.

MINIMUM WAGE LAW IS UPHELD IN TEXAS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

AUSTIN (Tex.) Oct. 13.—The Texas minimum wage law providing for an Industrial Welfare Commission to fix the minimum compensation to be paid women and minors in various industries of Texas, was upheld by the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals today.

Inspects Wrangel's Army.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 11. — Rear-Admiral Newton A. McCully, commander of the American naval forces in Russian waters, and Col. W. A. Castle, United States military attache here, returned to Constantinople from the Crimea today. Col. Castle inspected the entire front of Gen. Wrangel's army.

JUDGE LANDIS BACK FROM HIS VACATION.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Judge Landis came back from his vacation today and things began to hum at the Federal Building. Right off the bat he found that a number of business men charged with profiteering had not appeared in court. When attorneys hastened to explain their various absences the judge said:

"Well, if it is necessary we will employ a special stenographic force to send out notices to these men to tell them when they are to appear and what crimes they are accused of. I find that a whole lot of work has been neglected while I was away, but now everybody is going to get busy."

The head of one of the city's largest hotels, charged with failure to pay enough income tax, was the first called. His attorneys got a week to file additional documents. Officials of an alleged coal profiteering firm and another sugar firm also received a week's grace.

Then he tore into the liquor cases, heard a dozen pleas of guilty and not guilty, set trial dates for the not guilty and withheld sentence on those who admitted their guilt.

A jury will be impaneled Monday morning and the merry grind will begin.

ROBBERS ISOLATE MANITOBA TOWN.

LIGHT AND TELEGRAPH WIRES CUT; BANK SAFE ROBBED OF $19,000.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WINNIPEG (Man.) Oct. 13.—Five men blew open the safe in the Union Bank at Winkler, Man., early today, and escaped with $19,000 after shooting and wounding J. Graefer, who attempted to rouse the town by ringing the town fire bell.

Claude Williams, a teller, who slept in the bank, was forced to open the vault. The bandits then tied him to his bed and carried him, bed and all, out of the building, where they left him while they blew open the cash safe in the vault. The $19,000 taken was all in cash.

The telephone, telegraph and electric light cables in Winkler had all been cut before the robbery, and it was several hours before the information of the robbery could be given to surrounding towns.

NOVELTIES, IDEAS AND PRACTICAL SUGGESTIONS.

By Olive Gray.

Up-to-Datest:

The overornateness of many of the Parisian-made garments is repudiated by Americans, so writes Aleen from the French capital. She further declares that our people are gaining a reputation for nice discrimination in dress, excelling all who visit Paris conturiers.

Wool or chenille embroidery for the facing and the brim-trim of autumn hats is gaining rather than losing in favor. This is a popular way of introducing one's favorite and most becoming color into the costume.

Real lace and hand stitchery is to a great extent replacing fussy trimming on lingerie of the better class. There is an extensive use of lines of finest quality and of white batiste, with drawnwork and fine hand tucking.

Now is the time to buy:

Household articles, during that sale wherein are savings appreciable. The long-deferred purchase of this or that wished-for utensil, kitchen convenience, or table piece is to be compassed for less in that sale.

The gift plate for Christmas. Hand-painted plates of excellent quality and beautiful designs are to be had at one of the fractions of a dollar.

A New Line Line.

A new line in the line or silhouette is that wherein the side drapery is brought out squarely from the upper hip and from thence falls straight to the hem of the skirt or tunic. This departure from the usual rounded hip-fullness is to be used with discrimination and avoided wholly by the woman endowed with over-plus of avordupois.

Christmas Stitchery.

Aunt Jane is making some very interesting gifts for little Betty. Aprons of plain-colored materials in blue, dark rose and brown—they are—play aprons. "Mother will not be saying 'don't' to the little girl while she plays in those," said Aunt Jane. "They will keep her dresses clean and are easy to launder." The cunning little processions of geese, rabbits and chicks, marching along the borders or placed on the pockets, are done in simple outline stitch, in contrasting color.

Have You Looked in Vain?

If you have looked in vain for vases which are suitable for use in the mausoleum, you will be interested in knowing that there are now sets of these of the proper width for placing on the shelf within this sacred edifice. The material is tasteful and the shapes graceful. The cost is moderate, also—a matter which all are sometimes bound to consider.

Book Ends Quite Novel.

It is coming book-end time. I mean that book-ends are almost as much a part of the Christmas list as are handkerchiefs, the, like handkerchiefs, the selection of the individual article is of prime importance in rendering the gift of value. New book-ends are of that dark, brown pottery, richly glazed and having as decorative motif blurry flowers of artistic merit. These vases are square and fit well at either end of the row of books. When filled with flowers, the effect is charming and far removed from commonplace.

A Bright Clear Ware.

Newly arrived sets for the guest-room are of glazed china in bright, clear single colors—blue, yellow and a wonderful pink. A tiny tea—or coffee—pot has as second story a sugar bowl and as attic a cream pitcher with cover. This edifice forms the essentials of the tea or coffee service for the guest-room or porch. Carried out with a few small dishes in the matching tint, these would create an appetite merely from their appearance upon the tray.

Long strands of beads used as drapery for an evening bodice. This is a recent conception by a leading couturier. That there is little else than the beads to be seen goes almost without saying, in this "backless" evening gown era.

Which is the Attraction?

Honestly, now, do you go to hear or to see grand opera? Is it the music? Or is it the clothes of those in attendance which absorbs your attention? I'm sure you'll never tell!

Veil Wear.

How do you wear your veil? There are many ways of donning this important adjunct. You may place it closely over the face like a mask; or you may wear it drawn tightly over the brim of the hat and close to the face; you may simply drop it over the entire hat; last, and I have sometimes thought best, you may bring it close around the neck, underneath the chin, allowing the loose ends to fall at the back in scarflike floating folds. The latter way, gives an effect of both veil and scarf and at the same time obviates any suggestion of carelessness.

Beige and Brown.

Beige and brown, either combined or separate, are the most recent favorites in blousedom. Worn with suits of brown or tan, or with contrasting colors, these blouses look well.

"Swat the Rat."

This is the latest slogan, now that we have swatted the fly. The destruction and waste spread abroad by this "varmint" is first cause for his extermination; second and nearly equal, is the fact that he is a carrier of disease and filth. Here is a battle which may commence in the home. Swat the rat!

Campaigning with Fashion.

Belts of narrow black moire ribbon have large jeweled and composition buckles.

Evening gowns show one-sided effects with ribbon or rhinestone shoulder straps.

Not only in tailored dresses, but in sheer frocks, has the long sleeve been reinstated.

A long streamer of black tulle falls from the right shoulder of a cerise velvet gown.

Suit coats have narrow shoulders, tight sleeves and an uneven edge at the bottom.

Stiff qualities of satin will be worn for evening, especially in three colors—flame, copper and coral pink.

Evening gowns have strings of pearls hanging from the shoulder and looped under at the waistline or knee.

The sleeves of some dark cloth dresses have deep, full cuffs of brilliant chiffon gathered into tight wristbands.

The very shallow decolletage at the front, and a low, veiled decolletage at the back, mark the new evening gowns.

Contrast of color is shown in all costumes—evening gowns sometimes are encrusted with spangles in various contrasting colors.

Many costumes have no waistline at all; others show narrow girdles of colored beads or of the material of the costume.

RICHES FOR CHARITY.

Bulk of John F. Humphreys's Estate Willed to Mercy Workers.

By the terms of the will of John F Humphreys, who died here on the 8th inst., the bulk of his estate, valued at $300,000, is left to the Associated Charities of Bloomington, Ill. The will was filed for probate yesterday. Bequests of from $1000 to $5000 each are made to several nieces and nephews.

HOMEOPATHS CHOOSE OFFICIALS FOR YEAR.

THIRTIETH ANNUAL MEETING OF SOCIETY CONTINUES HERE ALL DAY.

The thirtieth annual meeting of the Southern California Homeopathic Medical Society was opened yesterday morning in the assembly-rooms of the Alexandria. The first session of the meeting was devoted to the hearing of reports, and in the afternoon several papers on subjects of interest to the doctors were read.

Dr. A. P. Williamson of Santa Monica, the retiring president, read a report of the activities of the society since the last meeting, and told of the progress that has been made in homeopathy. Following this paper, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year.

President, Dr. Alice G. H. Anderson of Los Angeles; first vice-president, Dr. Bradford Fox of Pasadena; second vice-president, B. E. Fullmer of Los Angeles. Dr. Charles Salisbury, the secretary-treasurer, was unanimously chosen to succeed himself.

Members of the board of censors were continued in office for another year. They are Dr. F. B. Kellogg, Dr. W. J. Hawkes, Dr. S. S. Salisbury, Dr. H. L. Shepherd and Dr. T. C. Low, all of Los Angeles.

The board of directors chosen for the ensuing year is made up of the last five presidents of the association. They are; Dr. H. A. Atwood of Pasadena, Dr. C. B. Dickson of Los Angeles, Dr. A. P. Williamson of Santa Monica, Dr. Robert Campbell of Los Angeles and Dr. John A. Riley, superintendent of Patton asylum.

Following the business meeting the Meissen Society, a woman's auxiliary, composed of the wives and daughters of the members of the Homeopathic Society, gave an entertainment. This was featured by vocal and instrumental music and dramatic readings, and punch was served.

There will be more papers read at the meetings today. The first of these will be at 10 o'clock this morning and another will be held this afternoon. Tonight the members of the association and their families will attend the Majestic Theater in a body.

HALTED BY SHOOTING.

Man Accused of Attempted Burglary On Broadway Is Fired at.

Chased by a policeman and two citizens early yesterday morning, Charley La Baden was arrested after several shots had been fired into the air.

According to the police, La Baden attempted to force entry to a candy store on Broadway with a pass key, when he was surprised by Ralph Roberts of 1046 South Grand avenue and Lewis Frahm of North Olive street. They gave chase and a policeman followed. La Baden was stopped a short distance away and was taken to the police station.

Honest Advertising.

THIS is a topic we all hear now-a-days because so many people are inclined to exaggerate. Yet has any physician told you that we claimed unreasonable remedial properties for Fletcher's Castoria? Just ask them. We won't answer it ourselves, we know what the answer will be.

That it has all the virtues to-day that was claimed for it in its early days is to be found in its increased use, the recommendation by prominent physicians, and our assurance that its standard will be maintained.

Imitations are to be found in some stores and only because of the Castoria that Mr. Fletcher created. But it is not the genuine Castoria that Mr. Fletcher Honestly advertised, Honestly placed before the public and from which he Honestly expects to receive his reward.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Special Care of Baby.

That Baby should have a bed of its own all are agreed. Yet it is more reasonable for an infant to sleep with grown-ups than to use a man's medicine in an attempt to regulate the delicate organism of that same infant. Either practice is to be shunned. Neither would be tolerated by specialists in children's diseases.

Your Physician will tell you that Baby's medicine must be prepared with even greater care than Baby's food.

A Baby's stomach when in good health is too often disarranged by improper food. Could you for a moment, then, think of giving to your ailing child anything but a medicine especially prepared for Infants and Children? Don't be deceived.

Make a mental note of this:—It is important, Mothers, that you should remember that to function well, the digestive organs of your Baby must receive special care. No Baby is so abnormal that the desired results may be had from the use of medicines primarily prepared for grown-ups.

CHINA'S REVOLTS ARE BLOODLESS.

Not to be Gauged by Those in Europe, Says Speaker.

High Hopes of Republic Not Being Fulfilled.

Bankers See Consortium as Tie Binding Allies.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—China's revolutions are bloodless and must not be gauged by internal disorders in Europe, according to Sir Charles Addis, head of the group of British bankers, who are conferring here with representatives of the United States, France and Japan, on an international consortium for the economic advancement of China.

Sir Charles spoke at a luncheon at a time when dispatches from Shanghai brought rumors of overthrow of the Peking government and proclamation of a monarchy.

He asserted, however, that the high hopes entertained when China became a republic, are not being fulfilled, explaining that the three parties which have been in power have failed to provide a working constitution.

BANKERS CAN ONLY AID.

"China, politically, can only be safe by her own exertions," he declared. "The utmost this consortium can do is to assist her efforts and initiative. By the contemplated action of the consortium, however, China can reduce her excessive military forces which absorb one-fourth of the country's revenue."

The consortium has gone on record officially as welcoming the cooperation of local Chinese capital, said a statement issued by the conferees tonight.

This co-operation would be in the work of the consortium in "development of China's public enterprises, building of railways, etc."

Speakers at the luncheon explained that no specific loan to China had yet been considered but that an extensive program for getting the republic on its financial feet was being outlined.

CONSORTIUM AS BOND.

Absence of the United States from the councils of the League of Nations, was frequently mentioned and references to the consortium as a means of continuing the bond between the late Allies were cheered.

Thomas W. Lamont, chairman of the consortium, referred to it as a force to weld together in a warm friendship the five nations participating in efforts to aid China.

Mr. Lamont stressed a statement that the bankers did not start out to form the consortium with an idea that there was "lots of money to be made in China." On the contrary, the governments went to the bankers and asked them to help stabilize China by banking groups formed with a patriotic end, he said, adding that "our ability to lend aid depends on the investing communities in the various countries."

SHORTRIDGE RAPS AT JUSTICE DEPARTMENT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

FRESNO, Oct. 13.—Criticising the administration for the Department of Justice suits against the California Associated Raisin Company under the Sherman Anti-Trust Law, Samuel M. Shortridge, Republican nominee for United States Senator, in an address here tonight branded the litigation as a "travesty on justice." Shortridge declared that it is the duty of the government to foster and not to hamper co-operative farming. He said, in part:

"It is a source of wonder to all of us, that, with billion-dollar trusts operating all over the country, with great private corporations shamelessly wringing unprecedented profits from the pockets of the people, with opportunity for the government to do real service in the enforcement of the Sherman law, it should have sought this little garden spot in the heart of California and turned its mightiest guns upon a farmers' organization.

"And wondering at this, we marvel, too, at the audacity with which the department of alleged justice, under the pretext of protecting the rights of the people, boldly and openly played into the hands of the private packing interests. There was a real travesty on justice."

UNIVERSITY WILL BAN SHIMMY AND TODDLE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

URBANA (Ill.) Oct. 13.—The "shimmy" the "toddle" and other forms of dancing to which objections have been made on the ground of impropriety are to be barred at Student Union and Woman's League dances at the University of Illinois. A vigorous campaign was started today to stamp out these dances.

FREIGHT-HOUSE FIRE CAUSES MILLION LOSS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Fire, which destroyed the freight house of the Chicago Junction Railroad this morning, did damage estimated at $1,000,000, officials of the railroad announced.

Quantities of merchandise in transit were burned and 260 freight cars, most of them loaded, were destroyed by the fire.

HARDING CHALLENGED TO DEBATE ON LEAGUE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—On behalf of Gov. Cox, Senator Pat Harrison of Mississippi today issued a formal challenge to Senator Harding to meet the Democratic Presidential candidate in joint debate on the subject of the League of Nations.

MOVIE ACTRESSES AND THEIR HAIR

Did it ever occur to you that every movie actress you have seen has lovely hair, while the most popular count their curls as their chief beauty? In fact, many are leading ladies just because of their attractive looks. Inquiry among them discloses the fact that they bring out all the natural beauty of their hair by careful shampooing, not with any soap or makeshift, but with a simple mixture by putting a teaspoonful of canthrox (which they get from the druggist) in a cup of hot water and applying this instead of soap. This full cup of shampoo liquid is enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head. After its use, the hair dries rapidly with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. The hair is so fluffy that it looks much heavier than it is, its luster and softness are delightful. —[Advertisement.

A MAGNIFICENT HOME IN WILSHIRE.

AS MUCH as we detest to use the adjective Bargain there is no other way we can convey to you what an opportunity this is if you are looking for a home of this character. Here is a house right in the heart of Wilshire on a beautiful street conveniently located and quoted at a price that defies comparison.

FIRST FLOOR: six rooms finished in ivory on white enamel. Matched hardwood floors, frenzied ceilings, elegant electric fixtures. Living and dining-rooms, library or den, breakfast-room, kitchen with tiled sink. Maid's room with large tiled bath and toilet and on the rear a cement and latticed portico with fountain.

SECOND FLOOR: Three large bedrooms, two with connecting large tiled bath with built-in shower, one with large tiled bath with three way mirrored door. Enclosed sleeping porch can be used either as bedroom, sewing room or rest room. Open sleeping porch which can be furnished.

THE INTERIOR finish bespeaks taste and refinement. The built-in features, closets, etc., of which there are a number, are of the best material and workmanship, particularly so of the mirrored closet doors and dressing tables in bedrooms.

GARAGE for two cars with maid's quarters with toilet and shower. Beautiful garden and lawn with complete underground sprinkler system.

THIS HOME complete in every detail should be seen at once. See MR. BUDEN, sr., who is handling this for the owner.

FOR AGED OIL MAN.

War Veteran and Pennsylvania Pioneer Had Lived Here Years.

Funeral services for William H. Randall, who died at his home, 1140½ Le Moyne avenue, Tuesday, will be conducted at Breese Bros. undertaking establishment at 3 p.m. Saturday. Burial will be in Rosedale Cemetery.

Mr. Randall, who was 85 years old, came to Los Angeles ten years ago, after retiring from the oil business in Pennsylvania. He served in a Massachusetts regiment during the Civil War and saw four years of active service in southern campaigns. After being mustered out in Boston he went to Bradford, Pa., where he was numbered among the pioneers in the development of the oil industry in the Keystone State. He leaves a daughter, Miss Gertrude E. Randall, with whom he made his home in Los Angeles, and two sons, Jacob B. of Bradford, Pa., and William S. of San Francisco.

Mr. Randall was a member of Stanton Post, G.A.R., which will have charge of the funeral Saturday. Rev. D. D. Cheney, chaplain of the post, will officiate at the services. A fellow-member of the post will sound "Taps" at the grave.

TWO SAILOR-ROBBERS GIVEN PRISON TERMS.

Harry A. Holt and Clarence R. Hasson, sailors of the Navy, were sentenced to San Quentin yesterday by Judge Willis for from one year to life, for robbery. The two, accompanied by a woman and another man in naval uniform, committed numerous robberies in this city, holding up taxicab drivers and restaurant owners.

Getting On

A PRIMER OF PERSONAL PROGRESS

Charlie's Goat

What is that an-i-mal do-ing on Char-lie's desk? That is Char-lie's goat. The mail has got-ten it. Why does not Char-lie dic-tate some let-ters in-stead of let-ting the work pile up? Be-cause the steno-graph-er is bus-y. What a fine thing it would be if Char-lie had an Edi-phone! Oh yes, then he would not have to wait in the morn-ings and she would make the same train Every Night. And they would both be a-ble to pro-duce more and Get On.

THE Ediphone

Seriously

There is an Opportunity for you to better yourself with The Ediphone.

It literally banishes the bugaboo of the mail.

Dictate anything to it anytime, anywhere.

Correspondence becomes a pleasure.

Saves time, temper, energy, money, notebooks, pencils, repetitions, etc.

As easy as speaking on the telephone.

Steadily makes for Better Letters.

The head of a concern who gives all his executives an Ediphone apiece is doing the finest thing possible for their personal advancement.

The same thing applies to stenographers. Their work becomes organized in a convenient, non-rush way.

The United States Government rates transcribers higher than it does stenographers.

Your copy of our new booklet, "Getting On," is waiting for you.

Consider

the new spirit of service to which the world has awakened. Banks, for example, no longer limit their activities to money changing. Ever increasing are the new forms of service rendered the public by banks; service which only banks can render; service that means dollars and cents, and sometimes life, to the individual who now expects his bank to be more than just the guardian of his savings. Isn't that true?

ARRAIGNED AS HE LIES ILL IN BED.

Broker Arrested Charged With Stock Sale in Fake Montebello Oil Well.

Arraigned as he lay ill in bed in his residence yesterday, B. D. Whiteside, a stock broker, was placed under technical arrest on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses from John R. Crowley on an asserted fake stock deal. He was arraigned by Justice Palmer, who held court at the man's residence, 553 South Hobart Boulevard, in order that he might furnish bail of $5000, as fixed by the court.

According to information given to Investigators Wilcox and Cohn of the District Attorney's office and Constables Stensland and Weir, the defendant sold Crowley stock in what was called the Whiteside Well, near Montebello. This, it is charged, was a fake well, which poured oil only when prospective buyers were there. He is said to have received $2000 from Crowley.

INDICTMENT IS THOUGHT SURE.

One or More to Face Trial in the Denton Case.

Mrs. Annie Stimson, "Mystery Witness," Tells of Earth.

New Facts Learned About Mrs. Peete's First Marriage.

Indications that one or more indictments will be returned by the county grand jury following its investigation into the Denton murder mystery loomed yesterday when the trend of closely guarded developments of the last forty-eight hours became known in spite of the efforts of the District Attorney's office to withhold them for the present.

Coincidentally with this, it was learned by The Times last night that the third statement made by Mrs. R. C. Peete to Dep. Dist.-Atty. Doran and Turney shortly before midnight Tuesday varied from her previous two statements in matters considered of importance. Adhering to their policy of refusing to discuss for publication statements of Mrs. Peete, the most important witness to be heard by the grand jury, the officials would not comment on this, although it was admitted that no further questioning of Mrs. Peete is planned, until she appears in the grand jury room, about next Tuesday.

The final preparations for the start of the grand jury hearing this afternoon were in no way affected by what transpired in the past two days. The list of witnesses contains more than twenty-five names, and the plans of Mr. Doran and Mr. Turney call for a rapid unraveling of the known facts before the inquisitorial body. The investigation will start at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

MYSTERY WITNESS.

Yesterday's developments included, among other things, the fact that the "mystery witness" mentioned in the last few days is Mrs. Anne W. Stimson, divorced wife of Ezra B. Stimson, millionaire lumberman, who figured sensationally in the local courts in divorce proceedings and in a legal battle for the recovery of securities valued at nearly $1,000,000.

According to the authorities, Mrs. Stimson, who lives at the Ansonia Apartments, made a statement to them that she was in the Denton house in the early part of June, when she inspected the basement where Denton was buried and was told by Mrs. Peete that the pile of dirt was placed there at Mr. Denton's request. Mrs. Peete, according to Mrs. Stimson's story, said Mr. Denton wanted the earth for raising bulbs and plants the bare to unent and later transferring them to the yard. Mrs. Stimson went to the Denton house in answer to an advertisement offering it for sale, the officers say, and was shown through the house by Mrs. Peete. In interview with newspaper men and in her talk with William F. Heitzman, Mrs. Peete was reported as giving different reasons for the earth's presence in the basement.

Mr. Doran's comment on this apparent discrepancy was that the facts involved are a part of the evidence in the case and cannot be revealed at this time.

SECOND MARRIAGE.

In Denver The Times also learned additional facts regarding the first marriage of Mrs. Peete, as revealed by records in Denver, where she wed Richard Cola Peete on Feb. 16, 1915. The application for the license contains the information that Lafe L. Fresalar," the name under which Mrs. Peete was given the license, divorced a former husband in Dallas, Tex., March 13, 1912, on grounds of cruelty.

At the time of the wedding in Denver, it was announced that Mrs. Peete was a former society girl of New Orleans, La., who was spending the winter in Denver. Close friends in that city assert that Mrs. Peete formerly lived in Lake Charles and Shreveport, La., and that both her parents are dead. Her mother died when Mrs. Peete was 16 years old, they say. The Denver wedding took place at the Hotel Ayres, where the Peetes lived for some time.

TO COURT ANYWAY.

The Denton murder mystery will be taken to court, it was indicated yesterday, even should no criminal proceedings result from the grand jury investigation which starts today.

This will be brought about by action instituted on behalf of the estate. Former Judge Thomas Avery, special administrator, and Rush M. Blodget, attorney for Frances Denton, declared yesterday they will make formal demand to recover a diamond ring which is asserted to have belonged to Denton and which was pawned by Mrs. M. Tilton, who states that Mrs. R. C. Peete asked her to pawn it and that the money was given to Mrs. Peete.

The demand for recovery will be made on the ground that the ring was Denton's property and was pawned without his consent or knowledge. This will be the second formal step taken for the estate, the first having been a repudiation of two checks drawn from Denton's account to the order of Mrs. Peete. This move directly attacked the statements of Mrs. Peete, who had declared she aided Denton in signing the checks and that the money was turned over to him.

RENTS DUE?

Other action has been contemplated to recover rents which are said to be due the estate during the period that Mrs. Peete assumed charge of the Denton residence. Records in the hands of the administrator fail to disclose that any money from that source has been credited to Denton's account or to the estate. Personal belongings of Mr. Denton, such as clothing, also are missing, it is said, and former Judge Avery has declared that every step will be taken to insure that the estate recovers all that should be included in it.

Throughout the investigation into the circumstances of the murder, representatives of the estate have indicated that they will proceed slowly in any civil actions so as not to

JOB HARRIMAN IN NEW UTOPIA.

Founds Co-operative Cotton Colony Near Elsinore.

Socialist Who Lost at Llano del Rio Will Try Again.

Wants Only Those With Full Belief in the Ideal.

Job Harriman, Socialist politician and promoter of communistic ideals, author of the Llano Del Rio colonization projects at Palmdale, Cal., and Stables, La., both of which failed, has returned to this city with another Utopian project—a co-operative communistic cotton colony in Elsinore Valley.

Associated with Mr. Harriman in this new undertaking is J. C. Rhodes, from the Llano colony at Stables. Mr. Harriman left last night for Elsinore to further develop the colonization plan, while Mr. Rhodes remains here to handle office details. Mr. Rhodes says 1000 acres have already been secured to the east of Lake Elsinore, about 130 miles from this city. The project is already being advertised in the Vernon Parish Democrat at Leesville, La., as the California Co-Operative Colony.

When the Llano Del Rio colony abandoned its holdings in the Antelope Valley about three years ago, after admitting failure of its attempt to work out Mr. Harriman's idealistic theories, G. P. McCorkle, secretary and manager of the company, laid the blame partly on the colonists. He said also the climate was too hot, that a mistake was made in trying to grow pears—a rich man's game—and that there was insufficient water for irrigation.

GO TO LOUISIANA.

All of the colonists who desired it were transferred to a new colony established on a tract of cut-over timber land near Stables, La. Although Mr. Harriman was credited with having had as many as 1400 colonists under his banner at one time, it was reported that not more than 300 or 400 fell in with the Stables scheme, and these, according to members who afterward returned to this city, dwindled to forty or fifty colonists within a short time.

Mr. Harriman's literature regarding the Elsinore Valley plan reads as follows:

"Do you want to be a member of the California Co-Operative Colony? Now is the time to begin making preparations. An extension of co-operative colony work is under way. The opportunity is offered you to become a first in the new colony. The question has many times been asked why a colony could not be established in California. Now, the answer is being given.

"No stock is offered for sale in the California colony. Each member is put on one year's probation, his investment being secured by land. Each installment member is sold land loan notes of $100 each, which notes will be accepted at $125 each when used in the purchase of land or membership.

CO-OPERATIVE IDEAL.

"For those wishing to farm individually there will be good agricultural land offered for sale. If you have money or securities to invest, and wish to live in California, write us at once. We want members for the new colony.

"Only those having a complete belief in the co-operative ideal will be accepted as members, insuring a community of congenial persons."

Shortly before the Llano Del Rio colony in Antelope Valley was removed to Stables, La., an expert from the office of the State Corporation Commissioner visited the Antelope Valley Utopia and upon returning submitted the following official report:

"The books of the company were in such wretched shape that I have not attempted to prepare a statement of assets and liabilities which I could be sure was correct."

A little more than two years ago several people in this city reported to the authorities that they had dropped their last dollar in the scheme. A pathetic instance was a report to the District Attorney by a woman who said that after putting a $1500 home into colony stock with the understanding that she would be employed there at $4 a day, she was denied the privilege of reoccupying her home, after the colony broke up, and was informed that it was going to Stables, La., bag and baggage. When she asked what was to become of her she was told, she said, that if she desired to go along she would have to get enough money to pay her transportation and carry her through the first few months while the colony was getting on a profit-sharing basis. Before the colony was moved its offices in this city were invaded by representatives of the District Attorney's office, the books were seized, and officials of the Llano colony were called before the grand jury. Information secured at that time was later furnished to investigators for the Post-office Department.

TO SELL STATE BONDS.

County Will Receive Bids for Large Highway Issue on Wednesday.

The Supervisors arranged yesterday to sell the $500,000 block of State Highway bonds recently purchased by the county. Bids will be receivable next Wednesday. The bonds pay 4½ per cent. They were bought by the county in order to help the State complete certain important highway work which could not be financed in any other way.

BEVERIDGE URGES RULE OF REPUBLICAN SANITY.

Ex-Senator, in Speech to a Bumper Crowd Here, Throws Spotlight on Bourbon Mismanagement.

Declaring that "unless our entire American system of industry and trade is to collapse, the next administration must be a 'business administration'" former United States Senator Beveridge of Indiana in a speech to a large audience at Trinity Auditorium last night strongly arraigned Democratic autocracy, mismanagement and incompetence and urged the return of the Republican party to full power in the nation's affairs.

The speaker declared that "hordes of ignorant government spies have been set upon American business men" and paid his respects to onerous and stifling regulation and to the insufferable tax burden. He also spoke at length of our internal problems — education, housing, reclamation—and asserted that all our time, effort and money are needed to handle our affairs here at home, rather than to attend to the needs of others. Relief and aid for farmers he likewise characterized as a major need in America today.

Not a moment, declared Mr. Beveridge, can we delay the framing and execution of plans for fostering our foreign trade. Other nations, he asserted, have already forestalled us in South America and China and the Democratic administration has prepared no place in the world as an outlet for America's surplus goods. Our shipping laws must be repealed, he said, or else government aid must be given our merchant marine so that it can compete on equal terms with those of other nations; our banking laws must be extended to benefit American banks overseas, industrial and financial organization must be encouraged and American lives and property must be protected abroad.

BLACK MEXICO RECORD.

"The record of our government in its conduct toward Mexico, in the last eight years," declared the speaker, "is the blackest in American history."

A vital American task now, stated Mr. Beveridge is "the restoration of popular, representative government as provided by the Constitution of the United States." Citing the jamming through of the Adamson law, arrests and imprisonment without trial and the President's denunciation of the Senate because of its stand on the League of Nations, Mr. Beveridge declared: "Never in American history has such an assault been made on the spirit and letter of our fundamental law as during the last seven years."

The speaker also argued at length against "foreign political entanglements" and for "the practice of exclusive American nationalism," applying his arguments to the League of Nations controversy. Opposition to America entering the League, he based largely on the premise that the population of this country is heterogeneous and likely to be torn by conflicting sympathies if we participate in foreign politics.

FOR HOMOGENEITY.

In part former Senator Beveridge said:

"What is the highest of all American interests, the hardest of all American tasks, the most vital of all American duties? That interest, task and duty is to consolidate into a people the maddening jumble of different races of which our population is now composed.

"Any force that perpetuates racial divisions among us is destructive of American interests and hostile to American destiny. Any influence that tends to obliterate racial lines from American citizenship, promotes American well-being and advances the prosperity, prestige and power of the American nation.

"That is why we Americans, for our own good and that of the world, cannot take any political part in the affairs of other nations—cannot become a political factor in foreign ententes or alliances; cannot become politically involved in the plots or intrigues, the ambitions or animosities of distant peoples.

"This does not mean our isolation from the common affairs of mankind—it means only that we shall remain free from and unfettered by foreign political associations; it means only that we shall continue to keep ourselves unpolluted by the historic ambitions, hatreds, plots and intrigues of other nations.

"If war should come over equally irreconcilable views as to the meaning of this international constitution and amendments or reservations to it, that conflict would be among peoples of different races, speaking different languages, holding different ideals, practicing different religions, and without common interests.

"But regardless of the peril—the certain disaster—to America involved in any political foreign association, we are told that America must risk that peril and suffer that disaster because it was to establish just such an international relationship that we declared war on Germany. Is that true? If so, it was the most important fact in the whole history of the human race; and Congress was infinitely stupid and is eternally disgraced that, in its war resolution, it did not mention that supreme and unprecedented consideration. Congress alone has the power to declare war; Congress alone can state its reasons for exercising that august and terrible authority; and Congress avowed that we made war on Germany only because Germany was and had been making war on us.

"But we are informed that Mr. Wilson's speeches set out the true reason for our militant action. That is consistent with the whole theory pursued by the administration, of subordinating the legislative and exalting the executive branch of our national government—of spurning the Constitution and asserting prerogatives unknown to our fundamental law and destructive of the spirit of that charter of our national life.

TO RESTORE RIGHTS.

"This fact brings forward another vital American interest, task and duty to which American statesmen and the American people must give immediate and effective attention. That fundamental interest, task and representative government as provided in the Constitution of the United States. Not only during the duty is the restoration of popular, war, but before and since, both the theory of the Constitution and even its express language have been ignored and flouted. I shall mention only three examples:

"First—The President, yielding to, if not the accomplice of, those who threatened the nation with domestic ruin, forced Congress to enact instantaneously and under duress, a law demanded by the heads of particular organizations; if the method by which the Adamson law was jammed through the House and Senate is continued, regular government under general laws freely enacted by the duly-elected representatives of all the people, is overthrown, and on the ruins of the Constitution is erected the erratic despotism of organized groups.

"Second—The Executive Department has seized hundreds of people, citizens and aliens, searched them, taken their property, imprisoned and brutally used them, all without warrant or due process of law sacredly guaranteed to all by our national Constitution. Free speech, free press, liberty of assemblage and all the safeguards which the Constitution erected for the protection of human rights have been trampled upon and scorned. War laws and war practices have been continued for two years after the war was ended.

"Third—Both houses of Congress have been made mere registering machines of the executive will; and the Senate has been insulted and denounced because Senators insisted upon performing one of the vital duties specifically required of them by the express words of the Constitution.

DIFFERING IDEAS.

"Yet the Democratic idea, as practiced by Mr. Wilson, and proclaimed by Mr. Cox, is that the Senate must ratify any treaty which the President negotiates. The Republican idea as practiced by Republican and some brave Democratic Senators, and as proclaimed by the Republican candidate, is that the Senate shall freely and fearlessly perform the most important duty required of it by the Constitution.

"Never in American history has such an assault been made on the spirit and letter of our fundamental law, as during the last seven years; be never has the theory of popular, representative government been so outraged; never have the American people been subject to such autocratic ...

"It is the mission of the Republican party to end forever this regime of whim and caprice; and to restore the reign of law as prescribed by the Constitution of the United States. This is the patriotic and statesmanlike policy announced by our standard bearer, whose vision, judgment, firmness, moderation, kindliness and dignity have captivated the nation, Warren G. Harding. And it is the highest interest of the American people to give to the Republican party, led by such a man, the power to accomplish these essential and glorious purposes.

"It is to maladministration by expediency and caprice, to personal government with its ambition, its arrogance, its neglect, that we owe much of the mountainous debt and prodigious taxation that crushes us; most of the appalling extravagance and incredible waste; all the foreign political entanglements in which the republic is involved; and the whole of the utter lack of any preparation whatever to meet the grave economic situation just before us.

WORK AHEAD.

"Before another year has passed foreign markets for our surplus will be indispensable. The continued employment of hundreds of thousands of workingmen will depend upon our ability to sell abroad our excess products.

"At the outbreak of the war millions of laborers were without work; merely because unded a Democratic tariff, American industry was already beginning to be submerged by imports. Yet even then, one-sixth of all we produced was sold abroad; and more than 90 per cent of our exports were taken by the countries recently at war. That market is gone, because those countries are nearly bankrupt. They must now save and sell—they cannot spend and buy.

"Where, then, shall we turn for foreign markets? To South America? Yes—but Great Britain has forestalled us there, has already taken over most of the German trade and laid the foundations of the commercial monopoly of that continent. To China? Yes—but the door to the East which McKinley opened, Wilson has closed; almost the whole of Chinese markets are divided between England and Japan. Nowhere on earth has provision been made for the disposal of American products. Not a moment can we delay the framing and execution of plans for foreign trade.

"We must either repeal our shipping laws and enact legislation by which American vessels can compete with foreign ships on equal terms, or else we must leave those laws on our statute books and give government aid to our merchant marine.

"We must extend our banking laws so that American oversea banks can do business on the same basis as the overseas banks of rival nations.

"We must encourage financial and industrial combination so that American enterprise can meet the proditious commercial organizations of other countries already at work to capture world trade.

"Above all, we must clearly an-

Mrs. J. T. Anderson Hands in Resignation; Mayor Names Successor.

Mrs. J. T. Anderson yesterday afternoon handed her resignation to Mayor Snyder as a member of the Social Service Commission, has been elected chairman of the Council of Community Service. The Mayor at once appointed to the commission, subject to the confirmation of the City Council Miss Nellie White, treasurer of the Highland Park Ebell Club, and a prominent social service worker.

Miss White will fill the remainder of the term of Mrs. Anderson's appointment, which expires Jan. 1, 1922. Mrs. Anderson's resignation was made necessary as the result of an opinion rendered last July by City Attorney Burnell that members of the Social Service Commission could not also serve as officers of the Council of Community Service. Mrs. Anderson resigned as chairman of the council at that time, because of pressure of other duties, retaining her membership on the commission.

AS LIVERPOOL AGENT.

Thomas G. Cooper has been appointed general agent of the Southern Pacific in Liverpool, in charge of both freight and passenger traffic, it was announced yesterday at the local office.

TWO KILLED ON RAIL CROSSING.

Switching Crew Didn't Take Precautions, Say Police.

Seven Deaths in Four Days Railway Peril's Toll.

Struck by a string of freight cars, the rear end of which the police say was not properly protected, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Stout of 4012 Pasadena avenue were instantly killed at 6:45 p.m. yesterday, and Jack Atherton, aged 3 years, was perhaps fatally injured, in a grade-crossing accident at Workman street and Alhambra Road.

Homeward bound after his day's work, Mr. Stout, a driver for the Troy Laundry, had his wife and the Atherton child in a motor delivery car with him when the accident occurred. The machine was struck squarely and carried about 150 feet. Mr. Stout was thrown clear, but his wife was pinned beneath the machine with the child in her arms, and it was necessary to pull the train ahead to remove her body.

The injured child and the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Stout were taken to the County Hospital. The bodies were later removed to the Alvarez and Blue undertaking rooms.

County Hospital physicians found the child suffering from a fracture of the thigh, a compound fracture of the left leg and a scalp abrasion. The baby is the only child of Mrs. Loree Atherton, a Western Union employee residing at 1917 East Second street. Since the death of his father some time ago, the boy had been in the care of Mr. and Mrs. Stout.

According to officers of the Lincoln Heights Police Station, who investigated the accident, a Southern Pacific switching crew was backing up a string of cars and there was no switchman at the rear of the train when the laundry machine was struck. Engine Foreman W. C. Pritchett and Engineer Sam Howard were in charge of the crew. At the yard office last night it was said that there were two switchmen with the crew, but it was not known what position they occupied on the train when the crash occurred. The police also say that so far as they were able to learn, there were no warning lanterns on the rear car.

Last night's accident added two more grade-crossing fatalities to Sunday's five, making a total of seven deaths in four days from the same cause in Los Angeles county. The lives of five persons were instantly snuffed out by a fast Santa Fe overland train at Glendora Sunday afternoon.

TWO DESERT CHAIN GANG.

Scaling a fence at the County Hospital yesterday, A. Salazar and E. Martinez, who were working on the chain gang, escaped from Guards Spencer and Neindorf. They were serving sixty-day sentences for minor offenses.

DOROTHY DIX TALKS

THE FAMILY MARTYR.

BY DOROTHY DIX.

A young woman was engaged to be married to a splendid young fellow who went to the war and did a man's part in it. He is back now and is pressing her to marry him, which she wants to do because they love each other dearly and long to make real the home of their dreams. But the woman's sister has recently died, leaving four children, and the girl's family tell her that it is her duty to give up her own happiness and devote her life to rearing these motherless little ones.

A woman well in the thirties has toiled like a slave ever since she was 15 years old to support a mother and sisters and brothers, and to give the younger children the education and advantages she never had. Although she earns a fine salary, she has never been able to save a cent for her old age, or even to indulge herself in any luxuries as she went along, because it took all she could make to give the others the things they thought they were bound to have. The sisters and brothers are now all grown and at work, or married, but they refuse to aid in supporting their mother and still come home for the Cinderella sister to support them when they are out of a job or want to take a vacation without paying board.

A woman who is a heaven-born genius as a dressmaker, and who could make her thousands every year in any city, lives in a small village where she works for a pittance, because her mother, whom she has to support, will not leave her old home and her old friends and go to a strange place where she will have nobody with whom to gossip over the back fence.

The three women, who are the heroines of these domestic tragedies, ask me what they shall do, and whether they shall sacrifice themselves for their families or not.

I say no. I believe that nine times out of ten a sacrifice is not only made in vain, but that it harms instead of helps those whom it was destined to aid.

Especially does the domestic sacrifice breed selfishness and parasitism, and turn its recipients into human ghouls who have neither compassion nor mercy upon the poor martyr, upon whose very life blood they live.

Think of the families you know in which there is some one poor creature, who has sacrificed herself for the balance, and who is unthanked and unregarded, even despised, because she has not spirit enough to demand her rights!

Think of the poor shabby older sisters, that you know, who wear patched shoes and year-before-last's hats, so that their pretty young sisters may have silver slippers to dance in and the latest thing in millinery! Think of the worn old women boarding-house keepers you know who work their fingers to the bones to keep husky lads playing on football teams in colleges!

Think of the old maid aunts, who have given their youth to rearing other people's children, and who in their old age are regarded as burdens by the very nephews and nieces for whom they have sacrificed their lives! Think of the old maid daughters who have been slaves to tyrannical mothers, who have foregone matrimony or the careers they might have had to stay at home and coddle a cranky old woman's whims, and whom mother always speaks of as "poor Mary or poor Jane," and says that she never was brilliant like her other children!

The truth is that we wrap so much of the pink chiffon of sentimentality around sacrifice, that we have lost sight of justice and common sense in the matter. Yet when all is said, why should one person be sacrificed to another? Why isn't one individual as entitled to happiness as another? Why isn't one life worth as much as another?

In the main, sacrifices are not only useless, but wrong. Struggle and hardship develop character and sharpen wits, just as exercise strengthens the body and develops suppleness. Therefore, when we stand between an individual and what we call the hardships of life, we are doing him or her an injury, instead of a kindness. And we commit a crime against another when we foster greed, and egotism and self-will in him or her.

So the mother who works herself to death that her children may be idle, instead of making them bear their just share of earning their daily bread, does them a wrong. The men who achieve things in the world, have not been the ones who had mothers who kept them in cotton wool.

Nobody can accept a sacrifice without being brutalized by it. You will never find a man whose wife supports him who does not abuse her. Nor a son who permits his mother to make a door mat of herself for him who does not trample all over her heart. Nor will you ever behold a family grateful to the woman who is the sacrificial goat.

Also a sacrifice is generally a boomerang that annihilates the source from which it sprang. A family will tie a brilliant and talented girl to the cook stove, and make her sacrifice her career because they think she should help mother, when, if they would let her go, she could make enough money to hire a regiment of cooks. Or they will persuade a soft-headed girl, with an in-growing conscience, to give up her happiness in order to play nurse maid to children, or cater to a selfish and self-centered old mother or father, and then bemoan the fact that they have to have her tag on to their families, because she has never married and had a home of her own.

So I say to women that sacrifice is folly. Don't let anybody make a goat of you.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Question: What papers do the Presidential candidates own?

N. V. R.

Answer: Senator Harding is the owner of the Marion (Ohio) Star, and Gov. Cox is owner of the Dayton News and Springfield News.

Q.: What was done with all the money obtained by sale of alien property during the war? T. W.

A.: Such moneys were deposited in the United States treasury and will be held there until Congress decides what disposal shall be made of them.

Q.: Why is Cuba called "the world's sugar bowl?" H. S. C.

A.: The Island of Cuba produces one-third of the cane sugar of the world. Adding the beet sugar production to this total, Cuba still furnishes one-fourth of all the sugar used.

Q.: What pays better dividends, preferred or common stock?

L. O.

A.: Preferred stock pays a certain specified dividend which is assessed before common stock receives any dividend. For this reason it is a safer investment than common stock, but common stock often pays much higher dividends, since its value fluctuates with the earnings of the concern.

Q.: Has the bill to increase the general scale of salaries paid government employees passed Congress?

S. S. B.

A.: Such a bill was considered by the last session of Congress, but failed to pass. It will probably be taken up next winter.

Q.: Why is Venus always pictured without arms F. K. N.

A.: Venus de Milo is usually pictured without arms because this famous statue, when found in 1820, had the arms broken off. Artists do not agree as to the probable position of the arms in the original statue.

Q.: What proportion of damage done by rodent pests is from house rats and mice? M. E.

A.: About two-fifths of the damage inflicted is caused by these species, both of which were brought into this country from the Old World.

Q.: Have the Philippine Islands a mint of their own? O. G.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES."

Hunger After Knowledge.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 11.—[To the Editor of The Times.] It is but natural that human love should seek to bridge the chasm we call death—should seek some word from the loved ones who have passed into the Great Beyond.

It is just as natural as it is for us to believe that death is not the end, but only a change—to believe that we do live on. There may be a few who are atheists, or who think they believe that death ends all, but at most, their number is small.

I am speaking to the great majority who believe in a future life, and particularly to those who seek to penetrate beyond the veil and obtain messages from the dear ones who have gone before.

Some earnestly desire to know that all is well. Others seek information out of curiosity, and they will use almost any means to secure what they think are real communications. And they make no attempt to find the way for themselves or to lead the life which will prepare them to do so in a normal way. They are not to be blamed for this, but cautioned, because they know not what they do.

Where there is much smoke there must be some fire. Communications, of some sort, do come through, but they are largely confusing, even to those who make spirit communication the sup reme, and often, the only religious test.

What are these communications, or, rather, what are the forces behind them?

Of all the methods in use to try to secure "spirit communication" what is called the ouija board or Planchette is probably of the most far-reaching danger because it is given as a plaything to children whose minds are very impressionable and yielding. Mostly we do not give enough thought to what our children come in contact with in everyday life, and here is a danger we can and should protect them from. We read in the papers recently where experimenting with a ouija board made a whole family insane. If even a few grown persons can be so affected what must the influence mean to children? "It takes all kinds of people to make a world" and on many the effect of this practice appears to be small. But is it not better to let this uncharted sea alone until we have prepared ourselves to properly to enter it? "Seek and ye shall find." F. L. MORGAN.

A Comparison.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 11.—[To the Editor of The Times.] Nine years ago I had occasion to pass two residences, one a large two-story dwelling with spacious grounds, lawn, ornamental trees and flowers, all betokening wealth and culture, the home of an American family of three persons. The lady of the house sat on the large porch reading a book.

Not far distant was the other, a rude board shack surrounded by a vegetable garden, some acres in extent, occupied by a Japanese family of three. A Japanese woman wearing a dirty dress and an old straw hat was working with a hoe among the vegetables.

Since then I have often noticed these two places as year after year they furnished a good object lesson for an observant person. Recently I drove past again. An automobile stood in the driveway of the American home. The trees were larger. The family still numbered three, the third member almost grown. At the other, the hat was tolling with a hoe assisted by two Japanese girls while about the rough board shack romped five more children.

Now let Mr. Donald P. Condit of Long Beach, who says he is "disgusted with the absurd, unjust idiotic anti-Japanese agitation" multiply the above instance by as many thousand as he deems right, then put on his "thinking cap," take a look down the long corridor of time that stretches away into the future and tell us what he sees if we do not put an end to the influx of Japanese.

Some people there are who seem to be absolutely, not to say criminally, indifferent to the just demands of posterity. As one said, "What did posterity ever do for us?" They want the Japanese lest they run short of vegetables. As a matter of fact, vegetables were cheap in this country, before the Japanese ever came here.

The Times has pointed out again and again that the question of supplying the markets can be solved by bringing in Chinese under contract, and the Chinese would not invade all branches of business.

GEORGE BENDICK.

Advises Practical Gifts.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 11.—[To the Editor of The Times:] It was recently announced that France was crippled with the care of several million war babies who actually did not have the necessaries of life, and immediately a very generous person offered her time and attention to the extent that on September 4 a host of young women were devoting their efforts on the streets of Los Angeles to selling tags to help the cause. It was stated at the time that it would not be possible to relieve all of the great suffering of these unfortunate children, but it would at least help some.

Only yesterday I witnessed scenes taken by the International News, one of which was the unveiling of an immense monument to Lafayette, presented to France by the Knights of Columbus, also an elaborate baton, said to have cost $15,000, which was presented by the same organization to Marshal Foch. Think of the relief that could be gained from the large amount of money expended for these gifts. Indeed, it is no wonder that people now rebel against giving to even worthy causes, when such amounts can be gathered together by an organization for showy gifts.

It is true that a monument with its inscription of the donor would stand up a and no doubt ance of the city are people not from their duty Are not the tures citizens of looking after monuments?

This is no time of our Allies, and majority of the same if they enough to relieve.

GASOLINE ALLEY—THE GASOLINE DIALECT

Too Weak to Do Anything

The ordinary every-day life of most women is a ceaseless treadmill of work. How much harder the tasks become when some derangement peculiar to her sex makes every movement painful, and keeps the nervous system all unstrung until life seems hardly worth living. Every women in this condition should profit by the experience of these two women whose letters follow.

Read the Experience of These Two Women

Reading, Pa.—"I had organic inflammation, pains in the side and back which were so sharp that they pulled me to my knees, and I could not walk. I had an operation and still I failed, and in the eight years I suffered I had four doctors and none helped me. My mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was then in bed, and after the first bottle I could be out of bed, then I took Vegetable Compound Tablets and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine and also used the Sanative Wash. I still take the medicine and am able now to do my own housework. My friends say, 'My! but you look well—what do you do? Who is your doctor?' And there is only one answer, 'Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines which I gladly recommend.'"—Mrs. Wm. Stein, 560 Douglas Street, Reading, Pa.

Gainesville, Tex.—"For three years I suffered untold agony each month with pains in my side. I found only temporary relief in doctor's medicine or anything else I took until my husband and I saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I mentioned it to a neighbor and she told me she had taken it with good results, and advised me to try it. I was then in bed part of the time, and my doctor said I would have to be operated on, but we decided to try the Vegetable Compound, and I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a dressmaker and am now able to go about my work, and do my housework besides. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial as I am always glad to speak a word for your medicine."—Mrs. W. M. Stephens, 202 Harvey St., Gainesville, Texas.

INCOMPETENCY ARRAIGNED

We Must Have Business Administration or Trade Collapse, Says Beveridge.

nounce and firmly execute as our settled and permanent national policy that wherever American citizens are lawfully doing business and American money is legitimately invested in any country, those citizens and that property will be protected by the whole power of the American government.

WILSON AND MEXICO.

"Mr. Wilson demands that we send American soldiers and spend American money to establish, support and defend a government over Armenia 4000 miles from our shores where neither American life or property is in jeopardy and no American interest is involved, but where our interference is of vital importance for the safeguarding of certain European projects and investments. Yet in Mexico, on our very border, hundreds of American citizens have been tortured and slain, scores of American women insulted and outraged, vast American properties laid under blackmail, stolen or utterly destroyed. The record of our government in its conduct toward Mexico during the last eight years is the blackest in American history.

"Now that another Mexican ruler is in power, let his be given every opportunity to setup a reign of freedom, peace and justice; but let him and the Mexican people and the whole world be made to distinctly understand that the American government will not tolerate the murder of another American citizen, the destruction or plunder of more American property, the further impairment of American interests, outrage of American rights or insult of American honor. Let it be proclaimed in tones that will be heard and heeded throughout the earth, that America is no longer under the fatal abberation that, for a decade, has destroyed her sense of proportion; and that once more America sees with the vision and in her veins courses the blood of Washington and Jackson, of Lincoln and of Roosevelt.

"Our work in Mexico, our task to secure foreign markets are no greater than other labor we must perform here at home. Take, for example, the problem of agriculture and food supply. Lack of labor, want of credit, government interference with prices and difficulty and expense of marketing are reducing farm output, rendering farming unprofitable, creating industrial discontent.

"The remedies are as simple as they are difficult and expensive. A system of immigration like that of Canada must be adopted, by which immigrants are selected abroad and on arrival, sent to farms, instead of congested in cities; the dead hand of government regulation must be lifted from farm products; farmers must be legally authorized and encouraged to form credit unions; hard roads from farm to market must be builded; railway efficiency must be restored; community marketing must be established.

"Is any one willing to intrust another Democratic administration with tasks requiring such careful legislation and such immense financial outlay?

"Or consider that tremendous mass of economic activities included in the term 'business.' Unless our entire American system of industry and trade is to collapse, the next administration must be a 'business administration.' Its earliest and its continuous effort must be to strengthen business by every practical and honest method.

"Under Democratic mismanagement a bureaucracy has been created as autocratic, as stupid, and more extensive than that whose excesses caused the overthrow of the Russian Czar. Hordes of ignorant government spies have been set upon American business men; showers of 'reports' and 'regulations' and 'returns' are required of every American enterprise—'reports,' 'regulations' and 'returns' often hard to understand, sometimes impossible to make or comply with and seldom even read by the bureaucrats that framed them; taxes so burdensome, so unjust, so repugnant to economic laws that they might have been devised by madmen or by enemies of American prosperity, have been imposed on everybody, but chiefly upon business men.

"All this foolish and malignant warfare upon American business must be ended.

"Nor are these all the burdens we must bear. More than 5,000,000 American children are growing up illiterate because we have not enough schools and teachers; myriads of men and women and children are without adequate housing; vast areas of land capable of sustaining multitudes of people are unreclaimed; population and production have outgrown railway trackage and equipment; the carrying power of our waterways is grossly neglected and unused. All these and many other conditions just as serious must be remedied. All our money, all our effort, all our thought, all our self-restraint and patience will be required to solve the maddening problems and meet the desperate requirements of American life. We are entering the greatest constructive period in the history of man.

"Are we now to turn our backs upon the needs of our own household and fling our energies and resources into the seething caldron of alien embroilments?"

Why Wait for Sickness? Disinfect Now

Do not wait for sickness in the family to force you to disinfect frequently and thoroughly—practice regular disinfection now, and prevent sickness.

Proper disinfection is a simple matter. And it is cheaper than doctors' bills. Beginning today, insist on frequent disinfection in your office, as well as in your home. Keep out contagious disease.

Lysol Disinfectant

Wherever applied, Lysol Disinfectant exterminates germ life or prevents its creation.

In the office: Have a solution of Lysol Disinfectant sprinkled regularly in toilet-rooms, dark corners, cuspidors.

At home: Have a solution of Lysol Disinfectant sprinkled frequently in sinks, drains, toilets, garbage cans, dark corners.

Have Lysol Disinfectant used in all scrubbing water, too.

A 50c bottle makes five gallons of powerful disinfectant; a 25c bottle makes two gallons.

Remember, there is but one genuine Lysol Disinfectant—made, bottled, signed, and sealed by Lehn & Fink, Inc.

Lysol Toilet Soap 25c a Cake — Contains the necessary proportion of the antiseptic ingredients of Lysol Disinfectant to protect the health of the skin. It is also refreshingly soothing, healing, and helpful for improving the skin. Ask your dealer. If he hasn't it, ask him to order it; or you.

Lysol Shaving Cream In Tubes — Contains the necessary proportion of the antiseptic ingredients of Lysol Disinfectant to render the razor, strop, cup and stubble-brush sanitarium, guard tiny cuts from infection, and give an antiseptic shave. If your dealer hasn't it, ask him to order a supply for you.

PAYING THE PRICE.

The Krupp plants at Essen are now getting American soft coal at $33 a ton That's what they get for flooding the mines in France?

COMES HIGH.

The five justices of the peace in Detroit are asking that their salaries be raised from $6000 to $12,000 a year. Probably on account of the high cost of peace and justice.

PLACING THE BLAME.

In case of trouble between Japan and America the efforts of Japan will be to convince the rest of the world that the California political agitators were to blame. That may not be a hard job, either.

ON THE SCENT.

Striking waiters in St. Louis have been throwing stink bombs that release foul-smelling gases in the dining-rooms of hotels and restaurants they have left. In their use of bombs they are running true to union form. You can tell 'em by the smell.

FISTIC PROBLEMS.

The question for the class in higher mathematics is: If Jack Dempsey knocks Levinsky out in three rounds and Georges Carpentier does the same trick in four, how many rounds would there be in a twenty-round mill between the French and American champions?

ON THE WARPATH.

The Armenians have started a war of their own against the Turks and Tartars. This must be to even up for some of the massacres to which they had been subjected. The Armenians had been massacred so often that it would seem that there were not enough of them left to have a war. Somebody having a mandate over Armenia better call 'em back.

A CONCERTINA.

Senator Harding doesn't like the League covenant, but says he is in favor of a world concert. He wants to get out the old horn and brush up the Marion band. A world concert would be all right if some Serbian wouldn't flat or Armenian fall a couple of bars behind. But if the performers cannot agree on time or tune the concert would be a fizzle. There's a job for a good director.

WIDE OPEN.

It is declared that Chicago breweries have been running right along on 5 per cent beer and that there are over one thousand saloons in the big city. The near-by Peoria distilleries have been making whisky, which has been regularly sold over the bar in Chicago. No less than 1500 cellar burglaries or thefts of liquor have been reported to the Chicago police this year. This all shows some of the difficulties of enforcing sumptuary laws in communities where public sentiment is the other way.

THE PENNANT WINNER.

The world's series went over with a rush and a minimum of excitement. Good weather prevailed and there was no postponement because of rains, snowdrifts, blizzards on other climatic excesses of the North Atlantic Coast. Neither the Clevelands nor Brooklyns were popular favorites in their leagues. They were new as pennant contenders. The scandal over the last world series came at a time to impair interest in the present one, but it is fine to realize that there was no breath of suspicion directed against this season's contests. There is no spot or blemish on the pennant of 1920. Ohio gets everything this year and without much controversy.

THE SMUGGLERS.

Sailors on foreign ships are making cosy little fortunes by smuggling liquors into this country. It is asserted that on one vessel the men brought in some 300 bottles of Scotch whisky, which cost them not more than a dollar a quart and on which they realized about $12 a bottle. It is impossible for the revenue or prohibition officials to make a complete search of every foreign ship that arrives, and even the ships' officers cannot know of everything that the men bring on board. If they did they might in some cases be inclined to encourage the traffic, as the American prohibition amendment doesn't have many friends among the sailor folk. To stop all smuggling there would be need for ten times as many enforcement officials as are now available.

INTERPRETATIONS.

According to press dispatches the Internal Revenue Commissioner has advised the collector of revenue in the Northern California district that heads of families may make not to exceed 200 gallons of wine for their own home consumption without regard to alcoholic content and without payment of a Federal tax. This ruling will probably be repudiated by the prohibition enforcement officers before sunset. The departments spend much time in stepping on each other's toes—much to the confusion and embarrassment of the home-brewing industry. The average citizen in making his purchases of grapes, raisins, malt, cornmeal and yeast hardly knows from day to day exactly how far he can go. If every head of a family can make himself a couple of hundred gallons of regular, hope-to-die sherry the temptation for some men to become heads of families will be irresistible.

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC'S FIGHT.

Whenever an important and necessary public improvement threatens a monopoly enjoyed by some powerful private corporation the public interest and associated private interests are bound to clash.

Private interest is dollar interest. It places the individual before the community. It creates monopolies and fights to perpetuate them. When the public right encroaches on its private privileges it promptly assumes the attitude of "the public be damned."

Los Angeles has at the present time more dangerous grade crossings than any other city of its population in the world. The multiplicity of railway lines running to different terminals scattered over the eastern part of the city compels an amount of trackage along and across streets that, from the standpoint of public safety, is horrifying to contemplate.

Only one blinded by selfish personal interest would attempt to deny that the public safety, public welfare and public convenience demand that these scattered terminals should be united at a union station and the dangerous grade crossings eliminated by subway approaches. If Los Angeles possessed a unified public spirit equal to its private spirit that would have been done ten years ago.

Why has the report of Bion J. Arnold, recognized as a leading authority in the country on subways and railway terminals, recommending the immediate elimination of grade crossings and the construction of a union terminal at the Plaza, been held "under consideration" for nearly ten years? There is but one answer. The Southern Pacific Company now enjoys a practical monopoly of terminal facilities in the city. It has a superior location to that of the other roads and personal interest has impelled it to fight every effort to secure a union terminal; and it is not at all squeamish about the methods it uses.

Bion J. Arnold viewed the situation only from the point of public safety and convenience. He found that a union terminal was necessary and, by so doing, he awakened the embittered opposition of the Southern Pacific and its associated interests. Right then the struggle between public safety and private advantage began. It is a repetition of the old fight between corporate interests seeking to secure Federal support for a private harbor at Santa Monica and the public demand for a free harbor at San Pedro.

II.

WHEN an appeal was made to the State Railroad Commission by various civic bodies to compel the railroads to join in a plan for a union terminal and elimination of grade crossings the Southern Pacific Company denied the authority of the Railroad Commission to enforce such an order. Its attorneys fought the case through the courts until the Supreme Court of the State rendered a decision confirming the authority of the Railroad Commission. Defeated in the legal contest, the Southern Pacific adopted a kind of guerrilla attack on the union-terminal plan. It made an appeal to private interests indirectly associated with some of its activities and began to operate under the cloak of a so-called "Business Men's Association." This is a favorite corporate trick for confusing and dividing public sentiment.

Private interest appeals to private interest. Those familiar with the fight a generation ago for the free harbor at San Pedro will recall that the Southern Pacific then organized a similar "business men's association" to fight for Santa Monica. It was a shortsighted policy and time has proved its absurdity; but the private interest of the moment caused men to sign that petition who would blush now if their names were to be published. And the call of private interest to private interest is fully as strong as it was a generation ago.

When the Supreme Court had confirmed the authority of the Railroad Commission to enforce the elimination of grade crossings and the construction of a union terminal the commission set its engineers to work to investigate the local situation and determine the most available site for a union depot. Richard Sachse, chief engineer of the Railroad Commission, reported that the public safety and convenience demanded the elimination of grade crossings and the construction of a terminal depot; and that the one available site was the Plaza location.

And the Sachse report promptly became the object of attack of the Southern Pacific's "Business Men's Association." They began a whispering campaign that locating the union terminal at the Plaza would "hurt business downtown." The absurdity of this rumor becomes apparent when one considers that it is no farther from Seventh and Broadway to the Plaza than to the Arcade Station.

In order to make certain that the engineers had made no mistake in selecting the Plaza site the Railroad Commission appointed a special committee of twenty engineers to review the whole situation. This commission strongly indorsed the Sachse plan for a union terminal at the Plaza with subway approaches. The only dissenters were three engineers in the employ of the Southern Pacific, Pacific Electric and Salt Lake roads. In this connection it is well to remember that the Pacific Electric is owned by the Southern Pacific and that one-half the stock of the Salt Lake is owned by the Union Pacific.

Meanwhile, Mayor Snyder had been appealed to and the Mayor appointed a special commission composed of three business men and two engineers to review the whole question of terminal facilities and the elimination of grade crossings. This commission reported unanimously in favor of the Plaza union terminal.

III.

DURING the entire ten years that the question of the elimination of grade crossings has been under discussion every public commission that has investigated the situation has reported in favor of a union terminal at the Plaza. The record, as far as the public interest is concerned, is unassailable.

What does the Southern Pacific propose as a substitute? It proposes to scrap the plan for a union terminal with subway approaches. It proposes to maintain its present Arcade station, move the Pacific Electric and Salt Lake terminals to that location and keep all other roads out. It is as bitterly opposed to a union terminal, open to all its competitors, at the Arcade site, as at the Plaza. To abolish grade crossings it proses to erect five miles of elevated railway within the city limits. It insists on keeping its tracks on or above the surface. It is not willing to surrender a single one of its private advantages to the public good. No one mentally honest can fail to perceive this open clash between public and private interest.

Those who are familiar with the history of The Times during the last thirty years know that it is not addicted to the demagogic practice of corporation baiting. It is not opposed to corporations per se; for it knows how necessary they are to the upbuilding of a community. The Times has defended the Southern Pacific when it believed that corporation was unjustly attacked by charlatans for political advantage. But The Times will never support any corporation that opposes its private interests to the public welfare. Considerations of the public safety and public welfare of Los Angeles are paramount to those of any or all private interests.

Fair-minded persons will not blame the managers of the Southern Pacific Company for seeking to serve the interest of the corporation; but all must feel the public servants and business men in general should not allow themselves to be used in pulling the Southern Pacific's chestnuts from the fire. It is a matter of common knowledge that many of the signers of the so-called business men's petition have never read the Sachse report and have permitted themselves to be drawn by some business associates into unwittingly supporting the private interest of the Southern Pacific against the public interest of the city of Los Angeles.

IV.

BY THOSE seeking to confuse the issue and divide public sentiment The Times has been attacked for supporting the Arnold and Sachse reports on the ground that The Times Building is nearer the Plaza than the Arcade Station and that The Times is actuated by a spirit of private interest. That is utterly absurd. The Times-Mirror Company possesses valuable land holdings south of Fifth street. Its printing plant is an industrial establishment and it could not publish The Times one whit cheaper if a union terminal were located at the Plaza than if the terminals were to remain scattered all over the eastern part of the city. The present issue is not a question of a choice of location between the Plaza and the Arcade Station for a union terminal. It is a question of terminal or no terminal; for the Southern Pacific will fight the proposal for a union terminal at one location as bitterly as at the other.

The next public hearing is before the City Council; and the members of that body will do well, before they vote, to reflect on the fate of other public officials who permitted private advantage to blind them to the public weal.

The Southern Pacific's "Business Men's Association" has spread the report that if the Plaza site is selected the taxpayers of the city will be mulcted for millions of dollars. The absurdity of this charge was exposed when President Edgerton of the Railroad Commission said at a recent hearing that the city would not be compelled to pay one dollar for the location and construction of a union terminal at the Plaza. The commission is empowered to assess the entire cost against the companies using the terminal.

Further opposition only increases the number of killed and maimed at the deadly grade crossings. What good purpose is served through giving further consideration to the private interests that are putting their dollars before the public safety and the public welfare?

WAR OF WORDS.

If Moses had brought the Ten Commandments to the United States Senate for approval there are a couple of them that would have had a hard time in getting by, and even Senator Lodge would want to include some reservations in the rest of them. Doubtless Senators Reed and Borah would consistently object to the whole group. If the United States and France were to form articles of partnership there are some Senators who would spend a lifetime discussing whether the home office should be decorated in blue or white. Fussing over minor details has become the favorite sport of the American statesman.

The Donkey in the Elephant's Skin.

PROTECTION NEEDED.

If any Republicans who in previous elections voted for Charles H. Randall in the Ninth Congress District have any lingering doubts as to whether they should transfer their votes to Charles F. Van de Water the disclosures of the last few days should remove them. The tactics adopted by the present Congressman in his efforts to win support deserve condemnation. There is only one way in which he can be made to feel that he has unpardonably blundered and that is by refusing to re-elect him.

Apart, however, from the necessity of administering a rebuke to Mr. Randall there is the more important need of acting in the interests of the State. It is imperative, in order to maintain the prosperity of great industries of the Southwest, that a man be sent to Congress from the Ninth District who shall be unmistakably a protectionist. Facts are piling up to show that lemon orchardists, cotton raisers, bean producers and others in the Southland are suffering from the competition of cheap labor in the Orient and in Europe.

Time and again The Times has drawn attention to the losses incurred by our lemon growers because of the flood of lemons from Sicily which has poured into eastern ports. Congressman Osborne, who has taken the stump for Mr. Van de Water, has told of the vast quantities of Manchurian beans which he saw while in the Orient awaiting shipment to this country to compete with the California product. And now comes the statement that, with Egypt looking to the United States as the only available market for a vast quantity of long staple cotton, growers of California and Arizona face a condition which can be corrected only by a protective tariff. Mr. Randall has shown free-trade leanings. He must be ousted and Mr. Van de Water, a stalwart protectionist, sent to replace him in Washington.

NO SYMPATHY WITH SOVIETS.

Comforting to many Americans as well as Britishers who feared the Lloyd George government was leaning toward the soviet maladministration will be the stiff note sent by the British Foreign Secretary to the Russian Bolshevik minister. Earl Curzon has declared that, in view of statements of soviet leaders that the Russian government considers itself in a state of war with Great Britain, any Russian submarines encountered on the high seas will be attacked on sight by British naval forces. The British announcement has a ring which indicates that it is true. There is nothing bogus about it. It sets at rest the fear that the Downing street government has allowed itself to be influenced by the radical laborites of the United Kingdom who are in sympathy with the Moscow butchers. Lord Curzon is known to be averse to having any relations whatever with the assassins and robbers who now have the whip hand in Russia. He doubtless welcomed the opportunity which the launching of a submarine in the Black Sea gave him to sum up some of the sins of which the Bolshevists have been guilty toward Great Britain. France will welcome his note as it practically supports the stand taken by that country with regard to the attitude which should be maintained against Russia by the great powers. Lloyd George's weak pronouncements concerning the soviets helped to bring about the recent strain on the entente cordiale; Curzon's strong words will show Paris as well as London that the British Cabinet does not intend to condone the soviet atrocities.

GENTLEMEN—AND LADIES.

Do church members think themselves too good to vote? The failure of three-fourths of the church members of Chicago to vote in the primaries is declared responsible for bad city government and figures are given to support the assertion. With reference to just one item, this will have a particular bearing on law enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment. The total number of churchmen exceeds by 35 per cent the largest vote ever cast for any county office in that city. The figures show that the best men are constantly being defeated by default of the very support which they should be able to rely upon. Some responsibility, gentlemen, some responsibility.—[Mrs. Tom Thompson in Howard Courant.

OUR SUNNY FRIEND

I'll Say So.

I've heard folks laud tremendously
Dan Cupid's skill at archery,
But Mary Jones lives in our town,
She fell in love with Clarence Brown,
And Clarence Brown quite lost his heart
To the gray eyes of Eunice Bart.
And Eunice Bart, it's strange to say,
Threw Clarence down for Harry Ray,
Though truthful Harry made no bones
About his love for Mary Jones.

Now Mary lives a spinster dour;
Clarence, he married Minnie Brougher
For money, which brought both much sorrow;
Sweet Eunice Bart will sail tomorrow
To teach and preach in far-off Spain;
Young Harry Ray went quite insane
And sent a bullet through his brain.

Clear back to Adam and his woes.
Well, I'll say that, from what I've spied,
Bullseyes so few, misses so wide
Of mark, he was, barring a doubt,
A bum shot when he started out.

(Almost) a Fatal Mistake.

When the lunacy board met to examine the case of Eli Frost last week Judge Hibbard handed them a large manila envelope.

"You will find inclosed," the judge said gravely, "some letters written by the unfortunate man, which will leave you, I am confident, no other course but to remand him to Patton."

The board retired to a quiet corner of the courtroom and examined the letters for some fifteen minutes, after which they returned them to His Honor.

"You're right, judge," said the foreman of the board, "I guess Eli's a cuckoo, all right."

The lunacy board started briskly from the room, anxious to get back to business. The judge's eye rested lightly on the letters.

"Here, gentlemen, come back," he shouted. "I gave you the wrong bunch of letters."

The Moneybags breach of promise suit was to come up that same day in court and the judge had handed the lunacy board the letters the aged millionaire had written to the hasherine at the French chophouse.

After fifty years of married life the spirit of Zerubabel Story passed out to lands beyond the stars. He spent awhile among the miscellaneous aggregation of spirits he found in the fields of asphodel. One day he was joined by a new sprite who proved very congenial.

After he had wandered about with this new spirit for what we earth lings would consider a thousand years or so he said one day:

"There is something slightly familiar about you, haven't we met before?"

"Met," said the fellow-spirit, "I should say we had. You used to think you knew me pretty well. I was your mortal wife."

FLORIDA FISH STORY.

Capt. Richard Harding of Bayboro has been given the hand-crocheted dip net for the prize fish tale of the year. While making a haul with his nets Thursday in front of the Fountain of Youth pier Capt. Harding caught a fish which he described as an electric flying toad. He said it was the strangest fish he had seen in twenty-five years fishing here. The fish weighed one pound and was eight inches long. It was dark slate in color with white dots on its back. Its fins were of a greenish black also covered with white spots. He said the fish had a head resembling a box-nosed whale.—[St. Petersburg Times.

DIRECT LEGISLATION AD ABSURDUM.

IMPOSSIBLE TASK SET BEFORE SAN FRANCISCO VOTERS.

[From San Francisco Chronicle.]

There has been laid out for the voters of San Francisco at the coming election a task which by no possibility can they accomplish. And that is to vote intelligently upon all of the following propositions:

The choice of thirteen Presidential electors.

The election of a United States Senator.

A Congressman in each Congressional district.

A State Senator in each Senatorial district.

An Assemblyman in each Assembly district.

Two associate justices of the Supreme Court.

Presiding justices of Courts of Appeal in each of two Appellate districts.

Eight judges of the Superior Court for full terms.

Two judges of the Superior Court for short terms.

Ten State laws or constitutional amendments submitted on initiative petition.

Five laws passed by the Legislature and held up by referendum.

Five laws or constitutional amendments submitted by Legislature.

Two ordinances relating to the city and county of San Francisco.

Twenty-six amendments to the charter of this city and county.

There are in this city 210,024 registered voters entitled to vote at the coming election. We aver without hesitation that there are not among us one thousand who are qualified, or can qualify before election, to cast an intelligent vote on all these propositions. We aver that there are not among us ten thousand who will be on election day qualified to vote intelligently on any considerable number of the sixty-eight distinct votes—if we have counted correctly—which each voter is expected to give.

The voter is not given a chance. Brief statements of this tremendous grist of proposed legislation are compressed on to a ballot, big enough in all conscience for a ballot, as it measures eighteen by twenty-six inches, that is to say, as large as a newspaper page and several inches wider, but absolutely impotent to convey any indication of the nature of the forty-eight laws or what will happen should all or any of them be enacted. We may concede that the voter should be fairly well informed in respect to candidates for the Presidency and Congress, but beyond that, except by mere chance, he will be completely at sea, except in so far as candidates for judicial office have already served terms on the bench. As to the laws, even those which the voter is inclined to support, he can know practically nothing, for the number is infinitesimal who have considered both sides of the subject or heard or read any real discussion. And there is not one of them, even of those which seem clearest, to which there are not objections worthy of serious consideration. Who has given any such consideration? Who will do so?

In fact, how can the voter inform himself? In respect to the proposed State laws there has been prepared a document of sixty-three pages of fine print containing the text of the proposed law, the text of the law as it now exists for comparison and brief arguments for and against the proposed law. Each voter will get a copy of this document a few days before election, but if he had six months and nothing else to do he could not form any sound judgment upon the merits or demerits of the whole list.

As to the twenty-eight ordinances and charter amendments the voter is vouchsafed no information whatever. He cannot in a single instance give an intelligent guess as to the change in existing law proposed to be made. He is not told whether the proposition is submitted by the Supervisors or by initiative petition or referendum.

Reference to existing charter provisions changed is by chapter and section of the charter, but if the 210,000 voters wished to inform themselves it is doubtful whether so many as 200 copies of the charter could be found in the city.

Many of these proposed laws or charter or constitutional amendments are long, intricate, detailed statutes. That trained lawyers do not understand them is conclusively proved by the interminable litigation in respect to their meaning and the decision by divided courts.

Some contend that this is nothing, because these points are only "technical." It is by technicalities that would-be jugglers of the people's money wreak their will.

When we see what the initiative and referendum are doing to the unfortunate voter of this State right now he must be utterly crazy to propose just at this time to throw down all barriers, open the flood gates and invite everyone with a fad, every one with a scheme, every one who seeks personal profit by playing upon human emotion to come forth from his lair and get what he is after embodied in the fundamental law.

The whole miserable business is a travesty upon popular government. It may even be said that it is a travesty on popular guesswork.

A USE FOR HELIUM.

There is a curious use to which helium might be put at once. Sir James DeWar, in 1898, succeeded in liquefying a minute quantity of helium that he had obtained from natural gas at Bath. When it is liquefied, and possibly even solidified, the lowest temperature attainable can be reached. In 1908 Onnes of Leyden, working with larger quantity, succeeded in reaching a temperature of approximately 271 degrees below zero, centigrade. This is a close approach to minus 273 degrees, the absolute zero, the point at which, theoretically, all heat movements would cease and molecular matter would have contracted down to the vanishing point. Already it is known that many elements change their electrical properties when they are cooled down towards this point, and the opportunity of reaching an unknown state of matter in any laboratory opens the widest prospect of discovery.—[London Times.

STRONG WARNING FOR PICKETERS.

After Severely Lecturing Five Women Judge Suspends Their Sentences.

Five women were given suspended sentences yesterday by Judge Chesebro in Police Court for strike picketing in front of a garment factory here on September 27. After reading them a severe lecture the judge suspended the sentence of $50 fine or fifty days in jail.

The women picketed in front of the Smith & Foldener factory at 347 South Spring street. Their names are Bessie Lockshire, Goldie Zippin, Freda Yudowin, Mrs. B. Schinfield and Mrs. J. Rich.

JUDGE MADE THE TARGET OF CHARGES.

Campaign Body Hits Reeve Upon Score of Reporter's Fees; He Delays Reply.

The following communication from the Movement for Better Judges was filed with the Board of Supervisors yesterday:

Oct. 13, 1920.

Board of Supervisors,
Los Angeles County,
Hall of Records, Los Angeles.

Gentlemen:

On behalf of the taxpayers of Los Angeles county we beg to submit for your careful consideration the following:

The records of the County Auditor disclose the startling fact that Mr. Kincaid, a reporter in the department of Judge Sidney N. Reeve of the Juvenile Court (not the Hon. James C. Rives,) has received from the county in excess of $12,000 per year in reporter's fees, an amount which is over one-third of the total received by all of the reporters of the twenty departments of the Superior Court and more than twice the salary received by any Superior Court judge.

We understand that a large part of this expense is caused by the unnecessary and wasteful practice of Judge Reeve in having all proceedings transcribed and in many instances having several copies made.

We are informed that Mr. Kincaid was appointed a reporter in Judge Reeve's department, although not at the time upon the eligible list, and that Kincaid has been the campaign manager and backer of Judge Sidney Reeve in his political campaigns.

Permit us to suggest that an investigation of these charges ought to be made in order that the public may be correctly informed in regard to the cause of this heavy expenase.

Considering the enormous burdens which taxpayers are now bearing in order to meet the necessities of the county government, it seems to us that these wasteful expenditures in Judge Reeve's department should be curbed and that this matter should be referred by your honorable body to the grand jury for investigation and action for the protection of the taxpayers of Los Angeles county.

Yours sincerely,
MOVEMENT FOR BETTER JUDGES,
By FULTON LANE,
President.

Judge Reeve, when informed last night of the letter from the Movement for Better Judges, declined to make a detailed statement.

"I do not know if the statements are true," he said. "I would prefer to analyse the contents of the letter thoroughly before presenting my side of the case. I do not know whether or not Mr. Kincaid is receiving $12,000 per year, but if he is, he earns it. I do not know how much money he has. I do know, though, that he was not my campaign manager, no rwas he my backer during my campaign for re-election.

"Though all proceedings in Juvenile Court are taken down by reporters, only 40 per cent of the transcripts are written up, and they do not become an expense to the county until they are written up. Complete records of all cases in Juvenile Court have already been demonstrated to be of the utmost value to the children and their parents. The volume of business handled by my department makes it impossible to conduct the numerous cases otherwise.

"The charges made by the Movement for Better Judges do not surprise me, for there are apparently picking on my department exclusively, though all departments are conducted alike. It was advised six months ago to place the court reporters on a salary basis, but all the judges later agreed that such an act would not be feasible."

STREET-CAR PROTEST.

Mass Meeting to Oppose One-Man Coaches, Higher Fare.

A mass meeting to protest against continuance of the one-man cars on the lines of the Los Angeles Railway Company, and against the efforts of that company to increase its fare will be held in Choral Hall, Fifth and Olive streets, at 8/o'clock tonight. A number of speakers will be heard. Among them will be Morris M. Ferguson, William Lathrop and W. A. Prole, of San Francisco.

The mass meeting was arranged by a committee of five, consisting of Sid Grauman, Harry Culver, Morris M. Ferguson, William Lathrop and Mrs. Robert Perry Farris. It is understood that before the meeting adjourns a nickle-fare league will be formed.

Wife Tells Judge She Tried Three Times to Make up With Spouse.

In his role of peace maker Judge Jackson yesterday suggested to Mrs. Rebecca Engelman, who was asking a divorce from Louis Engleman, that she might get along if she went back to her husband.

"I have tried it three times," she replied, "and each time it was worse than it was before. I was always told I was not wanted around."

The court granted the decree.

Millionaire Who Reports is Due Here Tomorrow.

Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., who is staying at El Mirasol, Santa Barbara, for a few days, on a journalistic trip for the New York Times, spent yesterday investigating the opium traffic. With Chief of Police W. J. Wall of Santa Barbara he went over the record of opium captures during the past few months. He will come to Los Angeles tomorrow by auto with his bride. They motored south from Seattle.

"I have chosen newspaper work for my profession," said Mr. Vanderbilt, "and I hope I succeed on my own merits. I like the game and find newspaper men everywhere on the square." At the time he was reading the Los Angeles Times.

"Great paper, that," he said, and his ambition is now to look over The Times plant. Mr. Vanderbilt says he wires 7000 words a day to his paper, besides mailing a daily letter of 8000 words, and he works until 2:30 each morning writing.

Man Jumps from Truck, Run Down by Woman's Car

Morris Gould was probably fatally injured yesterday afternoon near Van Nuys when he was run down by a touring car driven by Miss Ella Awe of 1600 McCadden Place, Hollywood. The injured man was taken to the County Hospital where there is little hope for his recovery.

According to witnesses, Mr. Gould had just jumped on the rear of a truck and then jumped off again. He then started across the road and was struck by the machine carrying Miss Awe and her mother.

Mr. Gould is 26 years old. He came here recently from Detroit and was going to Van Nuys to work on a farm when he was hurt. He suffered internal injuries which will probably prove fatal.

CLUB MEMBERS HEAR HARRIS LAW PLEAS.

The Harris prohibition enforcement Bill, which is proposition No. 2 on the ballot at the general election on November 2, was the subject of both defense and attack by speakers at the noon luncheon of the City Club yesterday. George S. Porter, western director of the National Defenders, spoke in opposition to the proposed law, declaring that it tends to destroy personal liberty and the sanctity of the home; that it places a ban on light wines and beer; and that the proposed legislation means an additional expense to the taxpayers of $2,000,000 a year. Senator Harris, author of the bill, and Dr. Ira Landreth defended the measure.

No Real Kick in Hard Cider, Says Husband's Story.

Mrs. Grace De Chastian was granted a divorce from William De Chastian in Judge Jackson's court yesterday after he had denied that he made his own liquor.

"It was just hard cider, Your Honor," he said.

"Did you get a kick out of it?" inquired the court.

"You can't get a kick out of cider," was the reply.

Mrs. De Chastian declared that she hit her husband with an alarm clock and also struck him with a hammer because he threatened her. The alarm clock grazed Mr. De Chastian's forehead, and the evidence was that he mopped away the blood and then smeared it on his wife's face.

He said the chief trouble between them was that his wife's sister had too many men callers.

"I married my wife, not the whole family," he declared, and he further stated he kicked his sister-in-law out of the house.

ON CEMETERY ORDINANCE.

The Council will hear protests Wednesday morning on a proposed ordinance to permit the establishment of a cemetery on the Ventura Road, one mile west of the Hollywood Country Club. A delegation of citizens who own property near the proposed cemetery recently appeared before the Board of Public Service Commissioners and announced that they intended to protest to the Council against the creation of the cemetery.

Membership of Chamber Passes Seven Thousand.

According to an official report submitted yesterday by S. A. Bostwick, manager of the membership department of the Chamber of Commerce, at the regular meeting of the membership committee, the total enrollment of the organization now numbers 7002. One hundred and eight applications for membership were received during the past week.

This splendid showing was quietly accomplished by an enthusiastic committee, headed by Clinton B. Miller, that appealed to chamber members two weeks ago to work among their friends who were not members of the great commercial body which has had so large a part in the remarkable development of this section.

The whole-hearted co-operation which members gave during the recent campaign has added impetus to the efforts of the membership committee, which now believes that every business man in Los Angeles, if he is made to understand fully the functions of the Chamber of Commerce, will wish to join the organization.

FAVOR TWO OF THEM.

The Social Service Commission announced yesterday that it had gone on record as a body in favor of constitutional amendment No. 12 providing for increased revenue from taxation for the State University, and proposition No. 18 exempting orphanages from taxation, both of which measures appear on the ballot at the election on November 2.

Mrs. Sharp and Husband In Fine Health Now.

Praises Tanlac for Good It Has Done Them.

"It Is a Grand Medicine," She Declares.

"Tanlac has done both my husband and myself a world of good, and I take it as my duty as well as my pleasure to tell the public what a fine medicine we have found it to be," was the statement of Mrs. Nancy Sharp, wife of G. W. Sharp, proprietor of the Merchants Express Co., and herself a prominent member of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Grand Army of the Republic, residing at 921 Camulos Street, Los Angeles, Cal. Continuing, Mrs. Sharp said:

"For at least twelve years my stomach distressed me greatly. I would crave food, but when I started eating my stomach would rebel. I was highly nervous and many a night never closed my eyes in sleep.

"I tried so many different medicines only to be disappointed, I had about lost faith in them all. About this time my husband began taking Tanlac and I could not help noticing his improvement. I, too, began taking it in one more effort to get relief, and before I had finished the second bottle I knew it had real merit, as I had improved greatly.

"I've taken six bottles, and am a changed woman. The stomach distress is gone, and with it my nervousness. My appetite is first-class, I enjoy my meals, as everything I eat tastes good, and my sleep is sound and refreshing.

"In fact, I am now enjoying splendid health, and Tanlac deserves all the praise. It is a grand medicine, and I am glad to make this statement of the good it has done us."

OLD QUESTION IS UP AGAIN.

Pasadena Votes on Municipal Railroad.

Hawaiian Islands Invite Bankers' Convention.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, Oct. 13.—Formal action which will put the old question of a municipal railway connecting this city and Los Angeles before the voters again, at the November election, was taken today by the City Commission, in the first reading of the ordinance calling for a railway bond election. The ordinance provides for a vote on a bond issue of $4,500,000, bearing 4.9 per cent interest.

At a previous election, the railway bond issue failed of ratification. A strong opposition has developed as the question again becomes a topic of general conversation.

URGES ARROYO CAMPS.

That the city of Pasadena co-operate with the United States Forest Service in establishing comfortable camps for auto parties in the upper reaches of the Arroyo Seco, in the Sierra Madre Mountains, was urged here today by S. W. Allen, supervisor of Angeles National Forest. Mr. Allen stopped here today on his way from his Los Angeles headquarters to San Gabriel Canyon.

HONOLULU WANTS MEETING.

Lewis Miller, an official of the Bishop & Company Bank, Honolulu, was in Pasadena today, enlisting support of the Pasadena bankers in the movement to hold the next convention of bankers of the Twelfth Federal Reserve District, in the Hawaiian Islands. The convention will be held next June. Mr. Miller said Honolulu was very anxious to entertain the convention.

PRICES ARE SAGGING.

Prices are sagging in the East, but it will likely be some time before the effect of the declines is felt on the Pacific Coast, said S. Herbert Jenks, Pasadena capitalist and bank director today. He has just returned from a summer's stay in the East.

NO TRACE OF MISSING MAN.

No trace has been found of R. W. Hoskins, elderly resident of Altadena, who has been missing from his home since Monday night. The search was continued here and in the immediate environs today with result. Los Angeles police have been asked to search for the missing man.

Mr. Hoskins suffered a nervous breakdown some months ago, and recently had expressed a desire to go away. He spoke of the mountains, causing relatives to fear that he may have wandered into the Sierra Madre hills and become exhausted. Forest rangers will be asked to look for him.

Inch and a Half Makes Difference in Fullerton.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA ANA, Oct. 13.—George H. Amerige, business man of Fullerton, will have to tear down a one-story brick wall and move it back an inch and a half off his neighbor's property, under a decision handed down today by Superior Judge R. Y. Williams.

Amerige, according to the decision, has six months in which to move the wall, which extends an inch and one-half on the property of Albert H. Rothaermel. The controversy over the narrow strip of ground has been in the courts several years and at one time judgment was entered against Amerige, but never enforced.

"AGENTS" LEAVE TOWN.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 13.—Six men who have been buttonholing people on the streets, claiming to be agents of the Stars and Stripes, were ordered out of town today by Chief of Police Deiss. A March Field man complained to the police that he was approached by three of the men, and afterwards discovered that he had been relieved of $7. The Chief informed the so-called agents that he believed they were imposters, and the men left for other fields.

RIVERSIDE FAIR PUTS "JINX" ON THE "BLINX."

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 13.—The arrival of the first north wind of the season on the 13th of the month found the Southern California Fair "jinx"-proof when the gates were thrown wide for the opening day this morning. School children were admitted free of charge, and hundreds of them thronged the grounds this afternoon.

Several records have been established for the fair this year, according to the management, which declares that the poultry show is the greatest collection of fancy fowls ever seen in the State, and that the goat show transcends anything of the kind ever staged in America, there being four times as many animals of this class as were entered at the State Fair.

The exposition has expanded to twice the magnitude reached last year, the live stock, agricultural, industrial and automobile entries being far superior to the showing made during the past seven years of the fair's existence.

Thursday is booked as Riverside Day, Orange County Day and Rotarians' Day. The business houses will be closed. The racing card calls for a 2:10 trot and a 2:13 pace, each with purses of $500. Eighteen fast horses from all over the West have been entered and a record is anticipated, as the track is conceded to be a fast one.

SWELLS CAUSE DAMAGE.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDONDO BEACH, Oct. 13.—A. L. Larson's new fishing boat was torn lose from its moorings by the heavy seas this morning, and cast ashore with considerable damage. A stiff northwest wind has been blowing and causing a heavy ground swell. A net used by Larson and valued at $600 was washed overboard, and later found out at sea, doing duty on its own responsibility. No report has been made as to how large a catch was made by the runaway.

ASKS BIG DAMAGES.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA ANA, Oct. 13.—For injuries alleged to have been caused by carelessness and reckless driving on the part of C. D. Russell, Mrs. Josephine A. Sickner of San Juan Capistrano today filed suit against Russell for $15,200 damages. Mrs. Sickner claims she was two feet off the pavment when Russell's machine struck her, causing her to be confined in the hospital for several weeks.

OULD BE EASY EAT FOR JACK

Think Carpentier Should Duck Dempsey.

Looked Upon as Second-Rater.

Advised to Stick to Lighter Class.

BY HARRY NEWMAN.

YORK, Oct. 13.—While the Fans are willing to concede Georges Carpentier is a fighter, they are not prepared to that the Frenchman is big enough to tackle such a tough customer as Jack Dempsey. The majority of opinion seems to be that Gashy foreigner had better stay clear of the mighty Utah

There are many who entertain the idea that the bout of Tuesday night is not altogether on the up and up. There are murmurings that there is a tainted hue about the proceedings and that it was framed for the French champion. Others they are particularly carrying their prejudices a little too far.

Notwithstanding that the talent is willing to admit that Carpentier has class, skill, speed and a wonderful punch, they insist that the fighting Levinsky should be thrown out of the calculations.

They point out that Levinsky was a has-been, second rater, without a shadow of defense, and that he was a veritable target for the sharpshooting idol of France. Carpentier is a wide-open fighter and would be a sucker for Dempsey, is an argument presented by those who have not seen the Frenchman.

Little credit is being given the foreigner for his knockout over Levinsky. He must step out against someone more formidable than Levinsky before they will concede he has a look-in with Jack Dempsey.

Many of the experts think Carpentier was severely battered badly in the second round before he had Levinsky on the floor for a knockout. It is true that he was wild and showed poor judgment during this round period, but this was probably due to his eagerness to finish the task before him.

It is also true that Carpentier was at times completely unprotected after one of his swings, and that a slip of this nature would prove fatal to him if he was fighting the champ. Others can grow lax with Dempsey and get away with it.

Carpentier's supporters insist that the Frenchmen showed enough against Levinsky to warrant his being matched to meet Dempsey.

It is the opinion of the writer that the Frenchman is a great little fighter for his inches. He is, no doubt, in the class of light heavyweights and ought to confine his activities in that direction! The gallant little boxer is scarcely big enough to cope with such a puncher as Jack Dempsey.

COAST LEAGUE PROBE ON.

Los Angeles Grand Jury Starts a Deep Investigation Tomorrow.

Indications are that charges of corruption in the Coast League, denials and counter-charges will be brought to a showdown.

The grand jury will start an investigation tomorrow of games played in the circuit this season and last. Officials of the league and Griffith Jones, attorney for Babe Borton, have asked for the investigation. Subpoenas will be issued today.

Now that the major leagues are cleansing themselves of undesirable elements there is quite a general demand in the East that the Coast League take similar steps that organized baseball may take a new start.

It did not require the admission of President Heydler to convince the public that organized baseball has been tried and found wanting. It took the Chicago grand jury about three hours to find out what organized baseball apparently was not particularly desirous of finding out.

Heretofore, any well wisher of baseball sensing something wrong, on voicing his suspicions to owner or manager, met with the invariable response: "Impossible. Baseball is honest. I have complete confidence in all my players."

Possibly the wish was father of the bull. Gamblers took advantage of this bland attitude. Weevil-like, they burrowed in, until they threatened the very structure of organized baseball.

The matter, here as elsewhere, properly belongs to the grand jury. It alone can deal effectively with the evils which it is claimed exists. If none exist, the grand jury alone can disperse the clouds of suspicion.

It will then be up to organized baseball to keep its own house in order. Otherwise the game certainly will be outlawed.

Twenty Varsity Players Coming to Battle U.S.C.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 13.—Twenty Stanford 'varsity football men will go to Los Angeles this week for the annual game with the University of Southern California eleven, Coach Walter Powell announced today.

The Cardinal eleven has been going through only light workout the last two days and is recovering from the bruises and strains received Saturday in the Olympic Club game, which was played in the rain on slippery turf.

Stanford freshmen will play the Davis State Farm school on the local turf Saturday. Coach Seay announces that he is putting his best men into the line-up to meet the farmers.

BRACKET WINNER OF CESAREWITCH.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEWMARKET (Eng.) Oct. 13.—The classic Cesarewitch stakes at two and one-quarter miles, for a purse of approximately £3000, was won here today by Bracket, owned by Mrs. G. Robinson. J. P. Walenquis's Front Line was second and W. T. DePledge's Greek Scholar was third. Thirty-two horses ran.

The historic Cesarewitch is considered one of the hardest tests for thoroughbreds on the flat. The winner is a 3-year-old bay filly by Cantilever, out of Simonath, and carried 103 pounds in the race. Front Line, a 4-year-old, carried ninety-eight pounds, while the aged Greek Scholar carried 109 pounds.

Getting Ready for Horses on Tijuana Lot.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 13.—Carpenters are at work at the race track plant at Tijuana, building new stables and remodeling old buildings for the opening of the track on Thanksgiving Day. James Coffroth, president of the Lower California Jockey Club, states that no horses will be taken across the border until November 1, when the new barns will be ready for occupancy.

A number of horses arrived here last night from the North and will be stabled in San Diego or near National City. Seventeen stakes are to be offered by Coffroth for the meet, the largest to be the Coffroth stakes, of $20,000. Dick Williams will send his entire stable here soon, headed by the filly Margorie Hynes.

BASEBALL PROBE WILL BE RESUMED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—Investigation of the baseball scandal by a special grand jury will be resumed next Tuesday, Henry H. Brigham, foreman, announced today. No intimation of the nature of testimony to be heard, was given.

Assistant States Attorney Hartley Replogle today sent a telegram to Abe Attell, former featherweight champion, requesting him to appear before the special grand jury. Another telegram was sent to John J. McGraw requesting his aid in finding Attell and obtaining his testimony.

A third message was sent to "Sport" Sullivan of Boston, against whom a true bill was voted by the grand jury, stating that if he wished to testify when the investigation was resumed, his appearance would be welcomed.

TEXAS LEAGUE WANTS TO MOVE UP A GRADE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

FORT WORTH (Tex.) Oct. 13.—President Walter Morris of the Texas League announced today that he would seek higher classification for his circuit at the forthcoming meeting of the minor leagues in Kansas City. The fight will be based on the claim that the Texas clubs have 1,000,000 population within or near the member cities and that the Texas League brand of ball is as fast as that of the Southern Association, citing the defeat of Little Rock in the post-season series by Fort Worth.

WHITTIER FAIRLY SWAMPS OPPONENTS.

Whittier High School taught South Pasadena a lesson in football in a practice game yesterday at the Quaker institution. At the end of the battle the score was 49 to 0, with South Pasadena on the short end of the score. Coach Kegley of Whittier used his second-string men during a large part of the game.

Ehrich and Harris did most of the scoring for Whittier, piling up four and two touchdowns, respectively.

DESTROYER BALL TEAM WINS TITLE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 13.—The baseball team of the destroyer force stationed here today won the championship of the Pacific Fleet from the team representing the battleship Arkansas, in the deciding contest of a three-game series. The score was 13 to 5. The winners got five of their runs in the ninth inning.

SCATTER GUN MEN TO SHOOT SUNDAY.

Although the duck and quail seasons opening Saturday will attract numbers of local shotgun devotees, a good crowd of gunners is looked for Sunday at the Los Angeles Gun Club, when Secretary Fred H. Teeple puts on another of his Coast famous Sunday handicaps. The shoot will be fifty targets, with several trophies up for high guns.

For Stanford to Worry About.

A Pair of Rip-Snorting Trojan Stars.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

The baseball championship of the wurruld goes to the third best team in the American League. None who witnessed the race for the championship of the younger league can but feel that the White Sox and Yankees outclassed the Indians in everything except spirit. Members of the Chicago club claim that the hite Sox deliberately tossed away the flag under the pressure of threats from gamblers, while the Yankees, potentially greatest of them all, were simply minus any particular ambition to win. This is no attempt to detract from the Indian victory, for it was a most popular achievement, but merely the facts in the case.

For the Dodgers to be decisively beaten by the third best team in the American looks like a solar-plexus punch in the reputation of the National. However, the Dodgers were a doubtful proposition from the start. They have been in-and-outers all season, losing in streaks and winning in the same manner. The Indians, undoubtedly a better team than the Dodgers, caught them at their worst. Cleveland, which had been playing rather unsteady ball the last month of the season, the unsteadiness of utter exhaustion, recuperated rapidly, and found its best step early in the series.

Grand jury, it is said, will begin investigating reports that the mitts of certain players were upholstered with unholy money in the Coast League last season. Many are wondering whether this investigation will lead to one of our brick yards or to some shop where they deal in filthy lucre.

Dishonest money will be found at the root of many a razz-berry bush, but they may not grow in this league.

Filthy lucre is the limit. You have probably observed how nearly everyone insists on having his lucre sterlized. The pure kale just as it is peeled off the printing press is the stuff. Accept no substitute.

In speaking of oblong packages, Jim Morley inclines to the theory that the players were bribed with bricks.

Ten thousand dollars is the sum mentioned as having gone to most of the players after the middleman's profit was deducted. That is approximately the value of ten bricks, or a short hod.

However, it proved to be only a house of cards, which tends to discount the brick theory.

You can discount a theory, even if you can't get anybody to discount a brick.

Bricks have increased as much in importance as in price. Now, when anybody lays a brick it is a solemn occasion and accompanied with as much ceremony as laying a cornerstone.

Hereafter, it will be a good idea

THREE TROTTERS GO FAST.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

LEBINGTON (Ky.) Oct. 13.—The Ashland Stake for 2:11 trotters, feature of today's Grand Circuit program, was won by Bonnie Dell, driven by his amateur owner, Thomas G. Hinds, after four stiff heats in which three different trotters had made records of 2:05 or better. The first heat went to Bonnie Dell in 2:04 1-4, the second to Tootsie Toise in 2:04½ and Arion McKinney beat King Watts in a tight finish in 2:05. In the fourth heat Bonnie Dell managed to outfinish Arion McKinney in 2:08 1-4.

The 2:13 pace was hardly more than a procession with Crystal Knight easily best. Best time, 2:07 1-4.

The 2:09 pace was a better race. Jay Brook took the opening heat in 2:03 1-4 from Capt. Mack, but the former California pacer was best in the next two.

In place of the 2-year-old trot, which had but two to go, a 2:07 trot was given with four starters. This race went to Harvest Tide, but not until after three heats. Uhlan Brooke winning the second heat. Best time, 2:07¼.

TROJANS WORK FOR STANFORD.

Henderson Driving His Team at Top Speed.

Local Outfit Working Behind Barred Doors.

Local Boys May Play on the Invading Eleven.

IN SECRET

The wearers of the Cardinal and Gold have been working out behind locked gates every day this week and will continue to do so until the day of the big battle.

That Stanford will put a better team on the field than last year is a foregone conclusion. The Cards who played U.S.C. here last year came down on a pleasure trip. It was four days after their big game with California, and Coach Evans admitted after the fray that he had seen practically none of his men following the battle with the Bears until they stepped on the field against the Trojans.

DIFFERENT.

This year the situation will be different. The Stanford pack will be fighting for revenge, and will be in condition to get it if condition will settle the issue.

Henderson was not at all pleased with the showing his men made last Saturday against Tech. The big bruisers who were expected to put a real kick in the Trojan team this year failed to display much of a punch under fire. In fact, some of the subs showed up far better than the men Henderson had in at the start of the game.

LOCAL MEN.

Southern California men who may be seen in action on the Stanford eleven are Howard Deems and Bob Cravens, former Occidental players, who are out for line berths; Red McAlpine, captain of the Pasadena High team in 1914; Bob Schlaudeman and Karl Schlaudeman, also of Pasadena; Bob Schlaudeman is the Cards' classy signal caller, and his brother plays end.

Man-o'-War May Run for Great Ascot Gold Cup.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WINDSOR (Ont.) Oct. 13.—The decisive victory of the champion race horse, Man-o'-War, over Sir Barton in their match race here may result in a change of plans for the future of the great colt, Samuel D. Riddle, his owner, had determined to retire the son of Fair Play to the stud following the match race, but is now considering a proposal to send Man-o'-War to England to run next year in the Ascot gold cup.

While no decision has been reached, there is a strong sentiment among Mr. Riddle's friends and family in favor of sending the horse abroad. The night before the big race the subject was discussed by the Riddle party and a straw vote taken. Mr. and Mrs. William Jeffords and others present were for sending Man-o'-War to England. Only Mr. Riddle and his brother were opposed to it. Since then more pressure has been brought to bear on the owner and he is now seriously considering the matter.

The Ascot gold cup is a race at two miles and a quarter at weight for age, and is one of the classics of the English turf. It is regarded by breeders as one of the most important races of the year and the winner is certain to gain world prestige. If it is decided to enter Man-o'-War it will be necessary to ship him several months in advance of the running of the race in order that he may become acclimated.

FEDERAL LEAGUE WRAITH APPEARS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—The District of Columbia Court of Appeals today took under consideration the appeal of organized baseball from the District Supreme Court's decision awarding the Baltimore Federal League club $264,000 as damages due to disruption of the Federal League. Decision on the appeal is expected early next month.

WANTS MAN-O'-WAR FOR ANOTHER RACE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CINCINNATI (O.) Oct. 13.—Matt Winn, general manager of the Kentucky Jockey Club, today wired Sam Riddle and Willis Sharpe Kilmer, an offer of $50,000 for a race between Man-O'-War and Exterminator, the distance to be one and one half miles.

Owner Powers of the Angels, however, declares that his team has won one more game than it is given credit for in the figures given out to the press.

Frenchmen Say Carpentier Will Smack Dempsey.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, Oct. 13.—"Now for Dempsey," was the comment of the Paris boulevards over the victory of Georges Carpentier, the French idol, over Battling Levinsky, in Jersey City, last night.

No boastful expressions were heard, but "may the best man win and we think Carpentier the better man," all were saying. The fight created less interest than the bout between Carpentier and Joe Beckett, the English heavyweight, but many Parisians sat up all night to await news of the result.

Mme. Carpentier when informed this morning of her husband's victory, displayed no surprise.

"I knew all the time that Georges would win," she said, "but I don't like boxing. I hope the next fight, with Mr. Dempsey, will be his last, so that he may come back to me."

DEMON PLAYER REJOINS TEAM.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, Oct. 13.—Dick Lackey, one of the best basketball men Redlands has ever had, is back in the University of Redlands. Dick did not come back to school at the opening as he was working in a mine in Central California, and was needed for a couple of weeks. There was great rejoicing on the campus when he turned up.

Lackey is a wonderful guard and one of the mainstays of the team that last year won the basketball championship of the conference after a particularly hard season. Lackey was also the captain of the basketball team. He is feeling fit and has entirely recovered from the injury he received last year. All of last year's basketball men are now back with the exception of Blake Ross. There is a wealth of new material to help out the team.

TIGERS DENTED BY PORTLAND.

McCredie's Nursery Plays Swell in Santa Ana.

Sutherland Bests Houck in a Heavers' Duel.

BY ED O'MAILEY.

Something untoward, with a lapped fingers, double-cross attachment, had to occur around these Ides of October to bring Walter McCredie first under the wire in a ball game, and such a jinxy combination took place yesterday at Washington Park when the Portland team actually defeated the Tigers, 3 to 2.

A shrewd wind of a Santa Ana texture blew over the field during the game, frequently churning the dust into angry eddies that swirled against the players now and then, thus reducing brilliant fielding to a minimum.

AIR PRANKS.

The chastised atmosphere also played hobby at times with long-hit balls, turning them from their natural course into mischievous air pockets and treacherous sky areas, which antics made the gardeners blink with vexation.

The cinema star chucker, Byron Houck, the man who made Lou Anger famous, was at the tiller for Bill Essick. Opposed to him was Master Sutherland, who, between big league aspirations and several undiscovered dips and out shoots, which he lets loose at times, has a strenuous time of it in these declining-prices days, officiated for McCredie.

WAS WAY OFF.

Houck didn't look a bit good in the first inning. All he had was an eye full of dust, several quills of darkened saliva and a wishbone. Here is how he got his: Bourg bounded one off Houck's head which Fisher was unable to reach in time for a throw. Wisterall sacrificed, Hyatt to Fisher. Blue busted a single to center, scoring Bourg.

Cox then trundled one down the third-base line, shooting Blue home, and immediately stole second. Biff Schaller fanned ad Siglin was an easy out, Mitchell to Hyatt.

DOLES REAL BALL.

After this little flurry Houck settled down and doled real ball. He was taken out in the seventh inning to allow Camp to bat for him. Smallwood went to the slab in the eighth canto and from then on the Ducks were helpless with the willow.

The Tigers hit right back at the Bentley Takes Third Victory of Big Series.

Cushions Heaved at Umpire by Excited Fans.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ST. PAUL, Oct. 13.—Baltimore's International League champions today downed St. Paul, title winners in the American Association, 6 to 5, in their minor league championship series.

With the three victories registered by Baltimore on their home field against one win by the Saints, the Orioles now need only one more victory to give them the minor league title. The next contest will be played here Friday.

The Saints used four pitchers, while Bentley went the entire distance for Baltimore, winning his third game in this series.

Umpire Stocksdale's decision on Lowry at first in the eighth, calling him safe, met with disapproval from the fans who hurled cushions at the umpire. After the game policemen escorted Stocksdale from the field, while fans showered them with cushions. No one was injured. The score:

THOROUGHBREDS AGAIN WIN ENDURANCE TEST.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION (Vt.) Oct. 13.—Bunkie, a chestnut gelding and Madamoselle Denise, a brown mare, for the third successive day led the field for speed at the finish of the third leg of the 300-mile endurance test for cavalry mounts tonight. The horses, both grade thoroughbreds, made the sixty mile trip from St. Johnsbury in ten hours and twenty-five minutes.

Moscowa, a thoroughbred bay gelding, came in second, followed by Crabbet, Rustem Bey, Ramia and Noam.

The remaining nineteen entries out of the twenty-seven starters from Fort Ethan Allin will resume the test tomororw. The fourth leg of the trip will end at Concord, New Hampshire, sixty miles from here.

visitors in the first frame. After High had flied to Cox, Smith singled to left and reached second on Fisher's out, Kingdon to Blue. Came then Hyatt with a mighty triple to right center, Smith scoring. Edington flied to Bourg.

RALLY FIZZLES.

It looked for a moment in the eighth as if the old Bengals were about to tie things up, but Mitchell failed to come through with a single and the rally fizzled. After Fisher went out, Siglin to Blue, Hyatt hit a heavenly visitor right over the pitcher's box, which Blue ingloriously muffed, and any baseball bug will tell you that an error of this kind invariably results in a run.

Edington biffed a single to right, Hyatt going to third. Chadbourne forced Edington at second, Siglin to Kingdon, Hyatt flitting home. Mitchell was then called on for a swat, but died easily, Kingdon to Siglin.

CASEY AT BAT.

In the ninth inning the Coast's greatest long-distance slugger, Pete Schneider, gave an up-to-date version of Casey at the bat. Pete was called upon to hurtle another over the left-field fence, but just as he had the fans worked up to a high tension Sutherland smuck over a demoralizing droplet and Pete shamefacedly struck out, amid groans.

Hyatt, poopoohing the high cost of lumber just now, broke three boards in the right bleacher fence with a whale of a drive. The sound of the impact sounded like several bass drums on strike. This fellow Hyatt sure can muss the old pill and most of his smashes partake of the line-drive quality. The score:

CAVENEY'S DOUBLE WALLOPS SEATTLE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—A ninth-inning offensive won for San Francisco against Seattle, 8 to 7, in a see-saw game marked by heavy hitting and five changes of pitchers. With the score tied at four all in the seventh inning, Seattle made three runs on two hits, a walk, a pitcher's hit and an error by Connolly. The Seals evened the tally in the eighth when they bunched three hits and were given two walks. In the ninth they ended the contest when Caveney doubled and scored on Connolly's single to center. CALLS TREES "VICIOUS."

Man Sues Woman Neighbor to Force Her to Cut 'Em Down and Pay.

Samuel A. Coffin of 1421 West Thirty-fifth street has a neighbor, Annie Norman, who owns two eucalyptus trees near the boundary line of their properties. Yesterday Mr. Coffin brought suit against his neighbor, asking $900 damages and $500 for depreciation of his property by reason of the "vicious nature" of the trees.

Mr. Coffin declares that they not only shade his vegetable and fruit ground, but scatter leaves, bark and burrs on his garden, to his injury, and that they are a menace. He asks the court to abate the nuisance.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY

Lower Prices on Gardner Cars and the Reason Why

There is no business reason why, but there is a very big sentimental reason—the great American public demands it. Right or wrong they say that the high cost of living must come down. They are impatient. They won't wait for a proper adjustment from the bottom up, but insist that prices on finished articles as well as food and other farm products should be reduced in price—and that at once.

The time for action is here. The Gardner Motor Company has joined with a large number of motor car builders and made a big reduction in the selling price of their product with a view of assisting in the good work at a heavy financial loss to themselves.

In fact—we are willing to co-operate and to run our entire plant if necessary for months at a big sacrifice in an effort to try and bring order out of chaos, keep our organization intact, carry out our contracts dollar for dollar.

We have over Ten Million Dollars worth of merchandise on the way and in over thirty-three years of manufacturing experience we have never repudiated a contract or cancelled one—and we don't want to begin now if we can help it.

Losses must be borne good naturedly and at once, and let us hope that soon "business as usual" will be the slogan everywhere.

There have been no inflated prices in automobiles and it is very unjust to say that certain other companies have unfairly priced their product. I doubt that a single builder has varied very much from the other in computing costs and profits.

As for the GARDNER LIGHT FOUR now listed at our new price of $1405 it will be sold by us at actual cost of production, and I believe that the same can be said of any other makers who have lately reduced their price.

So, Mr. Reader, if you have in mind buying an automobile any time soon it behooves you to get busy at once. You can feel absolutely sure that "bed rock" has been reached on the GARDNER LIGHT FOUR and no further reductions can be or will be made.

The GARDNER LIGHT FOUR is not a war product and the old price included only a very modest profit. We confidently assert that the new price is now so low, that we furnish the best 100% of motor car value on the market today.

HUNTER IS LOST TWO DAYS IN THE WOODS.

BRINGS HARROWING TALE AND BUCK'S HORNS FROM KERN RIVER HEADWATERS.

After being lost in the woods for two days while trailing a deer, H. J. Reynolds, president of the Rence Film Company, with offices in the Corporation Building, 724 South Spring street, returned yesterday to this city with the tale of his harrowing experience and the horns of a big buck he shot.

It was his first hunting experience in California. Accompanied by Lee Royal and a guide, he went about forty miles into the back country of the headwaters of the Kern River. Civilization was left behind at the Beatty ranch.

On the second day out of camp Mr. Reynolds found the trail of a deer and became separated from Mr. Royal and the guide. It became dark before he realized he was lost, and he kept walking most of the night, believing he would find the camp at any moment.

In the meantime, Mr. Royal and the guide built fires and discharged their rifles in the hope of getting an answer.

Serious fears were entertained for the lost man's safety and Mr. Royal and the guide were planning to organize a searching party when Mr. Reynolds heard the report of their firearms and answered. He was within three miles of camp when he was found.

INDIANS GET BIG TRIBUTE.

Cleveland Fans Go Wild Over Their Ball Pets.

Each Player is Given a Hearty Demonstration.

Ticker Nails Comes in for Timely Eggnest.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CLEVELAND, Oct. 13.—Cleveland paid tribute to its world champion baseball team in a public demonstration in Wade Park, attended by approximately 50,000 persons. It was the enthusiasm of baseball-crazy mob that it became unmanageable and broke down the fence marking off the stage from the field. Police officials and the Cleveland American League baseball players, smashed chairs, pushed several persons into a small lake and generally and physically expressed its joy at the winning of the world's championship.

Official details of police were lacking and not until long after the meeting had been put out and the players had left did the celebration end.

JAM IN STREETS.

Thousands were unable to get near the scene of the demonstration. Streets for blocks around were jammed with thousands of automobiles and a great mass of people came for at least one look at the heroes of athletics who brought this city its first baseball championship. Even a little hollow in the ground on the stage where seats were reserved for Mayor W. S. Fitzgerald, players and others who took part in the program. Long before sunset hundreds of fans began assembling on the hillsides, trekking their way in from every direction. When the Mayor arrived at 7 o'clock the grandstands were packed. Great searchlights played down upon the field, keeping the ball players in the spotlight, fireworks were set off, bands played and automobiles for blocks around kept up a continual honking.

Each player, as he was introduced, got a wild demonstration.

REFUSES TO GO.

Even after the last speech had been made the crowd refused to leave. Finally it rushed through the ropes and hundreds climbed on the stage to shake hands with the athletes. Players were passed over shoulders and caps, hats were smashed and chairs shoved aside, but, while many persons were bruised, there were no serious injuries.

Hundreds of police ranged through the crowd of people, trying to get them to break up, but without avail. Finally the ball players were taken to the back of the stage, lights were turned out and a megaphone man with megaphones urged everyone to go home. Then slowly, but noisily, started. It was midnight before the field had been cleared.

MAILS HONORED.

The Cleveland players today voted to give Walter Mails and Joe Sprotts who joined the club late in the season, full shares in the split of the world series receipts. One thousand dollars each also was given to Secretary Walter McNichols of the Cleveland club, Scout Jack McAllister, Trainer Percy Smallwood, Groundkeeper Frank Van Dellon and Miss Edna Jamieson, chief clerk of the club. Mrs. Ray Chapman, widow of the player killed by a ball thrown by Pitcher Carl Mays of the Yankees, already had been voted a full share. Today's action of the players reduced the share of each to $2986.32.

TERRIBLE WAIL FROM REDLANDS.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, Oct. 12. — When Coach A. Cunningham of the University of Redlands sends his team on the field Saturday at Claremont to meet Pomona College in the first conference game of the season the team will get its first real baptism of playing. The Bulldogs have had some practice games with the high school teams hereabouts, but nothing that would give the fans a chance to pass judgment on the merits of the team.

The old jinx has not entirely forsaken the Bulldogs. For many years they have gone into the first game of the season crippled and this year will be no exception. Bill Yount will not play football this year. He got out two or three nights, but has been in training so long that he could not work up "pep" so decided to take a rest. Gair, a good lineman, is out of the game with a twisted knee. Perry Hatcher, captain and star end, has been sick for four days with tonsilitis. It is doubtful whether he can play Saturday.

TELLS STORY OF DEAL.

Man Who "Bought" Printing Plant Testifies Against Seller.

Richard Rinker, who charges that J. M. Flowers sold him a half-interest in a printing plant he did not own for $1000, told the story of the deal which resulted in Mr. Flowers's indictment by the grand jury on the ground of obtaining money by false pretenses, before a jury in Judge Houser's court yesterday. The plant was owned by J. W. Martin, it is declared.

It appeared, from Attorney Helms, who is defending Mr Flowers, the defense will be that Flowers did not assert he owned the plant, but was in a deal for the sale of a half-interest. This angle was shown in a question put to Mr. Rinker by Capt. Helms. He replied that Mr. Flowers did not mention that fact. The trial will be resumed today.

WORLD SERIES IN HARD CASH.

Figures Show That There Was Little Money Lost.

Income Not as Great as it Was a Year Ago.

But All Other Receipts Are Put in the Shade.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CLEVELAND (O.) Oct. 13.—Figures for this year's world series, given out today by John E. Bruce, secretary of the National Commission, show that neither the attendance nor the gate receipts were as great as in last year's contests. They place the 1920 series well toward the top in the records for all years, however, the approximate figures for 1919 and 1920 following:

	1920. (7 games)	1919. (8 games)
Total race pts	$301,800	$722,414
National Commission's share	$6,030	72,241
Each club's share	$46,710	$288,822
Players' share (from first 5 games)	214,003	209,340
Winning team's share	90,067	117,187
Losing team's share	84,463	70 104
Each winning player's share	4,904	4,941
Each losing player's share	3,587	3,204
Purse for second and third place	68,170	68,097

These figures vary slightly from previous unofficial totals given out and still are subject to correction, Mr. Bruce said, as errors in checking may develop. The National Commission pointed out that the league and club officials lost at least $100,000 because the series did not go nine games, as the Brooklyn club already had sold tickets to that amount for the two unplayed contests, and will have to refund the money.

Only in 1911, 1913, 1917 and 1919 were the attendance figures for the series exceeded, while only in the 1919 series were the receipts greater than this year.

Seventeen world series now have been played in modern baseball and the total attendance was 2,421,570. The total receipts were $4,766,935.

to examine all bricks under a microscope to see if there are the finger prints of gamblers and ball players mingling with those of the profiteer.

Spalding's record book should add a new leaf, showing in what court they were tried. But with everybody turning over a new leaf it may not be necessary to keep this one in the book.

A rogue's gallery opposite the annual roll of honor would balance things.

An "Oregon boot" would reduce base stealing, and to that extent diminish the dishonesty of baseball.

After all, baseball is sound at the core, and is a large melon filled with seeds.

It has been forty-three years since the last scandal, and probably will be eighty-six before a grand jury is able to guarantee a mess of indictments with another world's series.

If not that, why not get it down to a system and have a scandal only on leap year? We might be able to skip that.

Science is bound to triumph over brute strength. Because of so much sniping at umpires with pop bottles they may dispense with selling soft drinks in hard bottles in the major leagues. The Coast League may follow suit.

A straw vote taken at the park yesterday showed a majority to be in favor of hard drinks in soft bottles. One guy refused to vote because he didn't know what it was all about. Said he had always done his drinking out of a can, but might be willing to compromise on a bucket.

This will never go through. The better element in baseball will not stand for bucket throwing at the parks.

SOCCER NOTES.

The Overseas Club is making a fine start this season, their first two games being against the two strongest teams in the league. They won against United by 1 to 0 and lost to the L.A.A.C. by 3 to 2.

On the general run of play in both games, the Overseas were the better side, especially in the defense and in each game the inside forwards should have scored at least four goals more than they did, but they are too slow to take opportunities when a little dash and a shot would have scored.

Elder at outside right is going to be about the best winger the Overseas can produce. He is playing a very consistent game.

Manager Sam Mellor, who is playing left half-back, needs no introduction to local soccerites. Sam has for years been recognized as about the best right-half on the whole Pacific Coast.

Next Sunday the Overseas Club will travel to Pasadena, where they will meet the Pasadenans on Tournament Park. A few changes will be made in the team with a view to having a regular line-up when the championship series starts.

The Southern California Soccer Association will meet at the Overseas Club rooms, 211 South Broadway on Friday evening, the 15th inst. The league schedule will be made out and a few other matters will be arranged. All who can referee soccer should apply at the meeting for assignments to league games.

FINAL FIGURES ON THE WORLD SERIES.

SAN PEDRO GIRL WINS BEST RACE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

RIVERSIDE, Oct. 13.—The prevalence of north wind cut down the time that would otherwise have been made in the races on the track at the Southern California Fair this afternoon.

San Pedro Girl won the 2:25 trot handily in 2:18 1-4, finishing first in every heat.

The 2:25 pace was won by Tom Clark in 2:13 1-4.

Summaries:

2:25 trot, three heats:

San Pedro Girl	1	1	1
Teddy Bear	3	3	3
Happy Chap	4	4	4

Time—2:19¼, 2:21 and 2:18½.

Little Bennet	3	2	2
Petrea	2	3	3

Time—2:18¼, 2:25, 2:17½.

Five-eighths mile running; Sequels won, J. W. Harper second, The Mills third. Quickness fourth. Time, 61¼s.

Three-quarter-mile running; San Hill won, Annie Jackson second, Miss Summerton third. Time, 1:16½.

ALL DRESS ALIKE.

Ward School Girls Follow Lead of Polytechnic Co-eds.

Not to be outdone by the Polytechnic High School co-eds, the girls of the Fifty-second-street school have adopted a uniform dress for school wear, consisting of a white middy skirt and a blue blouse. It was announced yesterday by the principal, C. R. White. This is the first of the ward schools to adopt a uniform dress and is the result of action by the self-government association of the school.

Greetings, Pete!

CAMEL CITY—U.S.A.
(or, Winston-Salem, N.C., according to the map.)

Here I am tonight in Winston-Salem where more tobacco is manufactured than in any other place on the face of the earth! and, W-S is some speed city, as well as the largest in North Carolina! They're rushing up a million dollar hotel, got a corking league ball team, regular skyscraper buildings and as much action as you'll look for in New York!

When I knocked off for the day, I buzzed around like a hungry bee in a buckwheat field—up and down long streets of R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. factories!

As the Reynolds enterprise proved out more and more gigantic and I talked with more men about it, I got the real and true answer as to why Camels are so good and so entirely different from any other cigarette! I'll spin it for you, old top—listen:

Every man I talked with made the one big point that the officials and the more than 350 Reynolds foremen have an inborn knowledge of the tobacco business; that (putting it into a North Carolina expression) they were virtually "born and raised in a tobacco patch"; that they know tobacco; how to grade it, blend it, and how to manufacture and sell it!

And, what's most important of all, Pete, these Reynolds folks sure give men what they want—the best that can be produced! Why—Peter, it took months to perfect Camels Turkish and Domestic blend—and that refreshing flavor—and wonderful mild, mellow body—before a single Camel cigarette was sold! Guess that will repay your interest, old liberty bond!

Tomorrow, I'm going to meet some of the Reynolds folks. Got to see inside of those factories!

And, you know me!

DALE WINTER IN IT.

WIDOW OF MURDERED CAFE MAN IS STAR OF "IRENE."

By Grace Kingsley.

When that great New York hit, "Irene," comes to the Mason sometime this fall, it will have as one of its stars a highly fascinating and interesting personality, no less a person in fact than Dale Winter, the widow of "Big Jim" Colosimo, and who was formerly of stage and cabaret fame, and has just come back to the fold in the new musical comedy hit after an absence of many months. This news was gleaned from Manager De Milt, who has put out five "Irene" companies thus far this season.

Dale Winter's story reads like an O. Henry yarn. She went to Chicago six years ago as member of a sister act which became stranded there. Having her family dependent on her, she got a job as singer in Colosimo's Cafe. The owner of the cafe found her a great drawing card, because of her beauty and voice, and because of her beauty he found it necessary to give special instructions to his waiters to look out that no patron annoyed her with his attentions. After being divorced from his wife, Colosimo became attentive to the lovely Miss Winter, and later married her. That was last spring. He settled a fortune on her.

But within a week after the pair returned to Chicago from the honeymoon trip the cafe keeper was found murdered in his office. Thereupon the bride refused to keep the money settled on her, insisting on surrendering the fortune to two brothers of Colosimo whom he had not seen for many years. She kept nothing, not even the half-interest in the cafe, which yielded $50,000 a year.

The widow dropped from sight for a while, but came to New York a month ago, took a modest apartment, and started preparing a vaudeville act. She was in a theatrical office one day trying out her voice for the act, when Mose Gumble in an adjoining room heard her, and came in to ask her if she were available for a part on the stage.

She was so attractive and sang so well that she at once won over James Montgomery, who placed her in the title role of "Irene." It seems that neither Mr. Gumble nor Mr. Montgomery knew who she was at the time.

Bebe Daniels to Flit.

"For a good girl" is going to be written on Bebe Daniels's baggage. The Realart star, having worked hard and finished "In the Bishop's Carriage," under direction of Maj. Campbell, is to leave for San Francisco Saturday night on a short vacation. She will be accompanied by her mother.

Viola Dana Will Weep.

Looking forward to having a good cry, is what Viola Dana is doing. In fact her next Metro picture is to be a really dramatic story, in which she plays a little Italian girl, and as in the pictures little Italian girls always have a hard time, she just knows she's in for weeping buckets of tears.

"Deep Waters" at Grauman's.

"Deep Waters," Maurice Tourneur's production from the novel "Caleb West, Master Diver," is the attraction booked for Grauman's Million Dollar Theater next Monday. The ocean scenes are said to be thrilling and Tournour is given credit for taking under-sea pictures that are the last word in such hazardous work.

"Deep Waters" follows "Behold My Wife," the current production at Grauman's.

Dicky Dix Signs.

Nazimova Soon.

They're polishing up the handle of the big front door, over at Nazimova's Hollywood home, because the mistress of the handsome establishment is expected shortly. As soon as she returns she will begin work on "Aphrodite."

It was at first expected that the picture would be made in the East, but it seems the great actress felt a little warning nip of frost in the air, one night last week, and decided that "Aphodite" had better be made in the warm West, where one doesn't need so many clothes.

Because "Aphodite" is that kind of a play.

Von Stroheim Recovers.

Erich Von Stroheim, who was injured a few days ago while making scenes for his current picture, "Foolish Wives," has recovered sufficiently to resume direction. He is not able to act yet however. He slipped on wet stones and fell, while working, causing him to severely wrench his back.

Hart's Middle Name.

Anyhow one deep dark mystery has been solved, namely, what the "S" in William S. Hart's name stands for.

Mr. Hart's full name is William Shakespeare Hart. And that doubtless in turn explains how Mr. Hart happened to be inspired to write poetry to his pinto pony.

Marion Morgan Busy.

Marion Morgan, the noted producer of epic ballets and dancing acts, is likely to remain in this city for the next several months at least. She has established dancing and pantomime classes at the old Cumnock Dramatic School on Figueroa street, as well as a class for little children in Hollywood.

As though this were not enough work for one woman, Miss Morgan has been busily engaged of late in putting on dance productions for the picture companies. She staged the classic and Amazon dances for the Holubar production of "Man, Woman, and, Marriage," and a spectacular dance in the Goldwyn production of "The Concert," in which a remarkable allegorical story was told, and now she is busy working on the conception of a prayer dance which Betty Blythe will do in the big biblical spectacle which Fox is producing and in which Miss Blythe plays the role of the Queen of Sheba.

It appears, in fact, as though Miss Morgan would eventually become identified with picture work, and she admits she has had at least one offer of a directorial position.

Believed Mark Twain.

Mark Twain once wrote about buying liquor somewhere in Europe at such a price that he knew it was dissolved jewelry. There's a picture star over in Hollywood who can testify there's a thief who believes that much in the preciousness of drink, too.

The actor's name shall be kept involate, due to the fact there may be other thieves with a thirst. Suffice it, his initials are J. H.

It seems the thief got into the house, took some jewels belonging to the actor's wife, and was in the cellar when the actor tore downstairs with a revolver.

The thief dropped the jewels, but held onto a quart bottle of whisky when he made his getaway.

Jack Pickford to Rest.

After all, Jack Pickford may not come West for several weeks at least. While he may decide to come back here within two or three weeks, there is also a strong probability that he and Mrs. Charlotte Pickford, his mother, may go up into the White Mountains for a rest of several weeks. This information was conveyed by close friends of the family here.

James Kirkwood to Star.

Some actors are stars by natural right of talent and accomplishment, whether they are called that or not. Now it's James Kirkwood, who, formerly a director, and always a real star actor, has had that enviable label pinned on him, the pinner being no less able authority than Allan Dwan.

Kirkwood is to star in the next Dwan picture which that gentleman will make for the Associated Producers.

Sterling to Tour.

Ford Sterling, who recently left the Mack Sennett fold to join the Special Pictures Corporation, Monday night started on a tour of the United States and Canada. It will be a personal appearance tour, but the well-known comedian will not make a single one in a theater. All his appearances will be made at dinners, luncheons and other functions which are being planned in his honor.

Sterling left last night for San Francisco to attend the cinema convention there. He will subsequently visit Salt Lake City, Denver, Kansas City, Minneapolis, St. Louis, Chicago, Indianapolis, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Pittsburg, Detroit, Buffalo and New York City. He will return via Atlanta, Savannah, Charlotte, Dallas and El Paso.

RADIOS.

KEEP "SYSTEM" GOING.

VITAGRAPH PUTS ANOTHER STAR IN FILM SKY.

By Edwin Schallert.

It takes those old-established picture concerns to keep the star system in order, even though it is generally not as healthy as it used to be, because of the heavy diet of all-star (which are just the same as no-star) features. Every once in a while you may trust a company like Vitagraph, which has survived all the sieges of the film game, to announce a new one.

Vitagraph's latest is Alice Calhoun, who has been playing supporting roles for Harry Morey and Corinne Griffith in the East, and there is a chance that she will come West to make some of her pictures, although the first will be filmed at the Brooklyn studios.

Her initial story has already been selected. It is called "The Dress of Destiny" and is to be directed by G. V. Seyffertitz, who is well known here from his screen appearances in character parts.

Miss Calhoun is a Cleveland girl.

This is the second star to be graduated by Vitagraph in the past few months, as Jean Paige was recently elevated to that rank.

PUCCINI OPERA GIVEN AT MATINEE.

Ever absorbing in its sensuous richness, the emotional rhapsody of Puccini's "Madame Butterfly" acquired a new dignity at the matinee performance given by the Scotti Grand Opera Company yesterday at the Auditorium. It was the first presentation of this supremely popular work during the engagement and, as was to be anticipated, drew close to a capacity attendance.

I recall few local performances, if any, where the tonal lines of this lyric tragedy have been etched with greater clearness than by Conductor Carlo Peroni, for the essence of his work is the accuracy and the finesse he displays, and these are a delight.

I have, however, known the emotional surge to become more intensified under less capable leadership. In fact, I believe, in the instance of a "Butterfly" performance technical clearness can be carried to an extreme.

Still, Mr. Peroni's interpretation rises to the heights of refinement. He lifts the music out of that slough of cheap maudlin sentiment into which many directors have dragged it. No work offers so much temptation to indulge in emotional slush as does "Butterfly," and Mr. Peroni never allows one to suspicion him of failing in this direction.

His contrasts in the second act were superb. He gave even minor phrases a character that made them impressive.

Many different types of butterflies have appeared on the stage in Los Angeles. We have had American, Japanese, French and Italian prima donnas in the colorful and difficult role. And, after all, it is always a delight to hear an English-speaking artist, who can act out the part with a special understanding of what the American audience demands.

Florence Easton's interpretation was splendid in its clarity—a clarity which was unique even in the meaningful emphasis that she gave to the foreign words. Hers is a definitely-outlined visualization of the Japanese geisha's tragedy, and this despite the fact that Miss Easton is not adapted to the role physically because of her height. She sang with that same fine dignity which she brought to her Mimi. Again I found pleasure in the fact that she made her heroine a woman instead of a grown-up child.

Orville Harrold apparently felt the effects of a sudden weather change. His voice showed huskiness, that, while it did not materially interfere with the breadth and dramatic power of his tone, still contributed to produce the effect of unevenness in his singing. Some of his notes were actually clouded. Still, he is one of the few really convincing Pinkertons that has appeared here.

Mario Laurenti gave us a regular "juvenile lead" of a Sharpless. Mr. Laurenti has shown a splendid singing voice both as Silvio in "Pagliacci" and as Sharpless. Doria Fernanda invested Suzuki with a personality and was equal to the vocal demands of the part, which rarely receives proper attention. Louis d'Angelo was an ubiquitous Goro.

Tearle Picture Next Week.

The postponed engagement of "Marooned Hearts," the picture featuring Conway Tearle, is to open next Monday at Clune's Broadway. Zena Keefe plays the leading feminine role in this film story.

Burr McIntosh Present.

Burr McIntosh, well known as an actor and magazine editor, has one of the principal character roles in "Way Down East," the Griffith picture, which opens next Monday night at the Auditorium. In fact, Mr. McIntosh recreates in this film a role he originally portrayed on the stage. He appeared in this city some years ago in a stock performance of "The Gentleman from Mississippi."

Simpson Brands 'Em Again.

Russell Simpson, noted for his portrayal of the leading masculine role in Rex Beach's picture, "The Brand," is to appear next week at the California Theater in a feature which curiously enough is called "The Branding Iron." It looks very much as if this artist favors the hot stuff. Still, he did have a chance to cool off in "Black Pawl," a sea story, and one or two others in which he recently played.

From Circus to Society.

Gladys Walton, who heroines in "Pink Tights" at the Superba, is now doing a society girl at Palm Beach in "The Flip Flapper." She manages to get into one tight scene, however, when she appears in the fluffy garb of a ballet girl and executes a dance that has the shimmy "roped to the jib-boom."

Dance Hall Drama.

Alaska dance hall drama will again hold sway, this time at the Hippodrome, where the picture feature, "The Girl from Nowhere," commences showing today. Cleo Madison and Wilfred Lucas have the principal roles.

The vaudeville bill will include the Rago Marimba Band, playing classics to jazz; Coffman and Carrol in darktown comedy; Keene and Company in "The Unexpected," a playlet by Aaron Hoffman; Zolar and Knox, piano fiends; the serial novelty, "The Wonder Girl," and a Mermaid comedy, "Nonsense."

Kill Tigers for Film.

Killing a real tiger for the sake of a picture is rather a departure in filmland. But that's what's going to happen in Frank Mayo's next starring film, "Tiger," and Princess of the Universal menagerie is the animal to be sacrificed.

Of course Princess isn't as good a tiger as she might be. She has become too vicious to use for anything but a rug, in fact. Consequently the Universal authorities have decided to put an end to her young career, and at the same time employ her death to contribute realism to Mr. Mayo's picture.

Tandler as Opera Conductor.

Adolph Tandler is the gentleman you see in the orchestra pit at the Kinema Theater this week. Of course I mean the orchestra pit on the screen, not the one in the theater. Mr. Tandler was especially engaged by Allen Holubar to conduct in the spectacular operatic episode in "Once to Every Woman." The setting is incidentally a duplication of the interior of the Metropolitan in New York.

Annette in St. Louis.

Having finished her adventure in the silent drama, Annette Kellerman is all set to start her vaudeville tour. She will begin next Monday in St. Louis, on Orpheum time.

John Smallman, Soloist.

John Smallman, baritone, has been selected as soloist for the popular concert at Grauman's Theater next Sunday morning. He will sing "Promesse de mon avenir" from Massenet's opera, "Le Roi de Lahore."

The instrumental program will comprise the first movement from Schubert's "Unfinished" symphony, Weber's "Invitation to the Dance," Rubenstein's Romance, selections from Puccini's opera, "Tosca," Beethovens Menuett No. 2, in G, and the "Dance of the Hours" from Ponchielli's "La Gioconda."

GORE-LESSER FILM EXCHANGES MERGED.

COMBINATION TO DISTRIBUTE GREAT PERCENTAGE OF RELEASES HERE.

A merger of the various Gore Bros. & Sol Lesser film exchanges into one distributing center was announced yesterday. These interests include the First National Exchange, the All-Star Feature Distributors, the Educational Films Corporation of Southern California, the Equity Films Corporation and various independently-purchased feature pictures released by Gore Bros. & Sol Lesser.

The chief reason for the merger is a desire to establish an executive organization to handle the various holdings efficiently and at the same time become of greater service to the smaller exhibitors. General offices have been opened on the second floor of the Knickerbocker Building, and the entire picture distribution system will come under the direct supervision of David Bershon. As these various exchanges have a library of at least 2,000,000 feet of film, and as the new season is bringing in many more features, it will become necessary in the near future to build a huge vault to properly house this vast amount of footage.

With the merging of these various distribution centers, the new offices will handle a weekly release of at least ten feature pictures. The All-Star subdivision will handle the rental of big State rights productions, the Equity subdivision will distribute Clara Kimball Young and other Harry Garson productions, while First National during the new season will release at least fifty features pictures, many comedies, and the Educational Film Corporation of Southern California will add to the list with a long line of short-reel subjects. By this amalgamation Gore Bros. & Sol Lesser become the distributors of a great percentage of all Southern California feature pictures, and virtually assume the control of the release of short subject program pictures.

The organization will also become active in the purchase of independently-made pictures, and Gore Bros. & Sol Lesser will buy outright for the State of California the biggest pictures produced. The first of these is Maurice Tourneur's production, "The County Fair." State rights of which have already been purchased for $30,000. Harry C. Arthur has been appointed general manager of the merged interests.

Mrs. Peete to Face Grand Jury on Tuesday.

TO THE GRAND JURY TODAY.

Inquisitors Expected to Indict in the Denton Case.

ding in any way with whatever legal proceedings might ensue. Should no action be brought by the lawyers, they have freely advised that civil suits will be filed.

The Peete continued her policy of silence last night at her hotel in La Jolla and declined to explain any of the circumstances relating to the flight of the rent, the checks or anything.

"I was told before the discovery of Dr. Denton's body that action would be brought," she declared. "I know nothing about it, and in such case I would employ an attorney to watch the suit."

TO GRAND JURY.

Dan H. Hodent, attorney for the Peete estate, who was present when the body of J. C. Denton was found in the basement crypt at the house at 1605 South Catalina street, will be the witness before the grand jury when it begins its inquiry into the mysterious slaying of the wealthy man this afternoon.

Mr. Hodent will be followed by Police Detective A. J. Cody, who found him when the body was found. Detective Sergeant Sidney Allen will be the witness to follow Mr. Cody. The three will tell of the circumstances leading to the discovery of the body and the scene at the grave. Detective Allen's testimony will also relate to the evidence relative to the condition of the corpse, and pave the way for the testimony that is to follow from more than a score of men and women who will tell of the different angles and facts regarding the disappearance and the slaying of Denton.

That the hearing before the inquisitorial body will last nearly a week was predicted by the officials conducting the investigation. Tomorrow, according to present plans, will be given up to a preliminary hearing of the baseball scandal investigation and the Denton case will be continued till Monday. Just how long the actual hearing of witnesses in the Denton case will consume is not known. That a number of witnesses will be recalled one or more times to check the testimony of others, is known. Final action, however, may not come for several days after the last witness is heard.

Mrs. Peete, the central figure in the investigation, may not testify until nearly every other witness is heard. That her story will take practically the whole day is indicated by the length of the three statements she is known to have made to Chief Dep. Dist.-Atty. Doran to date. Every point covered in the three statements will be gone into at length by the grand jury. She, too, may be recalled to the stand several times. It is from her lips that the jury may hear the most interesting features of the puzzling case.

Deputies Doran and Turney devoted every hour of their time yesterday and last night to the shaping of the testimony, they will present to the grand jury today. Frequent consultations were held with the detectives and other investigators. The feeling that the investigation will result in one or more indictments, is general among the investigators.

DENTON FUNERAL.

Relatives of Mr. Denton and many of his friends attended the funeral services yesterday morning at Garret & Co.'s chapel. Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher read selections from the Psalms and also Paul's statement concerning resurrection.

"Probably no tragedy in the history of Los Angeles has been shrouded in so great mystery as the taking of the life of Mr. J. C. Denton," he said. "Some better means for detecting criminals and bringing them to account for their misdeeds should be discovered if possible. The whole city should lend itself to an earnest effort to discover the perpetrators of their heinous deed."

The relatives, including Mrs. Sarah Denton, divorced wife of the deceased; Frances Denton, their daughter, and Mrs. Rhoda Merriman, Denton's sister, wept during the services. Interment will not take place for some time, pending the outcome of the murder investigation.

TWO ADVERTISING AGENCIES COMBINE.

NEW COMPANY HAS SIXTEEN IN OFFICE PERSONNEL; HEADS WELL KNOWN HERE.

Consolidation of two well-known local advertising agencies, Harrison & Janes, Inc., and the firm of Crank-Paris, was announced yesterday.

The new company will be known as the Harrison, Janes, Crank & Paris, Inc., and will be located in an enlargement of the quarters which Bates, Harrison & Janes have been occupying in the Marsh-Strong Building.

Officers of the consolidation are E. Maynard Harrison, president; C. F. Crank, vice-president; William B. Paris, vice-president, and A. O. Janes, secretary and treasurer, all of whom are men of long experience in the California advertising field.

The reorganization has a personnel of sixteen people, and the offices have been carefully departmentized, with a specialty man at the head of each department. The combined firms list among their clients many of the most prominent advertisers in Southern California.

WANT THEIR SHARE.

Los Angeles Delegates will Lead Fight to Get Auto License Money.

Efforts will be made by the Los Angeles delegates to the annual meeting of the League of California Municipalities to be held at Chino on November 8 to 11 to organize a concerted campaign by the cities of the State to secure a proportionate share of the revenue derived from motor vehicle licenses, it was stated yesterday. Under the State law, the income from this source is divided equally between the counties and the State. The city of Los Angeles receives no income from automobile licenses, nor does it receive any revenue from fines imposed for violations of the State Motor Vehicle Act inside the city.

City Attorney Burnell, Councilmen Criswell and Wheeler, City Engineer Griffin, Health Commissioner Powers and Secretary Whitnall of the City Planning Commission will represent the city at the convention.

FUR SALE

Buying only the select pelts of a thousand traders—paying cash—taking advantage of every downward turn in the market—Willard George has been fortunate in securing his raw furs at prices far below today's market.

You can now profit from his forethought and shrewd buying tactics. He is the first furrier to announce peace-time prices and to announce a sale at prices even lower than those of 1913.

His entire selection of exclusive creations are offered at a premier sale. You will agree that such wonderful wraps are seldom offered at sale prices. Indeed, it is the only sale George has ever conducted—but George believes that every merchant must do his utmost to return to a sane, normal level—to bring prices down to a rational basis.

GARLAND TELLS OF CIVIC NEED.

"The greatest need in Los Angeles now is for a closer community spirit. This city should start something and then finish it, make it finished business," yesterday said W. M. Garland, who has just returned from Europe, where he acted as official representative of the Chamber of Commerce, the City Council and the Board of Supervisors, to bring the Olympiad of 1924 to this city.

"I love this city," he stated, "but we need more of a community feeling, and when I say that more civic improvements should be started and completed I say it in the most kindly spirit."

Mr. Garland said this when he learned that the bond issue to provide a coliseum for Los Angeles had been defeated by the voters of this city. "There is every chance in the world of this city getting the next Olympiad," he said, "but without the coliseum we can't have it." The representatives of the athletic world who were at Antwerp this year gave Mr. Garland twenty minutes to explain the advantages of Los Angeles as an Olympiad city. He says the allied representatives listened to him attentively and admitted that this city offers more inducements than any other place in the world and that it was probable that the next event would be held here.

"IN AN AWFUL SHAPE."

With his two sons, Mr. Garland toured England, France, Luxembourg, Switzerland and Belgium during the ten weeks they were in Europe. "The continent is in an awful shape, and I was certainly glad to be back in America," he stated yesterday.

"There is an undercurrent of unrest all over Europe," he stated "and everyone can feel it."

The French are very much dissatisfied with the coal situation, with the price they have to pay for coal and the amount they are getting from Germany. Belgium is doing wonderfully well for the condition the country is in, but there is also that feeling of unrest there. Mr Garland says the continent is flooded with American tourists, many of whom are there to see the battlefields. American business men are also there in great numbers. Americans are building houses in the devastated cities of Belgium and France as rapidly as possible.

There is practically no building of factories going on in any of the larger European capitals, he said Berlin, London and Paris are very dead, from an industrial standpoint This is particularly true of Germany, where great factories are shut down. Some smaller places are trying to operate, but are finding it difficult because there is little or no raw material in the country.

Switzerland is prosperous. This is due to the fact that commerce in this nation was not hindered during the war, as the republic sold to practically all of the belligerent nations.

Industrial unrest is felt all over Europe and the prevalence of intrigue in the capital cities has convinced Mr. Garland that the United States had better make haste slowly in joining the League of Nations. He says he went to Europe a devout believer in the League, but is now convinced that this is not the time for this country's entry. He declared himself in favor of helping the European countries with sympathy, money and in whatever other way it may become necessary, but he says he is opposed to entering into any political relations with them.

STILL BREAD LINES.

In Austria and Germany there are still bread lines, Mr. Garland said he had learned from acquaintances. The rate of exchange is so low that the American tourists in Europe are getting along cheaply. He declares that the menace of Bolshevism hovers over most of the European nations.

After witnessing the condition of Europe, Mr. Garland says he is more than ever proud that he is an American. He says he favors deporting of all alien agitators who advocate the overthrow of this government.

"This is the greatest country, and we have the best government in the world, and if the agitators among us do not like our form of government I am in favor of sending them back to where they come from," he declared.

Speaking of Los Angeles, Mr. Garland declared that this city faces the most prosperous year in its history. Passengers on the train which brought him here told of hundreds of families from other parts of the United States and Canada who are planning to come to Los Angeles. The conductor of the Santa Fe train declared that the tourist travel to this city during the present season will be 90 per cent larger than it has ever been before.

At present Mr. Garland has nothing to say regarding the housing conditions here. He said that he would be in better condition within a few days to tell of the needs and prospects for further building, and intimated that he has devised some plan which will help out in the matter of the house shortage. The housing question is bothering the entire country, he declared, and Los Angeles is in a better shape than any other large city of which he knows.

THINKS BAIL TOO LOW.

Deputy District Attorney Protests in Burglary Charges Cases.

Accused of numerous burglaries, Reginald Morrison and J. A. McDonald were held to answer yesterday by Justice Hinshaw. They are accused of entering the residences of W. E. Fowler, 860 South Berendo street, and Edward Zoeblein, 3685 South Main street. Bail was fixed at $1000, which was protested by Dep. Dist-Atty. Fitts, who asked for a higher bail.

ONE OF "WORST TYPES" JAILED.

Ten Days for Reckless Truck Driver Who Passed Autos on Right in Hurry.

Frank Williams, arrested a few days ago for reckless driving on Sunset Boulevard, was yesterday sentenced by Police Judge Chambers to ten days in jail.

Williams was driving a truck on the boulevard at thirty-two miles an hour and passing on the right side of machines in his hurry. The judge stated that this is one of the worst types of reckless driving and ordered the man jailed.

If

You can solve this problem you are worth a million dollars a week to the community.

The average hen lays 3¼ eggs during November.

Last November the average loss to egg producers was 11 cents a hen.

This November conditions promise to be very little different.

There are 30,000 fewer cases of eggs in cold storage here than a year ago.

Materials, food and labor are higher.

How, under such conditions, can the poultry and egg producer make a profit?

Consider these facts and figures when prices are high. They are official and can be verified at the Poultry Producers of Southern California, Incorp.

DAILY TRADE TALK.

Bankers Meet Today to Finance Cotton; Three Big Bond Issues Offered.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

As an initial step in perfecting the plan launched through the Los Angeles Clearing House Association to create a large fund for financing cotton growers of the Southwest, a meeting will be held in the Merchants' National Bank today for the purpose of establishing the amount of money which will be advanced out of the fund to growers in the Imperial Valley.

Representatives from the Imperial Valley Bankers' Association will confer at the bank with a committee of three members of the local clearing house, consisting of J. H. Rambos, cashier of the Merchants' National Bank; J. A. H. Kerr of the Security Trust and Savings Bank, and J. Dabney Day of the First National Bank.

A specific amount of $3,500,000 has been allotted from the fund to growers in the Salt River Valley of Arizona and $5,000,000 will be provided to all other adjacent cotton territory. Out of this latter figure, it is proposed, a definite apportionment will be made today to Imperial Valley growers.

The emergency financing plan has been entered into for the purpose of enabling growers to get their cotton crop into the market. Early in the year finances were advanced to promote planting and cultivation. Now the crop is ready for the numerous preliminary operations to prepare it for sale.

The local committee of three bankers will act for the clearing-house in effecting details of the plan. Mr. Rambos, who is a recognized authority on the cotton industry, will leave shortly for the Salt River Valley to complete that angle of the plan and will then go to the Imperial Valley. He will be in the field about two months.

TRADE FINANCING.

Foreign trade financing as a means of speeding up the industrial wheels of the nation will be one of the important questions considered by the American Bankers' Association, which meets in annual convention next week.

The association has consistently stood for the establishment of a nation-wide organization to finance our foreign trade with the especial object of encouraging thrift and production at home. To accomplish this the merit of purchasing securities of sound, individual European corporations will be advanced on the floor of the convention.

One plan proposes to enlist the co-operation of bankers, exporters and importers, manufacturers and producers generally with the idea of financing our exports without invading the present investment market by carefully saving and accumulating funds for investment in the foreign field.

With these accumulated funds, it is pointed out, America's foreign trade could be aided in a way to promote the national welfare, for there would be available that much more to be applied to the reasonable financing of foreign trade under competent management and in conformity with legal requirements.

At the same time the organization would be in a position to give to our foreign customers, evidencing an intention of acting upon approved economic principles, such business-like assistance as might seem wise. "We would," according to Chairman John McHugh, of the Commerce and Marine Committee of the American Bankers' Association, "in effect, be helping ourselves directly, and, along with this, would be helping others deserving of that help, which, in due course, would be to our advantage."

INTERNATIONAL COMMERCE.

The trade of the United States with the war-sequestered countries, those cut off from international commerce as a result of the war, will aggregate more than $1,000,000,000 in the calendar year 1920. To the dozen countries, says a statement by the National City Bank of New York, with which our trade was necessarily suspended during the war period our exports in the calendar year 1920 will approximate $750,000,000 and our imports about $250,000,000. These dozen countries are Germany, Russia, Poland, Finland, Belgium, Austria, Czecho-Slovakia, Hungary, Jugo-Slavia, Rumania, Bulgaria and Turkey.

CALIFORNIA OIL.

That the oil resources of California are still far from being fully demonstrated is believed by the American Mine Reporter to be shown by the numerous producing wells recently brought in in so-called wild cat territory.

Oil is like gold and silver, it is where you find it, experts to the contrary notwithstanding, and the demand for more oil at increasing prices, is a constant spur to the independent operator seeking new worlds to conquer.

SOME GOOD ADVICE.

Many readers of this department will remember the sane counsel given, and the excellent impression created by his Los Angeles addresses, by J. H. Tregoe, secretary-treasurer of the National Association of Credit-men when he visited this city several months ago; before there had been any price depreciation.

In a recent Philadelphia address Mr. Tregoe delivered himself of the following observations concerning the present situation with especial reference, of course, to conditions in the East. In any event what he said is worth repeating, and should find a place on every desk to be read each day:

"Do business close to the bone. Determine that you are going to do business. Be moderate in buying. Be moderate in selling. Keep your accounts liquid. When you hear of giants closing don't worry. Don't block traffic. Keep moving.

"You've had good days. Face some troublesome ones with courage and determination. The easiest way to cure present embarassments is to exercise prudence and common sense. No country is so strong as this one. What ills we have are small in comparison with those others are facing. Look up, not down."

HAVE A DRINK?

The soft-drink business in Los Angeles is having a remarkable growth. Already a chain of attractive drinking places is in successful operation, and occupying choicest locations in downtown streets. New stores and fountains are being opened daily, and in the aggregate hundreds of thousands of dollars are locally invested in enterprises of this kind.

ANACONDA COPPER.

The National City Company and the Guaranty Company of New York are offering today a new issue consisting of $25,000,000 Anaconda Copper Mining Company secured gold bonds, issued to bear 7 per cent. The bonds, however, will be sold at 98 1-4, to yield 7 5-8 per cent to the purchaser. Through the establishment of a sinking fund of $1,500,000 per year, arrangement has been made for the purchase and retirement of outstanding bonds. The bonds constitute a direct obligation of the company, which is valued at more than $100,000,000.

The Anaconda Copper Mining Company is the largest producer of copper in the world, its mines being located in the Butte district of Montana. During the period from Jan. 1, 1913 to Dec. 31, 1919, the company and its constituents earned, after dividends and taxes, a yearly average of over $24,500,000. Dividends during the past ten and one-half years have aggregated over $125,000,000. Provision for the protection of this issue and for its precedence over all other obligations secured by mortgage or pledge of the company's property is made, and the assets will be fully maintained during the life of this issue.

SEARS-ROEBUCK FINANCING.

Sears-Roebuck has placed on the market an issue of $30,000,000 7 per cent serial gold notes, dated Oct. 15, 1920, and due serially in three years. The notes will be retired to the amount of $14,500,000 during the first year, the same amount will be retired during the second year, and $17,000,000 worth of the securities will be retired during the third year. The bonds will be sold at prices ranging from 7.75 to 7.60, according to maturity. The company agrees to maintain net assets equal to at least one and one-half times all liabilities, including this issue.

Net earnings of the Sears-Roebuck Company for the four years ended Dec. 31, 1919, after all interest charges, but before Federal taxes, have averaged more than $20,000,000, or about six times the annual interest charges on this issue. For the period ended June 30, 1920, net earnings amounted to more than $15,400,000.

The issue is being placed on the market by the Chase Securities Company, Goldman Sachs & Co., Lehman Brother, A. G. Becker Company, the First Trust and Savings Bank, the Continental and Commercial Trust and Savings Bank and the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank.

AFTER LIQUIDATION—WHAT?

(2.) The general average of the stock market touches bottom at about the same time as the turn in money and bonds, but the rise is slower in stocks and may be preceded by a period of dullness and hesitation.

(3.) Business liquidation continues for a short time longer, after bonds and stocks have turned, and the end of liquidation is followed by some months of dullness before any revival of activity becomes noticeable.

It is probable, therefore, that the revival of the business liquidation is now past. There will be some further cleaning up to be done this year, with some further decline of commodity prices, and perhaps a moderate increase in failures over the turn of the year, but the spring should bring a turn toward more active business conditions.—[The Magazine of Wall Street for October 26.

A Question Leading Banks Are Asking

One of the largest and most successful banks in the United States has just written the President of The American Credit-Indemnity Co., as follows:

"No doubt you will be interested to learn that we have arranged to incorporate into the forms used for securing financial statements this query:

"Are your accounts covered by credit insurance?

"I submitted this matter to our officers the other day, at a meeting, and favorable consideration was immediately accorded it."

Bankers appreciate that it takes more skill to do business successfully when prices are falling, as now, than when prices were increasing. And they therefore endorse precautions that prevent, else pay, bad debt losses beyond the normal.

A manufacturer or wholesaler carrying the American Company's Credit Insurance is completely fortified against abnormal losses on his sales. If you are not one of our policy-holders, now, of all times, you should investigate this broad, protective service. Write or phone.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Railroad and industrial stocks moved in opposite directions again today, transportations, especially the speculative variety, denoting a further accumulation, while industrials and associated specialties were variable or hesitant.

There were a few striking exceptions, as in the case of Lackawanna Steel, which strengthened on its excellent statement of earnings, and industrials and oils.

Sentiment among professional traders was once more governed by the money market. Call loans opened at 8 per cent, advanced to 9 at midway and mounted to 10 just before the close.

This sensitive condition was attributed mainly to the withdrawal of $8,000,000 of government deposits and final preparations for Friday's payment of the Anglo-French loan of $500,000,000.

Coppers yielded again on reports that the refined metal is being offered for immediate delivery at 16¾ cents, and advices from Pittsburg and other steel centers confirmed recent advices of concessions for fabricated iron and steel. In shipping circles freight rates were said to be in process of downward revision. Sales amounted to 525,000 shares.

Some of the industrial bonds, including United States Steel 5s, were heavy, but other domestic issues, including Liberties, were steady to firm. Total sales (par value,) $17,200,000. Old United States bonds unchanged on call.

FINANCIAL AND TRADE REVIEW.

Liquid Carbonic Company, an Illinois corporation, engaged in the manufacture and sale of soda fountains, carbonic acid gas, bottling machinery and similar lines. The company is said to be the largest concern of its kind in the world. The net current assets of the company, as reported by certified accountants, are approximately $4,800,000, or over 225 per cent of the present note issue.

During the past ten years net earnings have averaged over two and three-quarters times the maximum interest requirements, while for the past two years the earnings have amounted to more than six and one-third times the interest requirements. No mortgages shall be allowed to exist on the company's property except purchase money mortgages for the purchase of additional property.

The company agrees to maintain current net assets of at least 200 per cent of the amount of outstanding notes. A sinking fund is to be maintained, which will retire the bonds by purchase in the open market, or by call, at the rate of $225,000 per year. The bonds are to be sold at par and interest.

HOME SERVICE COMPANY.

At the monthly meeting of the Home Service Company the board of directors declared the regular quarterly dividend of $2 per share on first and second preferred stock of record September 30. The dividend is payable October 20. Reports show a condition of business far ahead of that of last year at the corresponding period.

LOS ANGELES STOCKS.

A day of heavy trading was featured by an upswing in Tom Reed, based on favorable news from the field. This stock has apparently overcome the depression in which it has been laboring for some time. It sold yesterday through a brisk demand up to $1.40, reacting to a closing bid of $1.36, but with no offerings in sight. Other mines were also active. Industrials were weak in spots; oils steady. Government bonds were in strong demand at prices fractionally higher than Monday's close. Lake View Oil Company No. 2 was called for the first time and sold without fluctuation at $1.30. The public appeared to take a deeper interest in the market than for some time and a large gallery followed the activities through both morning and afternoon sessions.

TICKER TICKS.

President Pardee of the American Electric Railway Association said prosperity is more general in the electric railway business today than for two years, with the outlook for the future bright.

Is Your Money Earning Over 8%?

If your money is not earning 8% or more, you should not miss the opportunity now presented to secure that return through purchase of the shares of some of America's soundest dividend-paying corporations.

This abnormal yield is brought about by the decline which has occurred in the stock market, due to industrial deflation, but inasmuch as the securities we have in mind are bound to advance to levels more in keeping with their intrinsic worth when the market turns, the present opportunity should be taken advantage of immediately.

A circular we have just published outlines the one best selection in the railroad, equipment, food, oil, tobacco and copper groups, and this circular with booklet explaining The Ten Payment Plan will be sent without obligation.

Government's Estimate on Wheat Given.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—Stocks of wheat in the United States on October 1 totaled 986,000,000 bushels, the Department of Agriculture estimated today. This compared with 747,000,000 bushels in the country on the same date last year.

The total on hand the first of this month, the department announced, represented 477,000,000 bushels held by farmers, 162,000,000 held at country mills and elevators, and 39,000,000 bushels held at other interior points of accumulation. Last year on October 1, farmers held 515,000,000 bushels, country mills and elevators 142,000,000 bushels, and other points of accumulation 94,000,000 bushels.

The department reported that from July 1 to October 1 the farmers marketed 707,000,000 bushels, as contrasted with 430,000,000 bushels marketed in the corresponding period of 1919.

The crop this year plus the carry-over from 1919 is estimated at 794,000,000 bushels, or about 17 per cent less than last year.

BARLEY FUTURES GAIN $2.50 TO $3 PER TON.

Under pressure of heavy buying activity, and in sympathy with the prevailing strength of the outside markets, all shipments of barley made very strong advances during the call on the local grain exchange yesterday. At the close of the session, track barley had registered a gain of $1.75 per ton, the transit shipment was up $2.50 per ton, while other near-by deliveries were $2.25 per ton higher. One car of spot barley was sold at $2.11½ during the day. The futures moved up sharply, October closing $2.50 per ton higher than the previous delivery moved up $3 per ton, and the December article advanced $2.75 per ton. A sale of November barley was made at $2.22½, while the December delivery brought from $2.20½ to $2.27½. Sales of barley futures during the day amounted to 1400 tons.

THE CHASE NATIONAL BANK OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK, TRUSTEE

Further information in regard to this issue of notes is given in a letter of Mr. Julius Rosenwald, President of the Company, dated October 8, 1920, from which we summarize as follows:

These notes are the direct obligations of Sears, Roebuck & Co. and constitute the only funded debt of the company.

The proceeds of this issue will be applied to the reduction of current liabilities, thereby not increasing present indebtedness.

The company's outstanding capital stock at current quotations represents an equity of about $130,000,000, ranking junior to the notes.

Net earnings, after deducting all interest charges, but before providing for Federal taxes for the four years ended December 31, 1919, average $20,926,692, or about six times the maximum annual interest charges of $3,500,000 on the notes. The net earnings for the six months ended June 30, 1920, after deducting all interest charges, but before providing for Federal taxes, amount to $15,447,285.

The trust agreement requires the maintaining of quick assets equal to at least one and one-half times all liabilities, including these notes, and provides that no mortgage or other lien, except purchase money mortgages, may be placed upon any of the assets of the company.

We Offer These Notes When, As and If Issued and Received by Us, Subject to Prior Sale and to the Approval of Counsel

$16,500,000, due October 15, 1921, at 99.20 and interest, to yield about 7.85 per cent
$16,500,000, due October 15, 1922, at 98.72 and interest, to yield about 7.70 per cent
$17,000,000, due October 15, 1923, at 98.41 and interest, to yield about 7.60 per cent

It is expected that temporary notes or interim receipts will be ready for delivery on or about Oct. 25, 1920. All legal matters in connection with this issue will be approved by Rushmore, Bisbee and Stern and Moses and Singer of New York and Arthur B. Schaffner of Chicago.

—there's nothing like a bit of Phonograph music to relieve the everyday monotony of housework for mother

"Mothers" are usually entitled to more relaxation than they get. That "hour to spare" could be made doubly enjoyable and restful if mother had a phonograph.

There's nothing like good music to "smooth out the puckers" of strenuous living, and there's nothing like a phonograph to supply the musical needs of the average household.

We Have Columbia Grafonolas Priced from $50 to $575

Use our "easy pay" plan. You'll scarcely notice paying for a phonograph that way. Don't put off—if you are doing without an abundance of good phonograph music in your home, you are robbing yourself and your family of a world of happiness and inexpensive entertainment.

Are You Pretty Enough?

Of course not. Nobody is. But it is easy to improve your looks. Begin with your skin.

If you have freckles, get rid of them.
If you have a dark, muddy skin, bleach it.
If your skin is dry and rough, freshen it.
If you sunburn easily, prevent it.
If you detect fine lines, revitalize your skin, and do it NOW.

The best and cheapest way to do any of these things is to use FRECKLE-OFF. This cream is the result of years of study of one of the world's greatest skin specialists.

FRECKLE-OFF will make your freckles fade away. It will keep them away if applied under powder while out in sun, wind or sea.
FRECKLE-OFF will whiten any skin.
FRECKLE-OFF makes the skin soft and smooth.
FRECKLE-OFF prevents sunburn if used BEFORE going in sun, wind or sea.
FRECKLE-OFF keeps the skin YOUNG.
Don't take "something just as good." It doesn't exist.

SOCIETY.

BY VIRGINIA WOODS.

Back from Canada.

Dr. and Mrs. Granville MacGowan and daughter, Miss Eleanor MacGowan, with Mr. and Mrs. James Calhoun Drake and Mrs. Mary Wilcox Longstreet, are back from a delightful trip to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C. They were gone six weeks and stopped en route at San Francisco and on their return visited in Seattle.

Miss MacGowan was looking her best in a very becoming new fall costume at the tea given on Tuesday by Baroness Alfred de Ropp in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Harold De Ropp (Margaret Trimble) and Mrs. Robert Norris, who has just come here from Philadelphia to make her home.

In the little coterie of guests were a bevy of interesting callers, including Lady Popham-Young, who, with her husband, Sir Frank Popham-Young, are distinguished Anglo-Indians. They have been feted by America's most important folk since coming to the United States and are here from Santa Barbara.

Miss Geraldine Graham of Montecito was also at the party, discussing with vivacity plans for her coming marriage in New York to Whitney Warren, Jr. They are to be married a month earlier than they had expected—and she and her mother will be going to New York next month or early in December. The young couple plan to sail three days after the wedding for Paris, which will be their home for two years, while he is studying architecture at Ecole des Beaux Arts, where his father studied before him. Her mother, Mrs. William Miller Graham, is now in New York and will stop in Oklahoma City on her way home in two weeks, when Miss Graham will join her at Montecito and begin plans for the wedding. Mrs. Desider Joseph Vescel (Nina Jones) was another who claimed much attention and was bidding many friends adieux as she and her brilliant young pianist husband are leaving for Paris on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vescel.

Southern California society is soon to lose Mr. and Mrs. Vescel for a long time, as they expect to reside abroad for two years at least. It will be nice for them, through that they expect to be near the future Mrs. Whitney Warren, Jr., upon their arrival in Paris soon after the wedding in January.

This evening Mr. and Mrs. Vescel are giving a farewell dinner party at the California Club, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Thompson of Montecito. Others in the party are Dr. and Mrs. Rae Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William May Garland and Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Connell. Mr. and Mrs. Connell entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Vescel on Tuesday and Mrs. Wells Smith gave a tea for them Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Garland arrived home Tuesday—she from New York and he from Europe, where he spent the summer.

By Mrs. Chase.

Mrs. C. W. Chase was a luncheon hostess on Tuesday, entertaining a company of twelve at the Los Angeles Country Club.

For Countess Senni.

Countess Senni (Julia Spalding) of Honolulu, who has been visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Spalding, left yesterday for San Francisco, whence she sails for the Hawaiian Islands.

On Monday Mrs. Harold B. Wrenn entertained at luncheon in her honor at the California Club. A big basket of rose-tinted dahlias and delphinium centered the table, where there were plates for Mrs. Rufus Spalding, Mrs. Henry Norman Jenson, Mrs. Harry Coburn Turner, Mrs. William A. Brackenridge, Mrs. Thomas E. Curtin, Mrs. Irving Wright, Mrs. E. Avery McCarthy, Mrs. Morgan O. Adams and Miss Katherine Strickler.

For Miss Hope-Clark.

Miss Hope-Clark of London, Eng., who is a guest of Mrs. Erasmus Wilson at 7 Chester Place, is the motif for a luncheon which Mrs. Homer Eads is arranging for Thursday, October 21, at the Mary Louise tea room. She will have eighteen guests. Mrs. Eads has recently come here from San Antonio, Tex., to reside and has bought a home at 601 South Virgil avenue.

Dancing Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin T. Weiner, who have just moved to Venice for the winter, were last evening hosts at a supper and dancing party in honor of Miss Maude Welrick and Foster Parker, who are to be married this month. Miss Welrick's maid of honor, Miss Ruth Davis of Butte, Mont., who arrived yesterday morning, and Edward Burrows were the other guests.

By Mrs. Johns.

Mrs. W. S. Johns is to be hostess at a dinner and dancing party at the Los Angeles Country Club on Saturday evening.

By Mr. Mathews.

Mr. Robert D. Mathews of 710 Beverly Drive, Beverly Hills, is to be host at a dinner party at his home Saturday evening.

Mrs. Ross.

Mrs. A. B. Ross was a dinner hostess last evening, entertaining eight guests at the Los Angeles Country Club.

Hon. and Mrs. Rountree.

Hon. J. A. Rountree, the director-general of the United States Good Roads Association and director of the United States Army transcontinental convoy, which visited Los Angeles last week and disbanded here, is spending several days in the city. He is accompanied by Mrs. Rountree and daughter, Miss Selene Rountree, and son Mac. They have many friends in the city and during their stay here are being extensively entertained with dinners, theater parties and drives around Los Angeles. Mrs. Rountree is a leader in literary, social and philanthropic work in the South. She has been the guest of the Wade Hampton chapter and the Los Angeles chapter here. They are returning to their home in Birmingham, Ala., tomorrow.

Mrs. Cheney.

Mrs. Henry S. Cheney of 1511 South Figueroa street will be at home this afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock, the affair being the silver tea for the ladies of Immanuel Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Lippincott Home.

Mrs. Charles Lippincott and her son, Gardner Lippincott, of North Harvard Boulevard have returned from a month's visit in the East. Part of the time was spent in New York and cities near by and part in Washington. They also visited a few days in Moline, Ill., the former home of Mrs. Lippincott. Mrs. Charles R. Stevens of 316 Andrews Boulevard was also in the party, although she spent part of her time in Poughkeepsie with her son.

Mr. and Mrs. Bosworth.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bosworth of 4216 Halldale avenue entertained at a supper party in honor of Mrs. B. F. Stanwood of San Diego and having a group of former Nebraska friends to greet her. The decorations for the drawing-room were goldenrod and cannas, while roses and ferns were in the dining-room and in the rest of the house. The guests were Judge and Mrs. T. L. Norvall, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Atwood, Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Dickinson, Mrs. M. R. Johns, Mrs. Bird Taylor Swanson and Miss Bess Dickinson.

Personals.

Mrs. I. N. Van Nuys, who spent the summer at her beach cottage in Santa Monica, is soon to close the place and will be returning to the Beverly Hills Hotel November 15 for the winter.

Mr. Everett H. Seaver is in Washington, D. C., having gone there on business, which will keep him two weeks longer.

Mrs. J. J. Haggarty has returned from a visit to San Diego and Coronado.

CAR IS SAVED BY A PUMPKIN.

Stolen Auto Recovered When Cargo's Recognized; Two Men Under Arrest.

This is the story of a pumpkin that caused the recovery of a stolen motor car. It was grown by Harry Clamp at 3108 Maple avenue, was placed in the automobile of the grower's father, H. C. Clamp, and disappeared with the $1000 machine. A description of the pumpkin was therefore sent out by Deputy Sheriffs Wright and Strong along with that of the missing car.

At Yuma an officer saw a pumpkin in a car and examined both. He identified them as Mr. Clamp's property and as a result arrested Bert Ryan and E. W. Stone, who yesterday were accused by the District Attorney of grand larceny—the theft of the car and the pumpkin.

POLICEMAN IS HELD ON GRAVE CHARGES.

SUSPENDED OFFICER WILL BE TRIED FOR ASSERTED ATTACK ON WOMAN.

After being scored by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Hill yesterday, James Norrington, suspended police officer, was held to answer by Justice Forbes on four counts of a complaint charging assault with intent to commit an offense against Mrs. Mary Letcher, an attempt to commit the offense, assault to do great bodily harm and false imprisonment.

Mr. Hill stated that Norrington's account of how he lost his badge, which Mrs. Letcher says she took from him and which she afterwards gave to the District Attorney, was not substantiated and that other statements made by the accused were conflicting. He also asserted that "such men," who cast unjust suspicion upon innocent members of the police department, should be punished.

Mrs. Letcher, of the Vermont Apartments, Ninth street and Vermont avenue, said she met Norrington, who was in uniform, late at night, on August 19; that she asked him about a street car and that he offered to take her home in his automobile. On the way, she said, she was attacked.
